

Bankrupts, on Thursday the 12th day of February next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or any other proceedings, for the recovery, defence, or preservation of any part of the said Bankrupts' joint or separate estate and effects; or to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter, cause, or thing relating thereto; and also to the said Assignees selling, by public auction or private contract, as they shall think fit, all or any part of the estates, stock in trade, and effects of the said Bankrupts, to any person or persons whomsoever, in such lots or parcels, either for ready money, upon credit, or upon such securities as the said Assignees shall think most advisable, and either subject to any charges or incumbrances (if any) thereon, or free from such charges by paying off the same; and to the said Assignees in like manner selling and disposing of the furniture, chattels, and other effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, by public auction or private contract, or on such terms as aforesaid; and also to the said Assignees paying the salaries and wages of the clerks, agents, and servants of the said Bankrupts in full; and to their delivering up all or any bills, notes, securities, or other effects which were in the possession of the Bankrupts at the time of their bankruptcy belonging to other persons, upon which the said Bankrupts had no lien or claim; and also all other bills, notes, securities, or effects on which the said Assignees, in right of the said Bankrupts, may have any liens or claims on payment or satisfaction of such liens or claims; and also to assent to or dissent from their investing the moneys from time to time to be received, or so much thereof as and when they shall see fit, in the purchase of Exchequer bills; and to their employing the said Bankrupts, or either of them, and also such accountant, agents, or clerks as they may think proper, for the settlement and arrangement of the accounts and affairs of the said Bankrupts, and collecting in all or any part or parts of the debts and effects of the said Bankrupts in England, or in parts beyond the seas or elsewhere, with liberty for them to make to the said Bankrupts, and to such accountant, agents, or clerks, or other person or persons, from time to time such compensation or allowance in respect thereof as the said Assignees shall deem fair and reasonable; and to their joining in any deed or other instrument for conveying, releasing, or otherwise assigning or assuring (if necessary) any trust property which may appear to be vested in the said Bankrupts, or either of them, either alone or jointly with other persons; and to the said Assignees relinquishing to the said Bankrupts, or to either of them, such parts of their household furniture and effects as they may judge proper upon services rendered, or to be rendered, or to their selling the same to the said Bankrupts, or to any other person; by public auction or by private contract, and for ready money or on credit or security as they may think proper; and also to the said Assignees accepting any lease or leases held by the Bankrupts, or either of them, as part of the said Bankrupts' estate, or to their repudiating such lease or leases, or assigning or surrendering the same to the landlord or landlords thereof, or to any other person or persons whomsoever; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing any person or persons residing in, or to send any person or persons to Germany, or any other place or places abroad, to sell and dispose of any goods or merchandise consigned by the said Assignees, and to settle accounts between the said Bankrupts' estate and any consignee or other person or persons whatsoever, and to collect, receive, and get in the moneys and effects due to the said Bankrupts' estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees shipping, on consignment or otherwise, to any person or persons abroad, all or such parts of the said Bankrupts' stock in trade as are adapted solely to a foreign market, and on credit or otherwise, and to accepting and receiving in lieu thereof such bills of exchange, or other returns, as such consignee shall remit for the same; and also to the said Assignees executing any foreign order or orders out of such part of the Bankrupts' stock as is fit and adapted for a foreign market, and either for ready money or on credit or security, as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to the said Assignees having full power and authority to settle all insurance or underwriting accounts in which the said Bankrupts, or either of them, are concerned or interested, and to arrange and settle any average or other loss upon the same, and to compromise and compound the balance due on any such accounts; and also to the said Assignees delivering over all funds remitted to or received by the said Bankrupts, or to be remitted to or received by the said Assignees, to provide for engagements entered into by the Bankrupts, on account of third persons on the said Bankrupts' estate being exonerated from all liabilities on account of any such engagements; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Ellis, of Sidney-Street, Commercial-Road, in the County of Middlesex, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 7th day of February next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling the stock in trade, household goods, furniture, and effects of the Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, and for ready money or upon such credit, terms, and conditions as the said Assignees shall think beneficial to the Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying on the Bankrupt's business of a Licensed Victualler at the risk and for the benefit of his estate until the said stock in trade, goods, and effects, shall be disposed of; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing the Bankrupt, or some other proper person, to collect the outstanding debts due to the Bankrupt's estate, and making to such person so to be employed such compensation as the said Assignees shall deem proper; and also to the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending, and discontinuing or referring to arbitration, as they may deem expedient, any action or suit at law or in equity, for the recovery or preservation of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any debt or debts due to the Bankrupt's estate, or any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Archibald Thomson, of Mile-End-Road, in the County of Middlesex, Nursery and Seedsman, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 9th day of February next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to take into consideration the claims made by certain persons (to be named at the meeting) to the green-houses, walls, fences, trees, fixtures, and utensils in trade, in the use and occupation of the said Bankrupt at the date and issuing forth of the said Commission; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees relinquishing the said green-house, walls, fences, trees, and utensils in trade, in favour of such claimants, or otherwise to authorise and direct the said Assignees relative thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the outstanding debts belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate by public auction or private contract, partly or wholly, and in one or more lot or lots, to such person or persons, upon such terms and conditions, as shall appear most advisable to the said Assignees, or otherwise to authorise and direct the said Assignees relative thereto; and also to take into consideration the affairs of the said Bankrupt's estate, in order to determine upon the best course to be pursued for bringing them to a close; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Barnby, of Spalding, in the County of Lincoln, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 7th day of February next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, or other proceedings, for the recovery, protection, or defence of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or otherwise relating to the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding, or otherwise arranging with any debtor or debtors to the said Bankrupt's estate for the payment of any debt or debts due to the same; and to the said Assignees submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling and agreeing any accounts, differences, or dis-
