SUMMONS BY EDICT.

By virtue of authority granted by His Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c. President of the Honourable the Courts of Justice, sole Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty of the Colony of Barbice and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. dated the 29th October 1828;

I, the undersigned, at the instance of James Culley, in quality as duly appointed, by Power of Attorney, to represent John Ross, do hereby, for the first time, summon by edict all known and unknown creditors and claimants on the proceeds of plantation Overysse, cum annexis, and slaves, sold at execution sale on the 9th October 1828, the property of John Downer, to appear before the Bar of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their Session, to be holden in the month of April 1829 (say one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine), there to render in their respective claims, properly substantiated and in due form and time, against the proceeds of aforementioned plantation Overysse, cum annexis, and slaves; whereas in default of which, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edictal, will be proceeded against the non-appears according to law.

This first summons by edict published as customary.—Barbice, the 30th October 1828.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

[Inserted by Mr. Guitard, Notary Public, 27, Birch-in-Lane, London.]

TO be resold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Hill v. Evans, before James Stephen, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, in the month of February next, in one lot;

All that manor of Marden, otherwise Marwardine, in the County of Hereford, with its rights, royalties, courts and appurtenances which comprises six Townships, and extends over more than 5,000 acres of land, with an extensive fishery within river Lugg, the chief or quit rents due from the freeholders and copyholders amount to £27 and upwards, the rents of sixteen cottages holden of the manor amounts to £15 and upwards; also a farm in the said Parish of Marden, containing about 33 acres of excellent arable, meadow, pasture and orcharding, with a barn and other buildings, situate at the Venn, seven miles from the City of Hereford, and about ten miles from Bromyard and Leominster.

Printed particulars may shortly be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings; of Mr. Church, Great James-Street, Bedford-Row; Mr. King, Serjeant's-Inn, Fleet-Street; Messrs. Dax and Co. Gray's-Inn-Square, London; Messrs. James, Bodenham and Hardwicke, Mr. J. R. Watkyns, and Mr. Cleave, Solicitors, Hereford.

WHEREAS by an Order of the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, made in the matter of Robert Constable the elder, a Lunatic, it is referred to William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, to inquire whether there are any and what mortgages or other charges or incumbrances affecting the said lunatic's estate, and also to take an account of the said lunatic's debts; pursuant, therefore to the said Order, all persons having any charge or incumbrance on the said lunatic's estate, and all persons claiming to be Creditors of the said lunatic, are, on or before the 16th day of February next, by their Solicitors, to come in before the said Master, Mr. Wingfield, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their respective claims, or in default thereof they will respectively be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Kirke against Kirke, the Creditors of John Kirke, late of East Retford, in the County of Nottingham, Esq. deceased (who died in or about the month of February 1826), are, on or before the 02th day of February next, to come in and prove their debts before Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
