MR. PEARSON and Mr. Lawrance have agreed to dissolve, from this day, their Partnership on the following terms:

All business now pending in the Office to be completed for the joint profit of both parties, by that Partner who has hitherto had the personal conduct thereof.

Mr. Lawrance is to receive from Mr. Pearson, after all the Partnership claims specified in the schedule to be prepared, as is mentioned below, are satisfied, a sum equivalent to two-thirds of a moiety of the clear profit of the Partnership business for two years on an average of the last five years, viz.:—Supposing the clear profits on such average shall amount to £3000 a year, then Mr. Lawrance is to receive £2000.

Mr. Franklin, their present Clerk, to make out all the accounts and receive all bills upon the Partnership, and therefrom discharge, in the first instance, from time to time, all debts mentioned in a schedule to be prepared by him, and acknowledged by both parties to be debts due from the Partnership, and afterwards to divide the bills in the following manner: The disbursements charged in the bills to be paid to the Partner having made the disbursements, and the profits to be divided between the Partners according to their interests therein, viz. one-third to Mr. Lawrance, and two-thirds to Mr. Pearson, for the business done during the first five years of the Partnership, and equally between them for all the business transacted since, or which remains to be completed, but subject to the preceding arrangement.

That it is expressly understood that all outstanding bills are to be forthwith delivered, and payment enforced, and that in no instance payment is to be delayed by the interference of either Partner, unless such Partner is debited with the amount of such bill, as for so much money received by him: As witness the hands of both Partners.
