INTIMATION.

Montrose Bank, Montrose, February 3, 1829.

AT a Special General Meeting of the Partners of the Montrose Bank, held on the 31st day of December last, it was resolved, that, from and after the 3d day of February in the year 1829, the Company should give up their trade of Banking, their notes be called in, and their whole debts and obligations paid up;—

Notice is therefore hereby given, that, from this date, the Montrose Bank have ceased to issue notes, draw or discount bills, grant receipts for deposit money, or transact or carry on any trade as Bankers; and that their notes at present in circulation, deposit receipts, or any other obligations, will be paid or settled at the National Bank of Scotland's Office, in Montrose, where all debts whatsoever due by the Montrose Bank, previous to this date, will be paid.

By order of the Directors and Managers of the Montrose Bank,
DAVID HILL, Cashier.

*DAVID CRAIGIE, Witness.

NEXT OF KIN.

IF the Relations or Next of Kin of John Wadley, deceased, late a Drummer in His Majesty's 48th Regiment of Foot, will apply to George Maule, Esq. Solicitor for the Affairs of His Majesty's Treasury, either personally, or by letter (post paid), at No. 5, Stone-Buildings, Lincoln's-Inn, London, they may hear of something to their advantage.

ALL persons having any claims or demands upon the estate of John Vancouver, formerly of Great George-Street, Edgware-Road, in the County of Middlesex, then of Brewers-Street, Woolwich, in the County of Kent, then of Temple-Street, Prospect-Place, and lastly of Melton-Terrace, both in the Parish of Saint George the Martyr, in the County of Surrey, Esq. deceased, are requested to send the particulars thereof, together with the particulars of any security they may have, to the Executors, in order to their being arranged; and all persons being indebted to the same estate are desired to pay the same to Mr. J. Fitch of No. 6, Union-Street, Southwark, Solicitor for the Executors.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein William Richard Eaves and others are the plaintiffs and George West and others are the defendants, at the George Inn, Dale-Street, Liverpool, on Friday the 20th day of February 1829, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, by Messrs. John and James Trotter, with the approbation of James Trower, Esq. the Master to whom this Cause stands referred, in one lot;

Certain closes, pieces, or parcels of land, held under a lease from the Earl of Sefton, dated 21st April 1785, for three lives and the life of the survivor, of which two are now living, and aged respectively 65 and 45 years, situate in the Township of Lytherland and Parish of Sefton, in the County of Lancaster.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Adlington, Gregory, and Faulkner, of Bedford-Row, London; of Mr. Bennell, 29, Abchurch-Lane, London; of Mr. Dawson, Solicitor, Liverpool; and at the place of sale.

To Capitalists, Builders, and others.—Lewisham, Kent.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Allen v. Allen, with the approbation of William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, in two lots;

Certain freehold estates, the property of the late John Allen, Esq. deceased, situate at Lewisham, in the County of Kent, consisting of a valuable freehold estate, situate at Loam Pitt Hill, adjoining the high road from London to Lewisham, Lee, and Bromley, between the fourth and fifth mile stones in the Parish of Lewisham, containing 52A. 1R. 13P. more or less, in the several occupations of Messrs. Lee and of Matthew Finch, Esq. at rents producing together £335 5s. 0d. per annum, and a ground rent of £35 per annum, amply secured by a substantial brick built dwelling-house, outbuildings, and offices, eligibly situate in Lewisham, opposite the road leading to Lee, and now in the occupation of Mr. John Steele, for the residue of two several terms of years, whereof about seventeen years are unexpired, when the purchaser will be entitled to the freehold of the premises and the improved rent for the same.

Particulars and conditions of the sale are being prepared and may shortly be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Mr. Allen, Solicitor, Clifford's-Inn, London; Messrs. Parker and Sons, Lewisham, Kent; and at the Green Man, Blackheath.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, made in the matter of George Watts, a lunatic, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, at the Mermaid Inn, in Yeovil, in the County of Somerset, on Friday the 13th day of March 1829, at Six o'Clock in the Evening;

Certain freehold and leasehold estates, consisting of a substantial built dwelling-house, with three cottages adjoining thereto, situate in Vicarage-Street, in Yeovil aforesaid; a stable, with the warehouses and workshops thereto adjoining, situate opposite the Pall Inn; an orchard, called Croft, with the dwelling-house and buildings thereon; and several pews and sittings in the church of Yeovil aforesaid.

The estates may be viewed by consent of the several tenants, and particulars may be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Mr. Whitelock, Solicitor, No. 26, Cateaton-Street, London; of Mr. H. M. Watts, Solicitor, Yeovil; of Mr. E. Watts, Land-Surveyor; of Mr. Etheridge, Auctioneer; and at the Mermaid Inn, in Yeovil aforesaid.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Johnston v. Johnston, before James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, on Thursday the 12th day of March next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon;
