P. S. August 19. Since yesterday the Enemy bave sgain Jorung a Mine under the Ravelin, and given an again spring a 1/1 me under the Aveetin, and given an affault with 11000 Men, whom we received very well with our great and small shot, and in conclusion they made an inconsiderable Lodgment, though with the loss of 300 of their Men; but this morning I spring a Mine; which dislodged them, and buried a great number of their lives of their servers. ber of them. I expect at this minute a like Entertainment from them, and if I can be ready before them, I will spring one more to your Highnesses Health.

Lintz, August 27. We have Letters which give us an account that the Turks made the 21. instant, a very furious count that the Turks made the 21. instant, a very furious Assault upon Vienna, which they renewed six several times, and that they lost in these Attacks above 20000 men, and the Besieged 5000, of which we expect a Consirmation. This is certain that Major General Dunewalt has possessed himself of a Passage in the Forest of Vienna, which is of the greatest Importance imaginable. There is a report that the Avantguard of the Polish Army has joyned the Duke of Lorrain; and we are told that the King of Poland will be with the Emperor to morrow.

Ratisbonne, September 2. The Letters from Lintz of the 28th past inform us, That the Count D'aversberg arrived there that day from the Imperial Camp, with the News, That 15000 Turks and Tartars marching towards the Imperial Army, to attack them before their Conjunction with the Ring of Poland, and the Troops of the Empire; The Duke of Lorrain, upon the knowledge of it, had ordered the Chevalier de Lubomirski, with the Polifi Troops under his com-mand, to advance towards the Enemy, and in case he found them too strong for him, to retire, and to draw them after the Turks, with great eagerness, pursued them so far, that the Duke of Lorrain, who was prepared to receive them, easily surrounded them, and cut most of them in pieces, the easily surrounded them, and cut most of them in pieces, the rest stell set in so great Consuson, that hardly 1000 of them escaped, for those that were not killed, were drowned in the River Marcke; The Bassa's of Canisha and Bria commanded these Troops, the first saved himself by Swimming the River, but the other was killed; and we are told that the Imperialist have taken 27 Standards, and a great many Horses. The Letters add, that General Rabata was arrived at Lintz, and gave an account that Major General Dunewalt had beaten the Turks from a Passage of very great Consequence, in the Forest of Vienna. That the King of Poland would joyn the Imperial Army the 29th, and that the Turks have lodged themselves in the Ditch of Vienna, and that consequency the place is in great danger. As to the Torks have lodged themselves in the Ditch of Vienna, and that consequently the place is in great danger. As to the News of this place, we can only tell you, that our Electronal Colledge have resolved to accept of the Truce as proposed by the most Christian King; but the Colledge of Princes will only accept of a Truce, and will treat afterwards about the Conditions of it, and the time it is to last.

Eruffels, September 7. The French Troops are entred the Spanish Territories, and are at present encamped between Heth and Gramont, being about 35000 men, and the Mareschal d'Humieres has his head Quarters at Lessines: He has sent out several Parties to raise Contributions, and has has sent out several Parties to raise Contributions, and has fummoned all the Country round this place, to pay the same within eight days, which puts the Country People into a great Consternation. The Marquiss de Grana has drawn together the Horse in this Province, being about 2000; and has sent Monssieur d'Agurto our Maistre de Camp General to Ghent, to take care of Flanders. And it's said that 4000 men will arrive here to morrow or next day from Holland; and that the Magistrates of this Ciry have agreed to raise 2000 men, and to pay them for three months. The Letters 2000 men, and to pay them for three months. The Letters from Germany give us a good account of things in relation to Vienna. They tell us that the Duke of Lorrain had totally defeated a Body of 15000 Turks and Tarrars: That Major defeated a Body of 15000 Turks and Tartars: That Major General Dunewalt had beaten the Turks from a very advantageous Post they had taken in the Forest of Vienna; and that the King of Poland was expected at Krembs with 10000 Horse the 27th past. The Letters likewise speak of a General Assault given by the Turks the 21th, which they repeated six times, with the greatest Fury imaginable, and that the Turks lost in that days Action 24000 men, and the Befieged 5000, but the Marquiss de Grana having no account of this Assault from the Duke of Lorrain or the Imperial Court, we do not give a persect Credit to it.

• Cologne, September 3. The Letters from Lintz, Ratisforme, and other places, give us an account that the Duke of Lorrain has defeated a Body of 15000 Turks and Duke of Lorrain has defeated a Body of 15000 Turks and Tartars, with a very great Slaughter, and that greated pare of those that endeavoured to escape, were drowned in the River Marke, that the Imperialists took 22 Standards, and a great many Horses, and that among the rest, it was said the Son of the Cham of Tartary was killed. That all things were preparing for the relief of Vienna, and that the Armies would be joyned the 30th past, and to facilitate their March, Major General Dunewalt had taken a very Important post in the Porest of Vienna, and that the Beseged continue to make a brave desence. There are Letters which say, that the Turks made a very sierce Assault the 21 past, and that they lost 20000, and the Beseged 5000, but they do not they loft 20000, and the Befieged 5000, but they do not come from the Imperial Camp, and frem to need a Confirmation.

Paris, September 8. On Monday last about three a Clock in the Morning, died Monsieur Colbert; during his illness, several Persons apprehending the Consequences of it, withdrew their Money which they had lent to the Bank, set up by him, and thereby gave occasion to others to do the like, and the Alarm spreading, and the Bank being unable to satisfic all the Demands that were made, it was thut up, and still continues so to the great reconvenence of many Persons of the press reconvenence of many Persons of the press reconvenence of many Persons of the great reconvenence of the great persons of the great reconvenence tistic all the Demands that were made, it was flut up, and still continues so to the great Inconveniency of many Perfons concerned. The King has given Monsieur Colberts place to Monsieur Pelletire, with the Title of Surintendant of his Revenues; and that of Surintendant of his Buildings, which Monsieur de Blaniville Son to the deceased had, to Monsieur de Louvois, who in consideration thereof is to pay Monsieur de Blaniville 500000 Livres. The Kings Troops are entred into the Spanish Netherlands; The Army being commanded by the Mareschal d'Humleres. We have advice that sour men of War are parted from Thoulou to jour that four men of War are parted from Thoulon to joyn Monsieur du Quesse, and that four more are to follow; but that the Gallies that are with Mondeur du Quesse have orders to return home. Our Letters from Germany tell us, that thingsgo very well at Vienna; and that the King of Poland has joyned the Imperial Army: And there has been a report in Town fince velterday, that the Siege is raised, which we must expect a Confirmation of.

which we mult expect a Confirmation of.
