The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Henry Dawson, of Milton-abbey, in the county of Dorset, Esq. (commonly called the Honourable Henry Dawson), a Captain in the Royal Navy, second son of John, first Earl of Portarlington, deceased, His royal licence and authority, that he may take and use the surname of Damer in addition to his present surname of Dawson, and bear the arms of Damer quarterly with those of Dawson (Damer in the first quarter), and that such surname and arms may be borne by his issue respectively, out of grateful respect to the memory of his cousin, Caroline Damer (commonly called the Right Honourable Lady Caroline Damer), late of Milton-abbey aforesaid, and of Came, in the said county of Dorset, spinster, deceased, the only daughter of Joseph, late Earl of Dorchester, Viscount Milton, and Baron Milton, also deceased, and in compliance with an injunction contained in her last will and testament, bearing date the 3d day of January 1827; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, March 14, 1828.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto George Lionel Dawson, of Came, in the county of Dorset, Esq. (commonly called the Honourable George Lionel Dawson), Companion of the Order of the Bath, and Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army, third son of John, first Earl of Portarlington, deceased, His royal licence and authority, that he may take and use the surname of Damer, in addition to his present surname of Dawson, and bear the arms of Damer quarterly with those of Dawson (Damer in the first quarter), and that such surname and arms may be borne by his issue respectively, out of grateful respect to the memory of his cousin, Caroline Damer (commonly called the Right Honourable Lady Caroline Damer), late of Milton-abbey and Came, both in the said county of Dorset, spinster, deceased, the only daughter of Joseph, late Earl of Dorchester, Viscount Milton, and Baron Milton, also deceased, and in compliance with an injunction contained in her last will and testament, bearing date the 3d day of January 1827; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, March 14, 1829.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Samuel-Helbert Israel, late of St. Mary-Axe, in the city of London, and now of Keppel-street, Russell-square, in the county of Middlesex, merchant, His royal licence and authority, that he may henceforth take and use the name of Ellis in addition to his own, and be called Samuel-Helbert Israel-Ellis, and that such name of Ellis may in like manner be taken, borne, and used by his issue, in compliance with a direction contained in the last will and testament of his maternal uncle, Ellis Delisser, late of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster and diocese of Chester, Gent. deceased, bearing date the 10th day of December last, as well as in testimony of his grateful and affectionate regard for the memory of the testator; provided the said concession and declaration be recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the same be duly registered in the College of Arms.

Whitehall, March 23, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 7th instant, a barn, containing the produce of about twenty acres of wheat, belonging to a farm at Blakeney, near Holt, in the county of Norfolk, in the occupation of James Sparham, and adjoining to his dwelling-house, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire and burnt down, by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn) who shall discover his accom-
