Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 10, 1829.

ORDERS for the Court's going into mourning, on Sunday next the 12th instant, for His Serene Highness the late Landgrave of Hesse Hombourg, Brother in Law to His Majesty, viz.

The Ladies to wear black silk, plain muslin or long lawn, crape or love hoods, black silk shoes, black glazed gloves, and black paper fans.

The Gentlemen to wear black cloth, without buttons on the sleeves or pockets, plain muslin or long lawn cravats and weepers, black swords and buckles.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 7, 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 29th instant, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEE, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend the Levee to be held on Wednesday the 29th instant, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office on Saturday the 25th or Monday the 27th instant, before three o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation, it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levee, but in conformity with the above regulations.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 10, 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the King will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 30th instant, at two o'clock, to celebrate His Majesty's Birth-day.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders to wear their Collars.—Persons going to Court on that day are not to appear in mourning.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE COURT AT ST. JAMES'S.

The Ladies who propose to attend the Drawing-Room to be held on Thursday the 30th instant, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Ladies who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Lady who is to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office on Saturday the 25th or Monday the 27th instant, before three o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation, it being His Majesty's command, that no presentations at the Drawing-Room shall hereafter be made by the Lord in Waiting, but by the Lady whose name, with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office.

No Lady can be received by His Majesty at the Drawing-Room, but in conformity with the above regulations.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Foreign-Office, April 8, 1829.

The King has been graciously pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Robert Gordon (lately appointed His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of His Catholic Majesty) to be His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Sublime Ottoman Porte.

Commissions signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Glamorgan.

Morgan Popkin Traherne, Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant. Dated 24th March 1829.

Henry Seymour, Esq. to be ditto. Dated 24th March 1829.

Whitehall, April 1, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the month of January 1828, about one hundred and fifty trees, the property of William Bray, Esq. growing in a lane leading from Shere-heath to the Hurtwood, in the county of Surrey, were barked and otherwise injured or destroyed by some person or persons unknown; and that in the night of the 7th ultimo, one hundred trees, belonging to the said William Bray, growing in Shere-heath aforesaid, and in a plantation adjoining thereto, were cut down and barked: and whereas it hath been also humbly represented unto the King, that in the night of Thursday the 26th ultimo, the underwood growing in a place called the West Churt or Hurtwood, in the said county, the property of Edward Bray, Esq. was set on fire and burnt in several places;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually injured and destroyed the said trees, or set fire to the said underwood) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said William and Edward Bray to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, April 1, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 28th ultimo, some evil-disposed person or persons did wilfully and maliciously set on fire two stacks of hay, belonging to and standing near the dwelling-house of John Peachey, Esq. at Rumboldswick in the county of Sussex, which were entirely consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said John Peachey, Esq. to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, April 2, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about eight o'clock on the night of Wednesday the 25th ultimo, the premises in the occupation of Henry Ashford, in the parish of Creetingham, in the county of Suffolk, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, and that a barn, two stables, a granary, and other buildings, together with a quantity of corn and farming implements, were entirely consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable Lord Rendlesham to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders; so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, April 7, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Thursday the 12th ultimo, the premises in the occupation of Mr. Martin Harsant, in the parish of Framsdon, in the county of Suffolk, the property of Mr. Nathaniel Barthropp; were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons; and that, on the evening of the 23d ultimo, the same premises were again wilfully and maliciously set on fire, when two hay stacks were consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—£50 of such reward to be paid by the proprietor and tenant of the said premises, and £50 by the Equitable Assurance-Office, Norwich.

Navy-Office, April 6, 1829.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st January to the 31st March last, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 20th, 21st, and 22d of April, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attorneys.

On the 23d, 24th, 27th, 28th, and 29th of April, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 30th of April and 1st of May, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit, as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attorneys for that purpose, the said Attorneys are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer

"who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st of March last, will commence paying on the 20th instant; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

G. Smith.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

Navy-Office, April 2, 1829.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 29th instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner Cunningham will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Dock-yard at Chatham, several lots of

Old Stores,

Consisting of old Rope, Shakings, Toppets, Canvas, Iron Tanks, Oakum, and Slop Clothing, &c. &c. &c.

lying in His Majesty's Dock-yards at Chatham and Sheerness.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner at Chatham, and to the Officers of Sheerness Yard, for notes of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, and at the Yards.

G. Smith.

CONTRACTS FOR COAL ASHES.

Navy-Office, April 3, 1829.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 15th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the purchase of produced from the smiths' fires at His Majesty's Dock-yards at Deptford and Woolwich.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £100, for the due performance of the contract for each Yard.

G. Smith.

CONTRACT FOR SCOTCH, WELCH, AND NEWCASTLE COALS.

Navy-Office, April 6, 1829.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 29th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Dock-yards, or any one or more of them, and this Office, with Scotch, Welch, and Newcastle Coals.

A distribution of the coals and a form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per 100 chuldrons, for the due performance of the contract.

Office of Ordnance, Pall-Mall,
April 1, 1829.

POWERFUL TIDE MILL AT PORTSMOUTH.

To be let by public tender, the very superior and powerful Tide Mill for many years belonging to the Victualling Department at that port; it is capable of grinding on the average thirty loads of wheat per week; the sheet of water is extensive, and drives four water wheels (three of which are of iron, recently new); the mill is fitted with wire dressing cylinder, hoisting machine, and every requisite for immediate operation. There is also a drying kiln, with cast iron floor, on the most modern principle. Besides the mill, there is a store-house and workshop detached, and an excellent dwelling-house, replete with grates and fixtures, consisting of parlour, kitchen, and scullery on the ground floor, and six bed-rooms and two dressing-rooms on the first and second floors. This mill being very near the Town Quay, is very convenient for water communication at a small expence of carriage.

The mill and premises above described are to be let for a term of seven, fourteen, or twenty-one years, on conditions that may be seen on application at the Office of Ordnance, Pall-Mall, or at the Royal Engineer's Office, or Office of Ordnance at Portsmouth, subject to such alterations as shall be agreed upon on the application of parties desirous of renting the mill.

The tenders to state, in words at length, the rent proposed to be given, and sent to the Office of Ordnance, Pall-Mall, on or before Saturday the 23d May next, addressed to R. Byham, Esq. and written on the outside, "Tender for the King's Mill at Portsmouth."

By order of the Board,
R. Byham, Secretary.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Remington, Rowland Stephenson, David Robert Remington, and Joseph Petty Toulmin, of Lombard-Street, in the City of London, Bankers, and Copartners, carrying on trade under the firm of Remington, Stephenson, Remington, and Toulmin, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate, on Saturday, the 2d day of May next, at One of the Clock in the Afternoon of the same day, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to take into consideration a proposal made by Thomas Hankey, Esq., the Mortgagee of property called Marshall's, situate at Romford, in the County of Essex; and other property in that neighbourhood, belonging to the separate estate of the above-named Rowland Stephenson, by whom the mortgage was granted, to take a release of the equity of redemption and conveyance to him by the Assignees of the property comprised in the mortgage to him, subject to all incumbrances, in full, for his mortgage debt and interest, and all claims and demands against the estate and effect of the said Rowland Stephenson, when the Creditors will be required to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees accepting such proposal.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Norton, of Clayton West, in the Parish of High Hoyalnd, in the County of York, Fancy Waistcoat-Manufacturer, and Francis Jackson, of Cateaton-Street, in the City of London, Warehousemen, (trading together under the firm of F. Jackson and Co. as Warehousemen, in Cateaton-Street aforesaid), are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on the 21st day of April instant, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the George Inn, in Huddersfield, in the said County of York, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all, or any part of the real and personal estate of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, to any person or persons whomsoever, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, or by valuation and appraisement, and either together, or in lots, or otherwise, and at such times and places, and at such price or prices, either for ready money or on credit, and if on credit, with or without security for the payment of the purchase money, at the risk of the estate of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, as the said Assignees may deem proper, and in case of sale or sales by auction, to buy in and resell any part or parts of the said real or personal estate at the risk and loss of the estate of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, as the said Assignees shall think fit; also to ratify, allow, and confirm the several sales, contracts, acts, matters and things of or concerning the estate of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, made or done by the said Assignees, or by their direction, or by the provisional Assignee of the estate of the said William Norton, under a separate Commission against him prior and up to such meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Edward Dove, of the Dover-Road, in the Parish of St. Mary, Newington, in the County of Surrey, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 2d day of May next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing and prosecuting any action or suit at law or in equity, against any person or persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or for the recovery of any part of his effects, or defending any action which may be brought against the said Assignee; also to sanction the said Assignee compounding with any of the debtors to the said estate; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling or disposing of the stock in hand, lately belonging to the said Bankrupt, together with the houses and premises wherein he lately carried on his business, together with the fixtures in and upon the same, by public auction or private sale; and likewise to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee retaining or employing any person or persons to collect in and receive the debts due to the said estate, making to such persons or person such allowance as the said Assignee shall consider right and just; and also to confirm and allow, or disapprove of the acts and proceedings which may have been adopted by the said Assignee; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph Myall, of Castle Heddingham, in the County of Essex, Hop-Merchant and Brick-Maker, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 6th day of May next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Horn Inn, in Braintree, in the County of Essex, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of, either by public sale or private contract, and at such times, in such lots and manner, and to any person or persons, for ready money, or upon credit, and with or without taking security for the same, and giving such time for the payment thereof as they shall think proper, the freehold, leasehold and copyhold messuage, lands and hereditaments of the said Bankrupt, and all the right and equity of redemption thereof, and all the personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, and to buy in and resell the same estates, real and personal, or such part thereof as they shall think fit without being answerable for any loss which may be occasioned thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees cultivating and carrying on the hop-grounds lately occupied by the said Bankrupt, or carrying on all or any of the businesses lately carried on by the said Bankrupt for a time; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing such agents or other persons as shall be thought proper to adjust the affairs of the said Bankrupt, and to receive and get in the outstanding debts due, or to become due, to the estate of the said Bankrupt, and to their making such agents or other persons such compensation as may seem just; and also to authorise the said Assignees to include in their accounts all such disbursements and expences as have been incurred and expended since the said Joseph Myall became Bankrupt, in carrying on and managing his businesses; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees, at the costs and charges of the said Bankrupt's estate, commencing, prosecuting or defending any action or actions, suit or suits at law or in equity, or presenting or opposing any petition to the Lord High Chancellor, for the discovery, division, recovery, defence or preservation of any part or parts of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, compromising, or otherwise agreeing any matter relating to the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and also to the payment in full out of the said estate of the rents, taxes, rates and other outgoings of the Bankrupt's premises until the disposal thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees of the said Bankrupt being allowed all reasonable expences which have been or shall be incurred by them upon any journeys taken by them for the purpose of promoting the interest of the Creditors, looking after, improving, recovering, or receiving any part of the said Bankrupt's estate, or relating to the affairs of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from investing the said Assignees with discretionary power in all matters relating to the real and personal estate of the said Bankrupt, and for the adjustment, settlement or beneficial arrangement of the Bankrupt's affairs, and for the winding up his estate, affairs and concerns.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Pritchard and James Burton, of Yewsey, in the County of Middlesex, Brickmakers, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 2d day of May next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to authorise and empower the said Assignees to dismiss a suit in Chancery now pending, wherein Henry Mills and Thomas Palmer are plaintiffs, and John Fleetwood, (since deceased) John Pritchard the elder, Thomas Want, James Ellis, and Henry Osborne are defendants, and to obtain an order for the receiver in the said cause to pass his accounts up to Lady-day last, and to pay over to the said Assignees, or otherwise, as the said Court may order, the balance that may be found in his hands, and out of the same and such other stock and cash as may be in the Bank of England in the name of the Accountant-General of the said Court of Chancery in trust in the said cause, to pay the costs of the said suit if the Court shall so order, and the arrear due upon the annuities charged on the said estate and premises, and for the purpose to be stated at such meeting to concur with the person entitled in reversion in such proceedings as they may be advised to obtain or procure the payment to them of the sum of £492 4s. 10d. three per cent consols, now standing in the books of the said Bank of England, in which the said John Pritchard is entitled to a life interest only; and to enter into a contract for the sale and disposition, and absolutely sell and dispose of the right and equity of redemption of the said Bankrupt, and all other his estate and interest of and in certain land, messuages, hereditaments, and premises situate in the several parishes of Hackney, Bethnal Green, and St. Leonard's Shore-ditch, in the County of Middlesex, to such person for such price and upon such terms and conditions, then and there to be named and mentioned; and to get in the incumbrances affecting the said estate and premises, and to execute all such conveyances or assurances, and to do all proper and necessary acts for effectuating all or any of the purposes aforesaid; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Ephraim Murdoch, late of Rayleigh, in the County of Essex, Scrivener, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 2d day of May next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of, either to the Bankrupt or any other person or persons, by public auction or private contract, or partly in one mode and partly in the other, and either together or in lots, and at such price or prices, in ready money, or upon such credit or security as the said Assignees may think fit, all or any part or parts of the real and personal estates and effects of the said Bankrupt, and particularly any part thereof to which any legal or equitable claim or lien is or may be made under any mortgage, deposit of deeds or papers, or otherwise; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees concurring with the mortgagee or mortgagees of the said Bankrupt's estate, whether legal or equitable, or any of them, in effecting such sale or sales, immediately or at any future time; and to the said Assignees making such arrangements with the said mortgagee or mortgagees, or other the person or persons claiming a lien with respect to the debt or debts claimed to be due or owing to him or them on such mortgage or lien, as they the said Assignees shall think fit; or otherwise contesting the validity of any such mortgage or lien, or compromising the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees being at liberty, in case of any sale or sales by auction, to buy in and resell the property offered at such auction, or any part thereof, at a future auction, or by private contract, at the risk and expence of the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and allowing out of the said Bankrupt's estate a certain bill of costs and expences to be produced at the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees contesting the validity of certain conveyances, assignments, surrenders, and transfers made and executed by the said Bankrupt to a person or persons to be named at the said meeting, of certain parts of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the said Assignees making such arrangement, by way of compromise, with such person or persons as they shall think fit; or to their referring the same to arbitration; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying the premiums on certain policies of assurance on the said Bankrupt's life, until the same can be sold, or otherwise disposed of; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making the said Bankrupt such an allowance for maintenance from the date of the said Commission up to the choice of the said Assignees, as they shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits at law, or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to or settling any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to adopt all such measures and to act in the conduct and management of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt as they the said Assignees shall deem most advisable; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 9th day of April 1829, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by
