

thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's estate in such manner as they may think proper; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Henry Johnson, of Berwick-upon-Tweed, Corn and Seed-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 19th day of May next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the King's Arms Inn, in Berwick-upon-Tweed, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees being authorised to proceed to sell all and every the leasehold estate of the said Bankrupt in a certain wharf, situate in the Parish of Saint Botolph Without, Aldgate, in the County of Middlesex, and the stock and implements of trade, household goods and furniture, fixtures, book and other debts, goods, chattels, and all and every the personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, or by appraisal and valuation, and together or in parcels, at such price or prices, and at such times and places, and for ready money or on credit, and with security, or otherwise, and to any person or persons whomsoever (including the said Bankrupt) as the said Assignees may deem expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees retaining or employing the said Bankrupt, or any other person or persons, to get in and receive the debts due to the said estate, and to keep the accounts relating to the same, and otherwise to assist the said Assignees in the affairs, and allowing to the said Bankrupt, or such other person or persons as aforesaid, such compensation for his or their services as to the said Assignees may seem just; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making such arrangements and compromises as they shall consider to be for the benefit of the said Creditors with any person or persons having, or claiming to have, mortgages, liens, or other securities upon the said leasehold or personal estate of the said Bankrupt, or any part thereof respectively; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees being authorised to sell and dispose of, to the Berwick Shipping Company, according to the rules of the said Company, certain shares of the said Bankrupt in the ships or vessels belonging to the said Company, or to assign the same under the same powers as are applicable to the other personal estate of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, defending, discontinuing, or compounding any action or actions, suit or suits, or other proceedings, either in law or equity, for the recovery or protection of the said Bankrupt's property and effects, or any part thereof; or to their compounding with such of the debtors of the said Bankrupt's estate as they the said Assignees may in their discretion think fit, and to their taking a reasonable part of the debts due from the said debtors respectively in discharge of the said debts, or to their taking security for the payment of the said debts, or such part thereof; or to their submitting the same, or any dispute between the said Assignees and any person, concerning any matter or thing relating to, or concerning in any way or manner, the said Bankrupt's estate, to arbitration, as by the said Assignees may be deemed expedient, or otherwise relating to any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, certain costs, charges, and expences incurred by the Trustees appointed under a deed of assignment of the effects of the said Bankrupt, dated the 27th of February last past, and also certain costs, charges, and expences incurred subsequently to the issuing of the said Commission, relative to the said Bankrupt's affairs; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant, assistant, or other person, in the affairs of the said Bankrupt; and to the said Assignees paying the said accountant, assistant, or other person, such compensation for his trouble as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to sanction whatever they may have done, or may do, relative to the said estate and property; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the Creditors as they may think fit; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Richard Blight, late of the Parish of Westbury-upon-Trym, in the County of Gloucester, Carpenter, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 20th day of May next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Office of Mr. Heaven, No. 2, Stephen-Street, Bristol, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of, by public auction or private contract, or partly in one mode and partly in another, and either together or in lots, and at such price or prices as the said Assignees may think proper, all or any part or parts of the real and personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, and particularly any part thereof to which any legal or equitable claim or lien is or may be made under any mortgage, deposit of deeds, or otherwise; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees concurring with the Mortgagee or Mortgagees of any part or parts of the said Bankrupt's estate in the effecting such sale or sales immediately or at any future time, or otherwise paying off and discharging the principal moneys and interest due on such mortgages; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees being at liberty, in case of any sale or sales by auction, to buy in and resell the property offered at such auction; or any part thereof, at any future auction, or by private contract, at the risk and expence of the Bankrupt's estate; and generally to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees managing and conducting the said Bankrupt's estate as they shall deem fit and necessary for the interest of the Creditors; and also to give the said Assignees the usual power for commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relative thereto; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country;"—Notice is hereby given, that Declarations were filed on the 27th day of April 1829, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by THOMAS ROBINSON, of the City of Lichfield, Hester, Glover, and Haberdasher, that he is in insolvent circumstances and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

ROBERT LEVENS, of Drury-Lane, in the County of Middlesex, Coach-Master, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
