REAR-ADMIRAL JAMES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on Wednesday the 1st day of July next, the Executor of the last will and testament of Bartholomew James, late of Falmouth, in the County of Cornwall, deceased, a Rear-Admiral in His Majesty's Navy, will divide the unapplied estate and effects now in his hands among such of the Specialty Creditors as have sent in, or shall send in previously to the said 1st day of July, the particulars of their demand.—All persons, therefore, having any claim or demand on the said Rear-Admiral James, and who have not already sent in the particulars thereof, are requested forthwith to transmit the same to me; and every person on applying for his dividend is requested at the same time to produce his security for inspection.—Dated this 7th day of May 1829.

JOHN CLAYTON, Solicitor to the Executor, 18, John-Street, Bedford-Row, London.

Marshal's-Office.—Summons by Edict.

BY virtue of authority granted by his Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, President of the Honourable the Courts of Justice of the Colony Berbice, sole Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty, &c. &c. &c. dated 24th January 1829;

I, the undersigned, at the instance of Wm. Campbell and Martin Daly, in quality as testamentary deliberating Executors to the last will and testament of John Adam Dehnert, late of this Colony; deceased, do hereby, for the first time, summon by edict all known and unknown creditors and claimants against the estate of the abovenamed John Adam Dehnert, or against his property, to appear before the Bar of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their ordinary Session, to be holden in the month of July 1829, and following Sessions, there to render in their respective claims, properly substantiated and in due form and time against aforesaid estate; whereas, in default of which, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edictal summons, will be proceeded against the non-appears according to law.

This first edictal summons published as customary.—Berbice, the 9th February 1829.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

WHEREAS George William Reye, a resident inhabitant of this place, of Ritzebüttel, being provided with a substituted Power of Attorney from Messrs. Oakden and Gilles, at Hamburg, has declared before the Court of Justice of this Government, that he intended to prosecute and to finish a process between the said Messrs. Oakden and Gilles, cessionario nomine, late John Barton, of Cuxhaven, deceased, in the year 1823, in a state of insolvency, on one side, and his former Partner, John Thwaites, of Norwich, on the other side, the subject of this process being the proprietorship of a house in Cuxhaven, situate at the New-Road, sub No. 35, inhabited by the said Bankrupt, but afterwards sold in public auction; likewise that he, the said George William Reye, intended to displace the claims which a brother of the said Bankrupt, George Barton, has reserved to himself, on account of the before-mentioned house, on his brother's failure:—Now the Court of Justice in this Government has published the following notice and summons, that the above-mentioned John Thwaites (who is now said to be deceased, in England), his heirs, executors, and administrators, as also the before-named George Barton, formerly residing in Cuxhaven, and afterwards in London, shall appear personally, or by a duly appointed Attorney, before this Court of Justice, on the 17th of June 1829, which is the only and peremptorily appointed term, in order to prosecute or to reassume the before-mentioned process, and to prove the pretended claims to the objectum litis, the value of which is partly deposited at the Court of Justice, partly still to be paid by the present owner of the house; and further, that in case of non-appearance of the said persons on the appointed day, the 17th of June 1829, John Thwaites and George Barton, their heirs, executors, and administrators shall then and from thenceforth no more be heard and admitted in the said process and bankruptcy, but shall forfeit their intended claims and demands as aforesaid.—Thus done, Ritzebüttel, this 1st day of April 1829.

(In fidem) P. A. KEETMANN, Secretary to the Government of Ritzebüttel.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Walcam against Northcote, with the approbation of Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the White Hart Inn, in Old Market-Street, in the City of Bristol, on Thursday the 11th of June 1829, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, in four lots;
