PURSUANT to an Order of His Honour the President of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice of the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, bearing date the 25th of September 1828;

I, the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal, at the request of Robert Goodfellow, for himself and de rato cavens R. G. Butts, in quality of Executors to the last will and testament of James Gilhuly, late of this Colony, deceased, do hereby, by edict, ad valvas curiæ, summon all known and unknown Creditors, both European and Colonial, of the estate of the said James Gilhuly, deceased, to appear in person, or by their Attorney, before the Bar of the Honourable Counsellor Commissary attending at the Court-House, in George-Town, on the 10th and following days of August next, in order then and there to render in their claims, properly attested and substantiated, and in due form, against said estate.

Whereas in default of which will be proceeded against the non-appears according to law.—Demerary, this 13th of March 1829.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

DEMERARY AND ESSEQUEBO.

THE undersigned, in capacity as Deputy First Marshal of the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, advertises, by these presents, for the first, second, and third time, that he will, by virtue of certain sentence of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice of said United Colony, expose and sell, at public execution sale, the following plantation, with its cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, viz.

In the month of May 1830, the coffee plantation Toewlight, situated on the West Bank of the River Demerary, between the plantations La Retraite and Nisnies, the property of V. A. Heytger.

The judicium of præ et concurrentie on the net proceeds of the above sale will be held by the said Honourable Court of Justice three months after the day of sale, for which reason all those who may pretend to have any right, title, and interest to the net proceeds of said plantation, are herewith, by him the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal, summoned to appear in person, or by their Attorneys, to lay their claims, in due form, before the Honourable Court of Justice of said United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, at their Session, in the month of August 1830, under a penalty that against the non-appears will be proceeded as the law directs.

The inventory of the above stated plantation is daily to be seen at the Counting-Houses of Messrs. Hall, M'Garel, and Co. No. 7, Austin-Friars, London, and P. J. Le Jolle, Esq. Amsterdam.—Demerary and Essequibo, this 22d March 1829.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

TO be sold by auction, pursuant to a Decretal Order of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, made in a cause Bertonshaw v. Heap, at the house of John Hollinsworth, known by the name of Fairfield Inn, in Fairfield, in the Parish of Manchester, on Tuesday the 16th day of June 1829, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, before William Shawe, Esq. Registrar of the said Court, or whom he shall appoint, subject to such conditions as will be then and there produced;

Lot 1. The fee-simple and inheritance, free from chief rent, of and in all those three messuages, dwelling-houses, or cottages, situate at Lane-Head, in Droylsden, in the Parish of Manchester, adjoining and contiguous to a certain road or way in Droylsden aforesaid, leading from Clayton-Bridge to Fairfield, distant from Manchester three miles and half, and which premises are in the several occupations of Charles Morris, Jonathan Taylor, and John Thornelly, as tenants thereof.

And also all that yearly rent of £1. 3s. 7d. issuing out of a plot of land and buildings adjoining thereto, and which yearly rent is reserved and made payable for the residue of a term of 999 years.

Lot 2. The fee-simple and inheritance, free from chief rent, of and in all those six other messuages, dwelling-houses, or cottages, adjoining to the aforesaid lot, and in the several occupations of John Etchells, John Morris, John Brewster, William Thornally, Joseph Blackshaw, and Mary Nicholson, as tenants thereof.

And also a small plot of land, situate at the back of the said six dwelling-houses, containing 320 square yards, or thereabouts.

The respective tenants will shew the premises, and further
