

Decree contained; and that the said Court will, upon my said Report being so made and signed as aforesaid, proceed to give directions for the distribution of the funds therein in the said causes among such of the Creditors who shall then have established their claims and proved their debts as aforesaid, according to due course of administration; and that all Creditors and persons having any claims, by specialty, as aforesaid, on the said Joseph Williams, deceased, who shall not come in and prove and establish their said debts, and prosecute with effect their said claims, within the time aforesaid, will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree and distribution.—Given under my hand this 26th day of May 1829.

W. P. POOLE, Register.
H. R. WILLIAMS, Solicitor for the Complainants.

FURTHER NOTICE.

Whereas, in pursuance of a subsequent Order of the Justices of the said Court, I, the said Register, have been directed to extend the time for the Creditors of the abovenamed Joseph Williams to come in before me to prove their debts and substantiate their claims, beyond the said 1st day of July, I, the said Register, do therefore hereby give this further notice, that I shall attend at my Office, in the said Town of Carnarvon, on the 2d, 3d, 4th, 6th, 7th, and 8th days of the said month of July, for the purposes aforesaid; and that I shall, as soon after the said 8th day of July as I conveniently can, prepare and make out my Report of the several matters and things referred to me by the said Decretal Order, and have the same ready to deliver to such parties or persons therein interested as shall apply for the same.—Given under my hand this 20th day of June 1829.

W. P. POOLE, Register.
