NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons having any claims or demands, either as next of kin or otherwise, against the estate of Mr. Gideon Firth, formerly in the Honourable East India Company's service, as Import Warehouse Keeper at Madras, and who died at Coringa in the year 1787, are required, within fourteen months from the date hereof, to furnish full particulars of their claims, accompanied by the necessary evidence to establish the same, to Mr. Atkins, of Fox Ordinary Court, Nicholas-Lane, London; and unless such claims are made and established within the above period, the claimants will be excluded from any participation in the effects of the said Gideon Firth.—Dated this 8th day of September 1829.

JNO. ATKINS, Solicitor to the Administratrix, and legal Personal Representative of the deceased, Fox Ordinary Court, Nicholas-Lane, London.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes, intituled Perry v. Meddowcroft, Perry v. Lester, Meddowcroft v. Meddowcroft, Lester v. Few, Meddowcroft v. Few, and Meddowcroft v. Lester, at the Public Sale-Room of the Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Monday the 26th day of October 1829, at Twelve at Noon, in eight lots;

Eight shares in the Forth and Clyde Canal Navigation, in Scotland, originally of £100 each, but by Acts of 1st Geo. 4th, ch. 48, accumulated to £400. 16s. each, the dividends whereof become due half-yearly, at Whitsunday and Martinmas, and are payable regularly in Glasgow and London.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Hicks and Marris, Solicitors, 5, Gray's-Inn-Square; of Messrs. Baker and Hodgson, Solicitors, 52, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields; of Messrs. Birch and Garth, Solicitors, 6, Great Winchester-Street; of Mr. Rowlinson, Solicitor, 17, Southampton-Buildings; and of Mr. Tristram, Solicitor, 6, South-Square, Gray's-Inn.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a certain cause depending in the said Court, wherein James Brine and another are plaintiffs, and John Ferrier and others are defendants, it was referred to William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire who were the next of kin of Andrew Gram (the testator in the pleadings of the said cause named), living at the time of his decease (which happened in or about the month of April 1806), and also to inquire what nephews and nieces of the said Andrew Gram were living at the death of his Widow, Eleanor Gram, who died in or about the month of December 1828.—All persons, therefore, claiming to be such next of kin, or the representatives of any such next of kin who may have died since the decease of the said Andrew Gram, or claiming to be such nephews or nieces, or the representatives of any such nephews or nieces, who have died since the decease of the said Eleanor Gram, are forthwith to come in and prove their kindred or representation before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

The said Andrew Gram was by birth a Norwegian, and formerly resided in Wellesloe-Square, in the City of London, where he carried on business as a Norway Merchant, and afterwards (on retiring from business, in or about the year 1803), at Walmer, in the County of Kent, where he died in the month of April 1806.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Crabb against Crabb, the Creditors of James Crabb, formerly of Southampton-Row, in the County of Middlesex, afterwards of Shidfield, in the County of Hants, and late of the Town and County of the Town of Southampton, Esq. deceased (who died in the month of December 1828), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 10th day of November next, to come in and prove their debts before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein John Fredrick Aldhouse is the plaintiff, and Mary Ann Aldhouse and others are defendants, the Creditors of Fredrick Aldhouse, late of North Crescent, Bedford-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Builder (who died in or about January 1815), are to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 14th day of November 1829, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Meaux, in the East Riding of Yorkshire.

Valuable Freehold and Tithe-free Estate for Sale.
