WHEREAS Henry Callas, of Lymington, in the County of Southampton, Ironmonger and Whitesmith, hath by certain indentures of lease and release and assignment, bearing date respectively the 24th and 25th days of September instant, conveyed and assigned all his real and personal estate and effects unto William Holmer the younger, of Bishopsgate Without, in the City of London, Ironmonger, and Benjamin Baskett, of Lymington aforesaid, gentleman, in trust for the equal benefit of all the Creditors of the said Henry Callas. Notice is therefore hereby given, that the said indentures were respectively executed by the said Henry Callas, William Holmer the younger, and Benjamin Baskett, on the days on which they respectively bear date, in the presence of William Royle, of Lymington aforesaid, Attorney at Law, and that the said indenture of release and assignment will remain at the Office of the said William Royle, situate at Lymington aforesaid, until the 2d day of November next, and from that day at the Office of Messrs. Bremridge and Cleobury, Solicitors, No. 8, Furnival's-Inn, London, until the 29th day of November next, for the execution by such of the said Creditors as shall think proper to execute the same; and such of the said Creditors of the said Henry Callas as shall neglect or refuse within the period above-mentioned to execute the said indenture of release and assignment will be excluded all benefit to arise therefrom.—Dated this 26th day of September 1829.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Blake Costde, late of Hetton-le-Hole, in the County of Durham, Innkeeper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 21st day of October next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon of the same day, at the Office of Mr. William Kell, Solicitor, in Gateshead, in the said County of Durham, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees reimbursing the Trustees named in certain indentures of lease and release and assignment, dated the 2d and 3d days of February last past, whereby the said George Blake Costde, did release, convey and assign all his estate and effects to the said Trustees for the equal benefit of his Creditors, the costs, charges and expences of preparing the same indentures, and also all other expences incurred by them the said Trustees in and about the execution of the trusts thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees confirming and fulfilling the contract and agreement made and entered into by the said Trustees for sale to a person, to be named at the meeting, of the freehold and leasehold messuages, lands and hereditaments, late of the said George Blake Costde, situated at Whitley-Hill and Collins, in the several Parishes of Haughton-le-Skerne and Great Aycliffe, in the said County of Durham, or concurring with the mortgagees thereof respectively, in so selling or disposing of the said messuages, lands and hereditaments; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling, by public auction or private contract, the equity of redemption of the said Bankrupt in the said hereditaments and premises, or concurring with the respective mortgagees thereof in effecting a sale thereof, and to the said Assignees buying in and again offering the same hereditaments and premises, or the equity of redemption therein for sale, at such times, in such parcels, and in such manner as to them the said Assignees shall seem expedient, without their being answerable for any loss, deficiency, or expences which may arise or be occasioned thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying the reasonable expences of employing an accountant to examine and investigate the books of account and affairs of the said Bankrupt, and of collecting and getting in the debts and effects of the said Bankrupt; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting or defending any action or suit at law or in equity, for the recovery, protection or defence of, or otherwise concerning the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and otherwise to authorise and empower the said Assignees to act in such manner for the benefit and protection of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects as they shall think expedient and beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Walter Lyon, of Bouverie-Street, Fleet-Street, in the City of London, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, (trading under the firm of Lyon, Brothers), are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 21st day of October next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the Assignees of the Bankrupt's estate, selling and disposing, either by public sale or private contract, and on credit, all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate, goods, chattels, and effects, and at such times and places as they may appoint; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees accepting an offer which has been made for the purchase of the whole of the said Bankrupt's stock in trade, and taking bills of exchange for the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving to the said Bankrupt, the whole or any part of the household furniture, effects and fixtures, in consideration of the Bankrupt's friends paying the rent, assessed and other taxes, now due on, and for, the premises occupied by the said Bankrupt, or to their disposing of the same to the said Bankrupt, on such security as he may offer; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any actions at law or suits in equity against any person or persons whomsoever, and to present or appear to any petition that may be presented touching the said estate; and especially as to their commencing legal proceedings for the recovering of certain merchandizes belonging to the said Bankrupt, in the possession of an agent at Dover, and retained by him as security for a debt due by the said Bankrupt, or to their compounding or settling such claim; and also as to the said Assignees commencing legal proceedings for the recovery of property which had been pledged by the Bankrupt with certain pawnbrokers before the issuing of the said Commission; and also to the said Assignees employing such person or persons as they may think proper, as an accountant and accountants, and employing the said Bankrupt to assist in making out the said Bankrupt's accounts, and otherwise employing the said Bankrupt in and about the getting in, collecting, and recovering, the monies, debts, goods, and merchandizes, belonging to the said estate; and to the said Assignees making such allowances or remuneration to such accountant or accountants and Bankrupt, as they may think proper; and also to the said Assignees compounding, settling, and compromising any debt or debts, claim or claims, due and owing to the said Bankrupt's estate; and as to the said Assignees paying and discharging all costs, charges, and expences which the petitioning Creditor may be liable to in prosecuting the said Commission of Bankrupt; and also that the said Assignees may take the opinion of Counsel as may be advised by the Solicitor as requisite to be taken on any points that may present themselves; and also to submit any matters in difference to arbitration; and also to pay the wages of the clerks and servants of the Bankrupt, and generally to take such proceedings in and about the affairs and management of the said Bankrupt's estate as they in their judgment may deem proper and requisite; and on other special affairs.
