FRIDAY, JANUARY 15, 1830.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 15, 1830.

THE Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household has appointed the Reverend Charles Vernon Holme Sumner, Chaplain in Ordinary to the King, in the room of the Reverend Dr. Edward Auriol Hay Drummond, deceased.

Whitehall, January 14, 1830.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Joseph Using, jun. of North Shields, in the county of Northumberland, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, January 14, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the month of December 1828, the body of a man, named Edward Pink, was found in a pond at Heston, near Hounslow, in the county of Middlesex, where it was supposed to have lain some time; and that there is every reason to believe that the said Edward Pink was murdered by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the deed which caused the death of the said Edward Pink) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

Navy-Office, January 7, 1830.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st October to the 31st December last, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 18th, 19th, and 20th of January, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attorneys.

On the 21st, 22d, 25th, 26th, and 27th of January, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 28th and 29th of January, to Masters, Surgeons, and Purser's, and their Attorneys.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attorneys for that purpose, the said Attorneys are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st of December last, will commence paying on the 18th January; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

J. W. Morton, Assistant-Secretary.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

THE Reverend Edward Fane, Rector of the parish of Fulbeck, in the county of Lincoln, do hereby give notice, that I intend to apply at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden (by adjournment) at New Sleaford, in and for the division of Kesteven, in the said county of Lincoln, in the week after the Feast of Easter now next ensuing, to have two persons named and appointed for the said parish of Fulbeck by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons respectively, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining, by and from or by means of the London Gazette, so long as the return of the average prices of corn and grain shall be published therein, and in case of no such publication, then by such ways or means as they shall think equitable or proper, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Lincoln for the twelve years then last past, so that the yearly corn or tythe rents payable to me, the said Edward Fane, and my successors, out of the several allotments, ancient inclosures, lands, and tenements, in the said parish of Fulbeck, charged therewith in and by the award of the Commissioners named and appointed in and by, or acting under or by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the forty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for inclosing lands within the manor and parish of Fulbeck, in the county of Lincoln, and for making compensation for the tythes arising within the same parish," may be increased or diminished, pursuant and in conformity to the directions of the said Act.—Dated the 1st day of January 1830. Ed. Fane.

Office of Ordnance, January 6, 1830.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that they are ready to dispose of, to such persons as may be willing to tender for the same, a quantity of Brass, copper, cast and wrought iron, steel, and other metals, in store at the Tower of London, and in the Royal Arsenal at Woolwich, consisting of Brass and iron guns and carronades, cast iron, round shot and shells, old wrought and bushel iron, copper, brass, and lead, steel files, musket rammers, and other articles;

the whole of which have been divided into lots, and may be viewed upon application to the Principal Storekeeper at the Tower, or to the Ordnance Storekeeper at the Royal Arsenal, on any day previous to the day fixed for the delivery of the tenders

A catalogue of the several lots may be obtained by persons willing to become purchasers, on application at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall; where the tenders for the whole, or any number of the said lots, are to be delivered on or before Tuesday the 9th of February next.

By order of the Board,
