Whitehall, February 13, 1830.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed George Wyatt Digby, of Maldon, in the county of Essex, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, February 18, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about two o'clock on the morning of Thursday the 21st day of January last, the body of Grace, the wife of William Andrew, was found barbarously murdered, in one of the lower rooms of a house occupied by them at Calenick, near Truro, in the county of Cornwall;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the said crime) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he,

she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by J. H. James, Esq. of Truro.

Whitehall, February 18, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between seven and eight o'clock on the evening of Tuesday the 9th day of February instant, Mr. Gilpin, surgeon, of Crewkerne, was maliciously and feloniously shot at, near the two mile-stone on the road leading from Crewkerne to Bowgate, in the county of Somerset, by some evil-disposed person unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise. His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually shot at the said Mr. Gilpin) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by J. A. Templeman, Esq. of Crewkerne.

Navy-Office, January 26, 1830.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 23d of February next, at half past twelve o'clock in the afternoon, the Officers of His Majesty's Dock-yard at Woolwich will put up to sale, in that Yard, several lots of

Old Stores,

Consisting of weak and damaged Hemp and Bands; Riga, Petersburg, and Italian Top-pings; Riga and Petersburg Bands; and Hemp Rubbish; lying in His Majesty's Rope-yard at Woolwich.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Officers of the Rope-yard for notes of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here and at the Yards.
G. Smith.

Office of Ordnance, February 1, 1830.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that they will sell by public auction, at the Tower, on Monday the 1st, Tuesday the 2d, and Wednesday the 3d of March next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, sundry lots of

Old Stores,

Comprising a quantity of kettle bags, clothing, gaiters, leather straps, iron bedsteads, stoves, grates, tongs, camp kettles, engine hose, coppers, accoutrements, harness, buckles, sand bags, tools, hides, scaling ladders, horse shoes, staves for powder barrels, brimstone (grough and refined), smith's bellows, blocks, desks and stools, pile driving engine, rough stocks (musket and pistol), powder barrels, lead ashes, old cured paper, waggons on springs, junk, slow match, old tin, old serge, park pickets, hand barrows, and a variety of other articles;

the whole of which may be viewed at the Tower, at Woolwich, and at the Military Depot, Tooley-street, as expressed in the catalogues, during the week previous to the sale, upon application to the Storekeepers at those places; where catalogues of the lots and conditions of the sale will be delivered to those persons who may apply for the same.

By order of the Board,

R. Byham, Secretary.

East India-House, February 17, 1830.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That the Court will be ready to receive proposals in writing, on or before Wednesday the 17th of March next, from the owners of good, sound, and substantial copper-bottomed ships, of the burthen of from 400 to 550 tons, registered measurement, specifying the rate of freight at which they may be willing to let such ships for one voyage to and from Bengal.

That the Court will also be ready to receive proposals in writing, on the said Wednesday the 17th of March next, from the owner or owners of good, sound, and substantial copper-bottomed ships, of the burthen of from 500 to 650 tons, registered measurement, specifying the rate of freight at which they may be willing to let such ships for one voyage to China, and from China to Halifax, in Nova Scotia, and Quebec, and at that port to be discharged from the Company's service.

The tenders, with the words "Ship Tender" on the cover, to be severally sealed up and left with the Secretary, at this House, at or before twelve o'clock at noon on the said Wednesday the 17th of March next, beyond which hour the Court will not receive any tender.

Peter Auber, Secretary.

The particulars of the terms and conditions upon which the ships will be respectively employed, may be had upon application at the Office of the Clerk to the Committee of Shipping, at this House, on or after Friday the 19th instant.

THE Creditors of the late Captain Horatio Beevor, of the Honourable Company's Ship Glory, are particularly requested to send to William Borradaile, Esq. his Executor, statements of their accounts, on or before the 27th instant, with the interest, where such can be legally demanded, calculated up to that day, that the same may be examined prior to a final dividend of the assets in the hands of the Executor being made.—The interest upon all such claims as may not be made in compliance with this request will cease on the aforementioned 27th day of February, to which period all the accounts will be finally made up.

TRINIDAD.

In the Court of First Instance of Civil Jurisdiction.

In the matter of the Cession of Property tendered by Philip Langton Smith.

NOTICE is hereby given, to all such Creditors of the said Philip Langton Smith as may be absent from this Jurisdiction, and not represented by any Attorney, that the said Philip Langton Smith has tendered to the said Court a cession of his property, for the benefit of his Creditors; and the said absent Creditors are hereby notified to appear before me, at my Office, by themselves, or by their sufficient Attorneys, within six months at farthest from this date, and establish the nature and amount of their respective demands; in default whereof they will be deprived of any order of distribution to be made in the proceedings.—Court-House, 2d December 1829.

JOHN MILLER, Judicial Referee.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Braxton v. Day, it is referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court whether William Maton Dibden in the will of Mary Maton, late of Fawley, in the County of Southampton, Spinster (who died some time in the year 1800), named was dead at the time of the death of the said Testatrix, or at any time within twenty years after the date of the will of the said Testatrix. Therefore any person or persons who can give information when and where the said William Maton Dibden died, are requested to send such information to the said Master, Mr. Cox, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London. The said William Maton Dibden was the son of one William Dibden and Betsey Dibden (formerly Betsey Maton, of Fawley, in the County of Hants) his wife (a sister of the said Testatrix), and was born between sixty and seventy years ago; and his said father and mother between the years 1774 and 1782 were known as persons who travelled about dealing in various articles of small value, and without any settled place of abode, and they, together with the said William Maton Dibden, occasionally between the last mentioned years frequented a lodging-house kept by Mrs. Edwards and James Angel, at Fourpost, near Southampton.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of James against Smith, whereby (among other things) it was referred to Sir Giffin Wilson, one of the Masters of the said Court, to ascertain what mortgages, charges, and other specific incumbrances there are upon the several estates comprised in an indenture, bearing date the 12th day of September 1818, and in whom the same are vested, and what is due thereon; and also to take an account of what is due to the plaintiff, and the several other Creditors, under the said trust deed, in respect of the composition which they have agreed to take for their debts; the unsatisfied Creditors of Charles Brown, formerly of Vincent-Square, Westminster, in the County of Middlesex, and afterwards of Saint George's Fields, in the County of Surrey, Gentleman, and who were such on and before the 20th day of April 1818, and who are entitled to the benefit of the said deed of trust of the 12th day of September 1818, and all persons claiming to be mortgagees or incumbrancers upon the said estates, are, on or before the 20th day of March next, to come in and prove their respective debts, mortgages, charges, and incumbrances, before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, in order that they may not peremptorily be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 19th day of November 1829, made in a cause Hughes v. Wynne, whereby it was referred to Sir Giffin Wilson, one of the Masters of the said Court, to receive and (if he should think fit for the benefit of the estate in question in the cause) to approve of such proposals as should within five calendar months from that time be laid before him, for the purchase of all or any of the unsold lots of the devised real estates of Robert Watkin Wynne, Esq. deceased, situate in the Counties of Denbigh and Merioneth, in North Wales (and which unsold estates were included in lots 1, 2, 10, 21, 26, 27, 28, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 41, 45, 46, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 56, 61, and 62, in the particulars used at the former sale at Cerniogu-Mawr, in the month of August last). Notice is hereby given, that the said Master will receive proposals, in writing, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, to the 19th of April now next, for the purchase of any of such of the unsold lots of the said devised estates as were offered for public sale in August last and not then sold (such offers to be made for the purchase of the estates, exclusively of the timber thereon, which is to be taken and paid for in addition to the purchase of the estates at a valuation in the usual way).—Particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; or of Messrs. Richards, Clarke, and Nares, Solicitors, Chapel-Street, Bedford-Row, London; Mr. Cole, Solicitor, 15, Furnival's-Inn, London; Mr. Butler, Solicitor, Temple-Chambers, London; Mr. Yatman, Solicitor, Great Russell-Street, Bloomsbury, London; and Mr. Frowd, Solicitor, Essex-Street, Strand, London; and the estates may be viewed with permission of the respective tenants thereof.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Betsey Knight, Spinster, is the plaintiff, and Samuel James and others are defendants, the Creditors of Ann Knight, late of Edmonton, in the County of Middlesex, Widow (who died in or about February 1827), are to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 12th day of March 1830, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein Betsey Knight, Spinster, is the plaintiff, and Samuel James and others are defendants, the Creditors of Samuel Knight, late of Norton-Falgate, in the County of Middlesex, Chemist, and also of Edmonton, in the same County (who died on the 9th of November 1823), are to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 12th day of March 1830, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein Elizabeth Williams and another are plaintiffs, and John Butler and others are defendants, the Creditors of William Griffith Williams the younger, Esq. formerly residing at Watertre, near Liverpool, then of Cheltenham, then at Malvern, then at Aberyswith, then at Bristol, then at Hgw-Heal, near Coniston, in Westmoreland, and lastly in or near Worcester (who died on or about the 2d day of August 1825), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Maullin against Maullin, the Creditors of Richard Shaw, late of Yardley, in the County of Worcester, Miller (who died in the month of March 1821), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 12th day of March next, to come in and prove their debts before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Heaton against Shaw, the Creditors of John Shaw, late of Old Burlington-Street, in the County of Middlesex, and of Mitcham, in the County of Surrey, Solicitor (who died in or about the month of June 1825), are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, made in a cause Patterson and others against Atkinson and others, the Creditors and Legatees of Eleanor Spencer, late of Upper Tooting, in the Parish of Streatham, in the County of Surrey, Widow, deceased (who died in or about the month of May 1814), are, on or before the 24th day of April next, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts, and claim their legacies, before Richard Richards, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, No. 17, Mure-Court-Buildings, Inner-Temple, London, or in default thereof the said Creditors will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
