

Crown-Office, March 16, 1830.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present
PARLIAMENT.

County of Essex.

Thomas Gardiner Bramston, of Skreens, in Roxwell, in the county of Essex, Esq. in the room of Admiral Sir Eliab Harvey, deceased.

Whitehall, March 13, 1830.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Robert Wellbeloved, of the Middle-temple, London, Esq. Barrister at-Law, and unto Sarah his wife, only child of John Scott, of Stourbridge, in the county of Worcester, and of the Red-house in Great Barr, in the parish of Aldridge, in the county of Stafford, Esq. His royal licence and authority, that they may henceforth, in compliance with a clause contained in a certain deed of settlement, made and executed by the said John Scott, Esq. take and use the surname of Scott only; that the said Robert Wellbeloved may also bear the arms of Scott; and that the said surname and arms of Scott may, in like manner, be borne and used by the issue of their marriage; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

MULL OF GALLOWAY LIGHT-HOUSE.

THE Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses hereby give notice, that a Light-house has been erected upon the Mull of Galloway, in the county of Wigton; the light of which will be exhibited on the night of Friday the 26th day of March instant, and every night thereafter, from the going away of day-light in the evening till the return of day-light in the morning.

The following is a Specification of the Position of the Light-House, and the Appearance of the Light, by Mr. Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners:

The Mull of Galloway forms the southern extremity of the Mainland of Scotland, situate in lat. 54 deg. 38 min. N. and in long. 4 deg. 50 min. W. By compass, the Light-house bears from the largest of the Scare Rocks, W. $\frac{1}{4}$ N. distant 6 miles; from Barrowhead, W. by N. $\frac{3}{4}$ N. distant 18 miles; from the Point of Ayre Light-house, in the Isle of Man, N. N. W. distant 21 miles; from the Calf of Man Lights, N. N. E. distant 36 miles; from the South Rock, or Kilwarlin Light-house, in Ireland, E. N. E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E. distant 26 miles; and from Copeland Light-house, also in Ireland, S. E. by E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. distant 21 miles. The light will be open or visible seaward from N. N. E. to N. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W.; but the high lands of Dunman shut the light from the view of the mariner in coasting along the Portpatrick shores.

This light will be known to mariners as an intermittent light, suddenly appearing like a star of the first magnitude, and continuing in view two and a half minutes, when it is suddenly eclipsed for half a minute, thus producing its entire effect once in every three minutes.

The lantern is elevated 325 feet above the medium level of the sea, and in clear weather the light will be seen at the distance of seven or eight leagues, and at lesser distances, according to the state of the atmosphere.

By order of the Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses,
C. Cunningham, Secretary.

Edinburgh, March 9, 1830.

CONTRACT FOR LINSEED OIL.

Navy-Office, March 13, 1830.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 31st instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying 35,000 Gallons of Linseed Oil.

To be delivered at His Majesty's Dock-yards within six months from the day of treaty, according to a distribution which, together with a sample and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1000, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

Office for Taxes, Somerset-Place,
March 16, 1830.

PURSUANT to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His late Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £92 and under £93 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes,
E. Bates, Secretary.

Queen Anne's Bounty to the Clergy.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the interest due at Lady-Day next from the Royal Bounty, and also that from the Parliamentary Grants due on the 5th of April next, will be payable by John Paterson, Esq. Treasurer, at his Office, No. 68, Old Broad-street, every day, between the hours of ten and two o'clock, from those periods respectively until Midsummer next, holidays excepted.

The Clergy are requested to be very particular that their receipts for Royal Bounty and Parliamentary monies be written upon separate and appropriate stamps, and in causing them to be presented for payment, either by a friend or through the medium of a banker.
