

desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act for continuing to His Majesty, for one year, certain duties on personal estates, offices, and pensions in England, for the service of the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty.

An Act for punishing mutiny and desertion, and for the better payment of the army and their quarters.

An Act for the regulation of His Majesty's royal marine forces while on shore.

An Act for more effectually repairing the roads to and from Longtown, and certain other roads communicating therewith, in the county of Cumberland.

And one private Act.

Whitehall, March 22, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Saturday the 13th day of March instant, the premises belonging to Mr. W. B. Moore, builder, situate at Quebec-wharf, Rotherhithe, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, and considerable property destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by Mr. Moore, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, March 24, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about one o'clock on the morning of Sunday the 21st day of March instant, some evil-disposed person wilfully and maliciously fired a gun or pistol into the bed-room window of William Lyne, Esq. of Stert, near Devizes, in the county of Wilts, which broke several panes of glass, and drove in part of the window-frame;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually discharged the said gun or pistol) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid at the office of Messrs. Salmon and Trigwell, solicitors, Devizes.
