

Whitehall, March 26, 1830.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Sir Henry-Richard Bedingfeld, of Oxburgh-hall, in the county of Norfolk, Bart. and to Dame Margaret-Anne his wife, only child and heir of Edward Paston, of Appleton, in the said county of Norfolk, Esq. lately deceased, His royal licence and authority, that they, the said Sir Henry-Richard Bedingfeld and Dame Margaret-Anne his wife, may, in testimony of their respect for the family of Paston, and their affectionate regard for the memory of the said Edward Paston, take and use the surname of Paston, in addition to and before that of Bedingfeld; that the said Sir Henry-Richard Bedingfeld may bear the arms of Paston quarterly, in the second quarter, with his own family arms; and that the said surname of Paston and the arms of Paston may, in like manner, be taken, used, and borne by the issue of their marriage; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, April 10, 1830.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Robert Nesham, of Darlington, in the county of Durham, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, April 6, 1830.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on the night of the 28th March last, a violent assault was committed near Hell's-bay, within the port of St. Ives, in the county of Cornwall, upon the persons of two Officers, belonging to the Coast Guard Service at Portreath and Hayle, in the said county (while employed in the execution of their duty in endeavouring to seize and secure a large quantity of foreign spirits, which had been smuggled on shore at or near Hell's-bay), by a number of men, who severely ill-treated them, and fired a pistol at and wounded one of the said Officers, so that he is now lying dangerously ill;

His Majesty, for the better discovering of the offenders concerned in the said outrage, is hereby pleased to offer His most gracious pardon to any one or more of the said persons present at and aiding in such outrage (save and except the person who actually fired the pistol at the said Officer), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and brought to justice.

ROBERT PEEL.

And the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS to any person or persons who shall make such discovery (save and except as aforesaid); the same to be paid by the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at the port of St. Ives, in the said county of Cornwall, on the conviction of the offenders, or any of them.

By order of the Commissioners,

T. Whitmore, Secretary.

Whitehall, April 6, 1830.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, about two o'clock in the morning of Wednesday-the 31st ultimo, a large party of armed smugglers feloniously assembled on the sea shore, near Dymchurch, in the county of Kent, and were aiding and assisting in the illegal landing, running, and carrying away of uncustomed goods; and that in opposing this felonious act, and in seizing part of the said goods, Lieutenant Gustavns Spicker Baker, and Martin Donovan, seaman, both of His Majesty's ship Talavera, were attacked, violently beaten with clubs, and severely bruised;

His Majesty, for the better discovering the persons who have been guilty of this felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one or more of the persons so assembled (except those who actually committed violence on the said Lieutenant and seaman on this occasion), who shall discover his accomplices, so that they may be apprehended and brought to justice.

ROBERT PEEL.

And the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby offer a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be paid to or distributed amongst any person or persons (except as aforesaid) who shall give such information to Captain Pigot, of the Talavera, or to any of the Officers of the said ship, as shall lead to the discovery, apprehension, and conviction of the said offenders.—Such reward to be payable by Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty and Navy, on the conviction of the said offenders, or any of them.

J. W. Croker.

KING'S COLLEGE, LONDON.

2, Parliament-Street, April 14, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Annual Court or General Meeting of the Governors, Proprietors, and other friends of this Institution, will be held at Willis's Rooms, King-street, St. James's, on Friday the 30th of this month, at three o'clock precisely. His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Visiter of the College, in the chair.

By order of the Council,

H. Smith, Secretary.

Navy-Office, April 5, 1830.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st January to the 31st March last, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-
