

Whitehall, April 6, 1830.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, about two o'clock in the morning of Wednesday the 31st ultimo, a large party of armed smugglers, feloniously assembled on the sea shore, near Dymchurch, in the county of Kent, and were aiding and assisting in the illegal landing, running, and carrying away of uncustomed goods; and that in opposing this felonious act, and in seizing part of the said goods, Lieutenant Gustavus Spicker Baker, and Martin Donovan, seaman, both of His Majesty's ship Talavera, were attacked, violently beaten with clubs, and severely bruised;

His Majesty, for the better discovering the persons who have been guilty of this felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one or more of the persons so assembled (except those who actually committed violence on the said Lieutenant and seaman on this occasion), who shall discover his accomplices, so that they may be apprehended and brought to justice.

ROBERT PEEL.

And the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby offer a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be paid to or distributed amongst any person or persons (except as aforesaid) who shall give such information to Captain Pigot, of the Talavera, or to any of the Officers of the said ship, as shall lead to the discovery, apprehension, and conviction of the said offenders.—Such reward to be payable by Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty and Navy, on the conviction of the said offenders, or any of them.
