Whitehall, April 30, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Monday the 10th day of April instant, between the hours of nine and ten o'clock, a barn, and bullock-shed adjoining, situate in Eye, in the county of Suffolk, the property of Sir Edward Kerrison, Bart. in the occupation of Mr. John Sewell, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, whereby the said barn and bullock-shed; and also one bullock, nine heifers, and ten pigs, were totally burnt and destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said property) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the parish of Eye.

Whitehall, May 3, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about one o'clock on the morning of Saturday the 10th day of April last, many persons, to the number of sixty and upwards, did, in a riotous and tumultuous manner, demolish and destroy the windows and doors of certain dwelling-houses, in the occupation of Zophar Lane and others, situate near the cotton-mill and works of Messrs. J. and E. Ashworth, in Sharples, in the parish of Bolton-le-Moors, in the county of Lancaster; and did also, with bludgeons and other unlawful weapons, cruelly and feloniously beat and wound the said Zophar Lane, so as to endanger his life, without any cause or provocation;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually committed violence on the said Zophar Lane) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THIRTY POUNDS is hereby offered by Messrs. J. and E. Ashworth, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 23d day of April 1830, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, ch. 209, intituled "An Act for building a new
