CHARLES CROUCH, Esq. deceased.

THE Next of Kin of Charles Crouch, Esq. a lunatic, lately deceased, may hear of something greatly to their advantage on applying to Messrs. Teesdale, Symes, and Weston, No. 31, Fenchurch-Street, London; the said Charles Crouch came to England in the year 1780, from the Island of Antigua, and his father, Charles Crouch, Esq. who had resided in that Island for many years, died there in the month of March 1783. Dated 19th April 1830.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Menzies versus Rigby, with the approbation of Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court;

The mansion-house and estate, called Sandown (the house now in the occupation of Hugh Hornby, Esq.), situate in the Township of Wavertree, in the County of Lancaster, comprising a handsome stone dwelling-house and offices, with conveniences for a large family, shrubberies, gardens, and about 45 acres of land, in a ring fence.

The property lies about three miles from Liverpool, near the Village of Wavertree, and the land, from its height, affords several appropriate situations for villas, without injuring the mansion-house.

The Liverpool and Manchester Rail-Road crosses one corner of the estate.

The tenure is copyhold of inheritance of the Manor of Wavertree, under an annual rent of one shilling an acre, and a small fine on admission.

The time and place of sale will shortly be advertised, when printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane; of Messrs. Taylor and Roscoe, Solicitors, Inner-Temple; Mr. Jones, Solicitor, John-Street, Bedford-Row; Mr. Bower, Solicitor, Chancery-Lane, London: also of Messrs. Luce and Sons, Solicitors (where a plan may be seen), Mr. Eden, Mr. Foster, and Mr. Brooke, Solicitors, Liverpool.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Goulston v. Rolls, it is referred to James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to
