

Whitehall, July 10, 1830.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Alstone Head, of East Grinstead, in the county of Sussex, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, July 8, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 3d day of July instant, a barn and out-buildings, belonging to the Rist-land Farm, near Ashdown Forest, in the parish of East Grinstead, in the county of Sussex, the property of the Honourable Mrs. Fuller, were feloniously and maliciously set on fire and burnt to the ground by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said property) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application to Mr. Hastie, Solicitor, East Grinstead.

Admiralty-Office, July 10, 1830.

HIS Majesty has been pleased to command, that the collars and cuffs of the uniform coats of the Commissioned Officers of the Navy shall in future be scarlet instead of white; and that three buttons be placed under each of the pocket flaps; and also, that in future no gold lace be worn on the trowsers; and further, that so much of the order of the 18th of December 1827, as directs that Officers shall wear white breeches with white silk stockings and white sword belts, at the King's or Queen's Drawing rooms, be annulled.

By command of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty,
J. W. Croker.

Navy-Office, July 10, 1830.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st April to the 30th June last, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 19th, 20th, and 21st of July, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attorneys.

On the 22d, 23d, 26th, 27th, and 28th of July, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 29th and 30th of July, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attorneys for that purpose, the said Attorneys are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 30th of June last, will commence paying on the 19th instant; and all persons desirous of draw-
