

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JULY 23, 1830.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, July 22, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday next, the 28th instant, and on Wednesday the 4th of August next, each day at two o'clock.

N. B. Those Gentlemen who attended the last Levee are not expected to be present at the Levee on Wednesday next.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend the Levee to be held on Wednesday next the 28th instant, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on Monday next, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation; it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter take place at the Levee, but in conformity with the above regulations.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levee, on Wednesday the 4th of August next, are to send their names to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, according to above regulations, before twelve o'clock on Monday the 2d of August.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of July 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Most Noble George James Horatio Marquess of Cholmondeley, the Right Honourable George Villiers Earl of Jersey, and the Right Honourable George Earl of Belfast, were, by command of His Majesty, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their respective places at the Board accordingly.

St. James's-Palace, July 21, 1830.

This day His Excellency Monsieur de Falck, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the King of the Netherlands; His Excellency the Prince Duke de Laval Montmorency, Ambassador from His Most Christian Majesty; and the Baron Bülow, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Prussia; had their first private audiences of His Majesty to deliver their credentials, and to present letters of condolence to His Majesty from their respective Sovereigns upon the death of the late King; also the Count de Heerd t'Eversberg, on a special mission from the King of the Netherlands, to congratulate the King on his accession to the Throne, had audience of His Majesty to deliver his credentials; and the Baron Baumbach, Minister from the Grand Duke of Saxe Meinengen, with a compliment of condolence upon the death of the late King, and a letter of congratulation to His Majesty upon his accession to the Throne, had a private audience of His Majesty to deliver the same: to which several audiences respectively they were introduced by the Earl of Aberdeen, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's-Palace, July 22, 1830.

This day their Excellencies Monsieur de Falck, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the King of the Netherlands, and the Prince Duke de Laval Montmorency, Ambassador from His Most Christian Majesty; also the Baron Bülow, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Prussia; and the Count de Heerd t'Eversburg, Minister on a special mission from the King of the Netherlands, to congratulate His Majesty on his accession to the Throne, had their first private audiences respectively of Her Majesty the Queen: to which they were introduced by Earl Howe, Her Majesty's Lord Chamberlain, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's-Palace, July 21, 1830.

The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood upon Martin Archer Shee, Esq. President of the Royal Academy.

The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood upon William Pym, M. D. Inspector of Army Hospitals and Superintendent-General of Quarantine.

Windsor Castle, July 17, 1830.

THIS day the Dean and Canons of the Free Chapel of St. George, at Windsor, waited upon His Majesty to present to His Majesty the following Address, which His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Dean and Canons of your Majesty's Free Chapel of St. George, within your Castle of Windsor, beg leave to approach your Majesty with sentiments of condolence upon the recent mournful occasion.

We participate in that affliction which your Majesty has experienced for the loss of an affectionate Brother, and we sympathise in those feelings of sorrow, which have been expressed throughout the nation, for the loss of a Sovereign whose mild and beneficent reign had justly endeared him to all his subjects.

While, however, in common with your Majesty, we deplore the loss which has plunged in grief the loyal subjects of these realms, we cannot but derive consolation from reflecting, that the Crown has descended upon the head of a Prince matured in judgment, and peculiarly connected by education and habits with the strength and glory of Britain.

We humbly offer to your Majesty our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of this Kingdom, and we behold with the greatest satisfaction another Son of that revered Monarch (whose paternal care for the welfare of his subjects formed so conspicuous a feature in his benignant character), seated on the Throne, and at the head of the most honourable and noble Order of the Garter.

It has been most gratifying to us to learn your Majesty's expressed determination to support the reformed religion established in this united kingdom; and we most fervently implore the assistance of the Almighty, to enable your Majesty long to confer the blessings of a peaceful and a happy reign, upon a loyal and grateful people.

St. James's Palace, July 21, 1830.

THIS day the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor; Sir James Shaw, Bart. and Alderman; Sir Charles Flower, Bart. and Alderman; Colonel Sir Claudius Stephen Hunter, Bart. and Alderman; Mr. Alderman Garratt; Sir Peter Laurie, Knight and Alderman; Mr. Alderman Copeland; Sir William Rawlins, Knight; Thomas Williams, Esq. Deputy; Matthew Wilson, Esq.; and Edward Grose Smith, Esq. Clerk; Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London; waited upon His Majesty to present to His Majesty the following Address, which His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the rest of your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the rest of your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Person, with the sincerest expressions of our unshaken loyalty, and sacred respect for your Majesty's Person and Government.

We lament with the deepest sorrow the demise of our late most beloved Sovereign King George the fourth, a Monarch under whose auspicious reign this kingdom, by the wisdom of its councils, and the valour of its arms, so materially assisted in the liberation of Europe, and attained to the highest degree of national glory.

Sire,

Whilst we express our feelings of condolence on the severe loss which your Majesty and the public have so recently sustained, we hail the accession to the Throne of a Prince, who, by his virtues, has long been endeared to the nation, who in early life has signalled himself in its fleets, and has at all times been ready to support the Constitution and the liberties of the subject; we retire from your Royal presence with the most fervent wishes, that your Majesty may long reign over a loyal people, in the full enjoyment (together with Her most gracious Majesty our Queen) of all earthly felicity, and that your Majesty may continue to witness the increasing glory of your country, and the increased happiness of your people.

Edwd. Grose Smith, Clerk and Treasurer.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

"I thank you for this loyal and affectionate Address.

"I feel confident that I may rely on your attachment and loyalty, and on your zealous co-operation with me in promoting those public objects for which you have been constituted."

Whitehall, July 23, 1830.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Robert Peel, Bart. one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal subjects; the Master, Assistants, and Members of the Company of Merchants of the City of Edinburgh, incorporated by Royal Charter, ratified by Parliament, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with the offer of our sincere condolence on the death of our late lamented Sovereign, your Majesty's Royal Brother, under whose liberal and enlightened sway we have enjoyed all the blessings attached to our free and happy Constitution, and the lustre of whose reign will be long and proudly remembered by all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

While we thus sympathize with your Majesty, permit us to offer our sincere congratulations on the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of your Ancestors, and to assure your Majesty that we hail with the most sincere pleasure the continuance of the Royal Line in another Descendant of your illustrious House. On this occasion, too, we would humbly and respectfully tender the renewal of our allegiance to your Majesty, and the assurance that our cordial and united services shall ever be at the command of your Majesty, for the protection of your Royal Person, and the maintenance of the laws, the religion, and the liberties of our country.

Signed in name, and by appointment of a general meeting of the Company, and the Seal of the Company affixed, this 10th day of July 1830.

Thomas Allan, Master.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of His Royal Burgh of Crail.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, beg leave to offer you our sincere sympathy and condolence on the loss the Nation has sustained in the death of our late beloved Sovereign, King George the Fourth.

Under the auspices of your Majesty's illustrious House, a system of Government has been fostered and matured which forms the basis of the happiness, prosperity, and glory of Great Britain, and, to the wisdom and firmness of His late Majesty, as Regent and King, must be ascribed the reputation and renown which this country maintained during the war, as well as the tranquillity and repose at present enjoyed by your Majesty's subjects.

With these remembrances of the past, we look forward with confidence to the future, and we hail with heartfelt satisfaction the accession of a Monarch to the Throne, who, having had the example before him of such gracious and beloved Kings as his worthy and venerable Father, and excellent Brother, proved themselves to be, and having himself passed his life in the service of his country, will, we have good reason to believe, tread in their footsteps, and discharge the high and arduous duties which now devolve to him, with honour to himself, and for the safety, welfare, and happiness of his people.

That your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, our illustrious Queen Adelaide, may long continue to enjoy the Crown of these Realms in health, peace, and prosperity; and also that you may reign in the hearts of a free, happy, and loyal people, is the ardent prayer of, your Majesty's faithful and dutiful subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of your Royal Burgh of Crail.

David Cuthbert, C. M.

To His Sacred Majesty, WILLIAM the FOURTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith, &c.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council of your Ancient Borough of Montrose, in Scotland, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal presence with our tribute of condolence on the death of His late Most Excellent Majesty, George the Fourth, your Majesty's Royal Brother, whose memory will long remain endeared to all his subjects.

From so melancholy a subject, we turn with feelings of heartfelt joy, to congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of your Ancestors. May Heaven grant that, under the influence of councils, dictated and directed by the spirit of wisdom, justice, and integrity, your Majesty may long live and reign, with glory and happiness, in the hearts of a free, a flourishing, and a happy people.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, by William Jameson, Esq., Provost and Chief Magistrate, and the Corporation Seal of the Borough affixed, at Montrose, this 12th day of July 1830.

Wm. Jameson, Provost and Chief Magistrate.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Roxburgh.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Roxburgh, humbly desire to lay at the foot of the Throne, the expressions of our sincere and heartfelt condolence on the lamented demise of our late most gracious and most excellent King, your Majesty's Brother, of blessed and glorious memory.

We, in common with the universal British empire, must ever remember with feelings of the deepest gratitude that our late revered Sovereign, under circumstances of unexampled difficulty, maintained the high character of this country in war, and finally secured to his people the inestimable blessings of a long, honourable, and lasting peace.

We beg to assure your Majesty, that while we have to deplore the loss of so beloved a Monarch, we at the same time have the consolatory reflection, that the British Sceptre has descended to a distinguished Member of the illustrious House of Brunswick, under whose benignant sway this country has flourished for so long a period.

Permit us to offer your Majesty our humble and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne, and to assure your Majesty of our devotion and attachment to your Royal Person.

That Providence, who has placed your Majesty on the Throne of these Realms, amid the loyal acclamations of your subjects, will long permit you to preside over the destinies, and to promote the happiness of a free, attached, and grateful people, is the fervent prayer of us, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment at Jedburgh, this 10th day of July 1830 years.

William F. Elliott, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Society in Scotland for propagating Christian Knowledge.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Members of the Society in Scotland for propagating Christian Knowledge, incorporated by Royal Charter, beg leave to offer our sincere congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Fathers, together with the cordial assurances of our loyal and dutiful attachment to your Majesty's person, family, and government.

Our Society, originally founded by one of your Majesty's Royal Ancestors, has now, for more than a century, been employing the means with which it has been intrusted for educating the numerous youth in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland, who would otherwise have been destitute of so invaluable a benefit, by teaching them to read the Scriptures in their own as well as the English language, instructing them in the most useful arts of domestic industry, and promoting among them those principles of true religion and habits of Christian virtue, which constitute the only sure basis of genuine loyalty, order, and peace. Upwards of fifteen thousand children are daily taught in our schools; and by means of missionaries and chatechists, we have also been disseminating a more extended knowledge of the same principles and habits among the more adult inhabitants of that interesting portion of your Majesty's dominions.

Under the blessing of Almighty God, and the countenance and encouragement of your Majesty's Predecessors, our Society has been eminently successful in promoting these important objects; and, while we continue with fidelity our endeavours to teach both the young and the old to "fear God, and honour the King," we rely with confidence on your Majesty continuing to us the protection and favour we have so long experienced from your Majesty's illustrious family.

We respectfully present our unfeigned and tender condolence with your Majesty on the lamented death of your Royal Brother, our late most gracious Sovereign, whose paternal care and auspicious government so greatly contributed to the welfare of these realms, and the happiness of his subjects: and while we bow with submission to the Divine Will, in removing from your Majesty's august family an affectionate Brother, and from the nation at large a much revered King, we shall, in common with the rest of your Majesty's subjects, ever retain a grateful recollection of the many distinguished benefits which he was the high instrument of conferring on his people, so long as it pleased God to continue him in the Sovereignty of this Kingdom.

That the God and Father of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ may grant to your Majesty a long and prosperous reign, may impart to your Majesty, and your Royal Consort Queen Adelaide, every temporal and spiritual blessing, and may at last bestow on both the unmingled joys of life everlasting, is our earnest and united prayer.

Signed, in our name, and by our appointment, by the Right Honourable the Earl of Breadalbane, President of the Society, and the Seal of the Society attached thereto, at Edinburg, this 8th day of July, 1830. Breadalbane, President.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Haddington.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Ancient Borough of Haddington, presume to approach you with the assurance of duty and loyalty. We hail your Majesty's auspicious accession to the Throne of your Fathers. With your Majesty, with the other Members of your august Family, and with all our fellow subjects, we mourn the event which has bereft the British nation of its beloved and illustrious Sovereign; of his public character the imperishable record now belongs to history: and while the annals of Britain transmit her fame to succeeding generations, they will tell to posterity that the regency and reign of George the fourth, form the brightest passages in our history, and were not more memorable for the splendid triumph of British arms, than for the successful prosecution of science and learning. Under this national calamity, a consolation is provided in the accession of your Majesty to the Throne. We hasten to tender our allegiance to a Sovereign whose boast is, like that of his lamented Brother, that he was born a Briton, and who has already assured his faithful subjects of his determination to pursue those measures which obtained for Him, and your august Father, the affections of a loyal people.

Our prayer is, that your Majesty may be preserved during many years, to reign in health and prosperity, over a free, a loyal, and a united people.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the Magistrates, and Town Council of Haddington, in Common Council assembled, by W. Dods, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Provost.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Deacon, Treasurer, and Members of the Incorporation of Hammermen of the City of Edinburgh, beg leave to tender to your Majesty and Royal Consort, Queen Adelaide, our sincere and most respectful congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of this great Empire, with assurances of our firm attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

We deeply lament the death of our late most gracious Sovereign George the fourth, after a brilliant reign: the strict integrity which guided his public conduct; the firmness and decision which prompted his councils in seasons of difficulty, commanded the admiration of all, and must insure the approbation of after ages.

But, though we deeply lament the loss of a Monarch thus entitled to our grateful attachment, our grief is not unattended with alleviations; your Majesty ascends the Throne no stranger to your people, sprung from the same illustrious House, and trained in the same noble path; may your Majesty continue to walk in our late Sovereign's steps, earning, like him, by every public and private virtue, the love and reverence of your people; and that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free and happy people, is the sincere prayer of your Majesty's most devoted subjects, the Incorporation of Hammermen of the City of Edinburgh.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the Incorporation of Hammermen of the City of Edinburgh, and their Seal appended hereto, at Edinburgh, this 13th day of July, 1830.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the President, Council, and Fellows of the Royal Society of London for improving Natural Knowledge.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the President and Council of the Royal Society of London for improving Natural Knowledge, beg leave to approach your most sacred Person, and to offer in the name of the Society, in the most respectful manner, our sincere condolence on the occasion of the death of His late Majesty, and also to express our deep felt satisfaction and joy at the happy accession of your Majesty to the Throne of this great and united Empire.

Deprived, as we have been by the late melancholy occurrence of a gracious and munificent Patron, who uniformly evinced the greatest zeal for the interests of science, and was pleased to testify in an especial manner, by placing the annual royal medals at the disposal of the Royal Society, his approbation of their efforts to promote those interests, and to enlarge the boundaries of human knowledge, we derive consolation from the hope, that your Majesty will condescend to entertain towards us the same favourable disposition, and to extend to us the same gracious protection.

We have presumed to cherish this expectation; from the confidence we feel in your Majesty's paternal solicitude for every object conducive to the advancement of our national prosperity and glory, with which the improvement of the arts and sciences is so intimately and indissolubly connected. We accordingly most humbly entreat your Majesty to confer upon the Royal Society, which has now flourished for nearly two centuries under the fostering hand of so many of your august Predecessors, and which has largely contributed to the great extension of science that has taken place during that period, attended with such important advantages to the arts of civilization, and to the power and happiness of mankind, the honour of your Royal patronage, we humbly hope that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to comply with our request, and honour us with your Royal Name in our register, as our Patron, among those of your Royal Predecessors.

That your Majesty's reign may be long; happy, and glorious, and rendered illustrious as the era of important discoveries in science, as well as endeared to the affections of a free and grateful people, is the earnest wish and ardent prayer of your Majesty's loyal subjects, the President, Council, and Fellows of the Royal Society. Davies Gilbert, President.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Linlithgow.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Linlithgow, most humbly beg leave to express to your Majesty the deep concern which we, in common with all your Majesty's faithful subjects, feel for the great and severe loss which your Majesty and these Kingdoms have sustained, by the melancholy death of our late most justly beloved Sovereign, of glorious and blessed memory.

The prosperity and happiness which, by Divine Providence, have been vouchsafed to this nation during the reign of your Majesty's Royal Brother, the lenity, moderation, and wisdom of his Government, the uniform regard to the Laws and Constitution of the Country, which was the invariable rule of his conduct, the constant and inviolable integrity with which his engagements were fulfilled, the firmness and resolution with which his councils were directed, as they were productive of the most invaluable blessings, justly demand the affectionate remembrance, and most grateful acknowledgements of a dutiful and happy people.

Permit us, Sir, at the same time, with hearts full of the sincerest duty and affectionate zeal, to congratulate your Majesty on your happy accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors; we anticipate with the most assured confidence the continuance of the civil and religious privileges, and the manifold blessings we now enjoy under the sway of a Prince, whose life has hitherto been devoted to the service of his country, and who mounts the Throne under the same auspicious name with that illustrious Monarch to whom these kingdoms are indebted for their deliverance from the thralldom of superstition and the yoke of arbitrary power.

That your Majesty be graciously pleased to accept of this earnest of our inviolable attachment to your sacred Person and Government, and that your Majesty may be long preserved to reign over a free, happy, and united people, is the prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Linlithgow.

Signed by us, a majority of the Town Council, in Common Council assembled, and the seal of the Burgh hereto affixed.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Inhabitants of Dartmouth, in the County of Devon.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, humbly presume to lay at the foot of the Throne our respectful and unfeigned assurances of our being filled with the deepest sorrow at the removal from his temporal sovereignty, of our late most gracious Majesty, King George the Fourth.

His eminent and unwearied paternal vigilance and protection over the civil and religious rights and liberties of his people are impressed upon our minds for the remainder of our days, and will ever be recollected with sentiments of profound veneration and affectionate regard.

We humbly hope that you, Sire, and your illustrious Family, will be strengthened in your affliction by the consolations derivable from that pure and holy religion which the Divine Mercy has revealed.

Whilst we thus deeply deplore the privation of a King so pre-eminant in the exercise of His Royal functions, allow us, Sire, to congratulate you upon your elevation to the Throne of this great and powerful empire.

We implore the Divine Majesty to grant to you, Sire, a long life to reign over us, in the enjoyment of health and every earthly comfort; and we humbly presume to offer the assurance of our loyal and affectionate attachment to your august Person, in the confident belief, that amidst all the fluctuations to which human affairs are subject, we shall ever find in you, Sire, the dignified assertor of the civil and religious rights of your subjects as by law established, the glory of the British Monarchy, and the birth-right and best inheritance of every Briton.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Incorporated Tailors in your City of Edinburgh, beg leave humbly to approach the Throne with our sincere condolence on occasion of the death of our late much beloved Sovereign, under whose auspices this country has attained the highest reputation and glory, and has enjoyed a long period of tranquillity.

We congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of these Realms; and knowing well your Majesty's attachment to the Laws and Constitution of the Country, we earnestly pray that your Majesty may long reign over a free, a loyal, and a happy people.

Signed in name, and by the appointment of the Incorporated Tailors in Edinburgh, and the Seal of the Incorporation appended hereto.

The most humble, dutiful, and loyal Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council, of the Royal Burgh of Irvine.

WE, your Majesty's very loyal and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Irvine, humbly beg leave to approach the Throne with the most sincere expressions of condolence on the much lamented death of our late most gracious and beloved Sovereign, your Majesty's royal and affectionate Brother.

The various public and private virtues which so eminently characterised our late most gracious Sovereign, will ever remain deeply impressed on the minds of your Majesty's subjects; and while we, in common with the nation at large, most sincerely deplore the present dispensation of Divine Providence, we at the same time beg leave to express our firm attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and our fullest confidence in your Majesty's wisdom for the judicious administration of those laws which have so long been the boast and the glory of Great Britain.

That your Majesty may be long spared to reign over a free, and loyal, and happy people, is our most fervent wish and prayer.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Anstruther Wester.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, beg leave most sincerely to condole with your Majesty on the loss the country has sustained in the death of your beloved Brother, our late most gracious Sovereign.

Under his auspicious reign Great Britain gallantly maintained her ancient reputation and renown, and to his wisdom and decision of character during the war, is to be attributed the profound state of repose at present enjoyed by your Majesty's subjects.

Should your Majesty resolve, when your high duties will permit, to honour Scotland with a visit, along with your Royal Consort, our most gracious Queen, we can assure you both of a most cordial welcome; indeed we are confident nothing will afford your Scottish subjects more sincere satisfaction and delight, than to behold another Descendant of our ancient Kings upon the Scottish shores.

As your Majesty is now called upon, under Divine Providence, to administer the Government of this mighty Nation, we justly promise ourselves, as well from your own well known liberality of sentiment, extended views, and wisdom, firmness, and patriotism, as from the Princely example set before you by our two last Kings, your revered and beloved Father, and illustrious Brother, that you will embrace every opportunity to promote the happiness and prosperity of your people, that nothing will be omitted which may appear to you necessary for confirming and establishing our ancient and glorious Constitution,—for relieving your people from the heavy burdens which in defence of their King and Country they cheerfully imposed upon themselves,—for encouraging trade, manufacture, and agriculture, and more especially for advancing the maritime power of this Kingdom: in short, for making us happy at home, and respected abroad.

That your Majesty and your virtuous Consort, our gracious Queen Adelaide, may long continue to sway the Sceptre of these Kingdoms, in health and prosperity, and that you may reign in the affections of a free, a happy, and a loyal people, is the sincere wish and prayer of, your Majesty's dutiful and faithful subjects and servants, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Anstruther Wester.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, and the common seal of the Burgh is hereto affixed.

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the City and Royal Burgh of Perth.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, beg leave to approach the Throne with the sincere expression of our heartfelt sympathy with your Majesty, in the deep affliction in which your Majesty has been involved by the death of our late Sovereign, whose wisdom and energy and mild and paternal government, rendered him so dear to your Majesty and all his loyal subjects.

We beg most humbly to assure your Majesty of the veneration we feel for our glorious Constitution, and while we now venture to offer our humble and sincere congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, we would assure your Majesty of our fixed determination to support upon every occasion, to the utmost of our power, the Government and Constitution of the Country, and to prove our attachment to your Royal Person and Family.

We beg humbly to offer our assurance, that we have every reliance on your Majesty's Government for the welfare and safety of the united empire, and we fervently pray that your Majesty, surrounded by wise and faithful servants, may long enjoy a happy and prosperous reign, and continue unimpaired the glory of the British Empire.

Royal Regiment of Artillery.

Second Lieutenant Henry Coope Stace to be First Lieutenant, vice Heywood, deceased. Dated 5th July 1830.

Whitehall, June 1, 1830.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto James Oconchar Baron Forbes, a General in the Army, and Colonel of the 21st Regiment of Foot (or Royal North British Fusiliers), His royal licence and authority, that he may accept and wear the insignia of the Royal Sicilian Order of St. Januarius (and enjoy all the privileges thereunto annexed), which has been conferred upon him by the King of the Two Sicilies, in testimony of his royal approbation of his distinguished conduct while serving in the army in Sicily:

And further to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, June 18, 1830.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Frank Jones Walker, of Bryntirion, in the county of Carnarvon, Gent. His royal licence and authority, that he may (in compliance with a direction contained in the will of Thomas Jones, of Bryntirion aforesaid, Esq. deceased) henceforth take and use the surname of Jones, in addition to and after that of Walker:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

Ratcliff Pavement Commission.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Commissioners having the controul of the pavement usually called the Ratcliff Pavement, will, on the 28th day of September now next ensuing, pay off and discharge the principal and interest due on two paving bonds of £100 each, bearing date respectively the 28th day of May 1818, and numbered 2 and 3; and also two other paving bonds, for the same sum and of the same date, numbered 14 and 15, which said several bonds were granted by the said Commissioners to their Treasurer, under and by virtue of a certain Act of Parliament made and passed in the 57th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for better paving, improving, and regulating the streets of the metropolis, and removing and preventing nuisances and obstructions therein;" which said two first-mentioned bonds, numbered 2 and 3, were assigned by the said Treasurer to Thomas Williams, of Cable-street, in the County of Middlesex, Pawnbroker, by a certain deed, bearing date on or about the 10th day of July 1818, and which said two other bonds, numbered 14 and 15, were assigned by the said Treasurer to George Schroder, of Wellclose-square, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, by a certain deed, bearing date as last aforesaid, for the purposes of the said Act, and pursuant to the provisions in that behalf therein contained.—Dated this 23d day of July 1830.

John W. Unwin, Clerk to the Commissioners,
