The London Gazette

edither of Talkhoustypresented by His Grace, the Duke of Albemers. His Majesty was Graciously pleased to accept of the same, and to declare that it was his plugiure, that Mr. Attorney General Inould professionthe Lub Waryanio lately brough against the Chamer of that

Corporation. 11A .f3 id To she King's Most Encallent Mujesty, at Toe bumble Address of Iwan Majesties truly Eoyal and dutifuk Subjecting who are part of the Magi-Strates and Principal Inhabitants and Bree men of Your Majesties Town and Pors of Dovet. SHEWETH, Hat we Your Majesties most obedient Subjects, (who had first the honour to make Your Majesty an Oblation of acknowledgment for Your most Gratious Declaration upon Your Majefries Diffolution of the Parliament lately held at Oxfordy do humbly crave leave to let Your Majetty know, that according to our bounden duties, we have been thankful to Almghry God, and do infinitely rejoyce that his immence Goodnels has pro-tected and conferred Your Sacred Person, and the Person of Your Majesties Royal, most Dear and only Brother, from the late Diabolical and unparaleled Treasonable Conspiracies of Execrable and Villanous Diffenters who under the pre-tence of preferring Property, and Reforming the Proteitant Religion, have hatched and carried on the most Hellish Ma-chinations, to Derhrane and Murther Your Sacred Perilin, to Extirpate Your Royal Line, and cotally to Subvert the Covernment by Law established in Church and State. And we humbly crave leave to affere Your Majefty, that not with-flanding it is our unhappiness to be Members of, and Inhabitants within a Corporation whereof feveral of the chief Magistrates, and other Inhabitants (whom we daily endeavour to reclaim) heretofore have opposed, and yet do deavour to reclaim) heretofore have opposed, and yet do violently oppose Your Majesties Interest, and promote Sedition and Fastions, and decline to put Your Laws against Conventicles in due execution (for which last mentioned Chime Mr. Nicholas Cullen our last pretended Mayor is already convicted, and Mr. William Stokes the present Mayor, and several others of our Magistrates shad indicted yet we shall every of us in our several capacities personer duely to obey and execute Your Majesties Laws, and shearfully exposed our Majesties Laws, and shearfully exposed for the Restransition of Your Majesties. Lives and fortunes for the Pretervation of Your Majeffied Person and Gevernment, the Succellion in the Highir Eine, and the Religion as it is now established. And we do with and the Religion as it is now establised. And we do with all the Duey and Humility imaginable prolitate out felves and all the interest we have in the Charetrand Franchijes of Your Majesties Royal Feet.

Majesties laid Fown and Portac Kour Majesties Royal Feet.
Majesties laid Fown and Portac Kour Majesties Royal Feet.
Madrid, Ostober 144 The second instant we federed by an Express, the sappynows of the raising the Siege of Vienna, and the defeat of the Turks, which can'ed great regioning here a not the Court on this occident is left offer their mounning for three days. On the teath instant shell returned to remain pile die beginning of the max month? We have an account from Cading that the Dartmonth Royal Tiad forced althore another Sally Man of War of 18 Guns, being a new Ship that had never becaus Sea before. And from Alicians we have had each the four Man's men of War had taken a Durch Ship of between any subsides Tame, faild to be worth a Durch Ship of between 400 miles of Time, faid to be worth

Lines, Ochob, 16. The Letters from the Imperial Camp near Gran, cophirm the Account we pavoyou in our last, by ught his het by the Count de Lamberg of the Victory which the Cariffian obrained a gainst the Turks of Barkan, whereof they give us gaint the fellowing Relation. On the 9th instant the Imperial and Polish Armies advanced in order of

From Bonday October 22, to Thursday October 25. 1683.

The following Address figned by als koyal

He following Address figned by als koyal

He following and landabitants of Anneral was fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was

fonted by this Grace the Dulcas of Anneral was fonted by the Bonda of Bonda of Anneral was fonted by the Bonda of Bond Battle, the Imperialits having the draguards to-wards Barkan, near which place was succemped a Body of between 13 and 14000 Turks dishibite bell Troops of their remaining Army, They, encouraged with the advantage they had upon the Poles on the zth, no looner law the chaillands may appear, but advanced with full special most hider out Cryes, chaig dishe imperialists, and endeavorted to break in upon them; the Christians kept themselves very close, and irm, and repulsed the E-1 nemy, who then turned towar s the Poles sand made a very fierce charge upon, thom is The Poles received them likewise with great Bravaryarandibes ing very well feconded by the Imperialists made a great flaughter of the Finemy, who feeing one of their chief baffa's flain, and another taken Prisonesa fled towards Barkan; The Christians purfied them very close, and fired upon the m with their Cannon; which the King and the Duke of Lorrain fauled to advance for that purperfer of the knemy fome goo over the Bridge of Gran, which happily for us broke, others threw themselves into Barkan, some we readrown D ed, and others taken Pri graffe, for that of this whole Body not a cover a coordinated. The Impedial Foot and Dragoons advanced and the Regim m to Captellis, and f me other communical Troops, attacked the Counter for Banken, besing lead on by the Count de Staremberg, and Dook it with their Counter in their hands, and mobile the with their Swords in their hands, and promif the Turks that were the to the Sword But gave. Quarter to goo Jamiaries that were in the place, and who furrendre to Dictesion. The Christians. after having pillaged Barkan, fee fire to it; and ap well there as in the Enemies Chaips which severed the faid Fort, as likewise the City of Gran where had a great deal of Plunder: 20 pieces of Cannon with great quantities of provisions and Argundian tion, and many fine Horles were with furtification were taken; and the Prifediers declare. That offer this fegond defeat the Christians will not mercuvithe any confiderable refulanceany where, there bying a very great confernation unong the Triks. They in Gran continued to fire upon the Christian Troops that were in fight of them, till night, and renewed the lamagine pext mornings but their Cannon was but smalls and did us little harm. The Chriffians quite ruined the Bridge of Gran, and when she a Letter's came away, they were passing the Danube over a Bridge of Boats (which was brought from Conorra) in order to their attacking that pidee, the principal Fortifications whereon, have its faid been very much dannified, by Thunder pland their best Cannon and greatest pass of their Attiminations fent to the Si ge of Kiennast fent to the Siv ge of Kiennast

Hamburg, October, 2st. Our Letter I I fin Coleffiagen, inform us, that the French Squadrdit, under the command of the Chevallen de Preuilly was under fail, in order fails, return homes the King of Denmark Having made confusional Prelents to all the thief Officers. From Bellin that will capte the Brandenburg was not well ething in the fail of the places appropried for the places appropried for the places appropried for the places appropried for the life in the fail of the places appropried for the places. The Columbia was a for the places appropried for

Amflerdam, gelob, 34m Laft Saturday we Fecei-