THIS day, the Lord Bishop of London, and the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, with a Deputation of the Clergy, waited upon His Majesty to present to His Majesty the following Address, which His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Bishop of London, the Dean and Chapter of Saint Paul's, and the Clergy of London and Westminster, humbly request permission to approach your Majesty with the expression of our sincere condolence on the death of our late revered Sovereign, and with the assurance of our loyal and devoted attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Under the sorrow occasioned by so severe a domestic, as well as national calamity, your Majesty has the consolation of reflecting, that the confidence and affection with which your Majesty was ever regarded by that lamented Monarch, were repaid by the most cordial attachment, the most undeviating loyalty, and the most dutiful obedience. And your Majesty's subjects are consoled under the loss which they have sustained, by a confident belief that the same principles and feelings which influenced your Majesty's conduct as a Brother, and a subject, will continue to animate your Royal breast as the Ruler and Father of your people.

As persons entrusted with the sacred charge of instructing the people in the truths and duties of our holy religion, and convinced that, upon the influence of that religion, the real prosperity of this country must depend, we have learned with the most heartfelt joy and gratitude your Majesty's gracious declaration of attachment to the established Church, and of your Majesty's determination to protect and maintain it.

Persuaded as we are that your Majesty's countenance and favour will never be withdrawn from us as long as we are faithful to our trust, we humbly beg leave to assure your Majesty that, as the servants of Him who came to establish the reign of peace upon earth, it will be our constant endeavour to inculcate upon the members of our Church the duties of loyalty to their Sovereign, obedience to the laws, and charity towards all men, as parts of the allegiance which they owe to Him who is the King of kings, and Lord of lords.

We humbly pray that, under his favour and protection, your Majesty may long be spared to enjoy, in the society of our most gracious and amiable Queen, the blessings of domestic felicity, and to promote both the spiritual and temporal prosperity of your Majesty's subjects, reigning in the affections of a loyal and united people, and rejoicing in the increase of true religion and virtue.

Signed on behalf of the Clergy, C. J. London.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

" I thank you most cordially for this loyal and dutiful Address, for your condolence with me on the death of my lamented Brother, and for the assurance of your affectionate interest in the happiness of myself, and of the Queen, my beloved Consort.

" You may rely upon my steady attachment to the established Church, and upon my anxious endeavours to maintain its privileges, and to extend its legitimate influence.

" In those endeavours I shall be encouraged and stimulated by many motives : by a deep sense of duty, by a firm belief in the great truths of our holy Religion, and by the obligations of those solemn engagements which I shall be called upon to contract in the face of my people.

" You can prefer no surer claim upon my favour and protection than the faithful execution of that sacred trust which is committed to your charge, and the continuance of your unceasing exertions in the common cause of truth, virtue, and religion."

St. James's-Palace, July 21, 1830.

THIS day the following Addresses were presented to His Majesty on the Throne, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, which His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

The important events of many preceding years have fully convinced this favoured nation and the world, of the immense advantages of a Constitutional Monarchy, directed by wisdom and benevolence; and we hail with the brightest hopes your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms; and not doubting a continuance of the mild and patriotic sway of the House of Brunswick, we humbly beg leave to express to your Majesty our warmest congratulations on the occasion.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Magistrates, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Monmouth, at the Quarter Sessions in Usk assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty with our congratulations on your Majesty's happy accession to the Throne of these Realms. We feel truly grateful for your Majesty's gracious declaration of your determination to maintain the reformed religion established by law, and to protect the rights and liberties of your people; nor can we be unmindful of the blessings which this country has ever experienced under the paternal and beneficent sway of your Majesty's august Family; but we should ill express our feelings, if we did not mingle with our congratulations; our heartfelt condolence on the decease of our beloved Sovereign, your Majesty's most lamented Brother. We remember with pride the great achievements which, under his Regency, raised the glory of this kingdom to the greatest height, and we recollect, with heartfelt gratitude, the mildness which ever distinguished the Government of our late Sovereign during the whole period in which he held the Sceptre of these Realms.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over us, and to enjoy all the gratification arising from the continued affection of your dutiful people, is the sincere wish of your Majesty's very attached and loyal subjects.

We would also express to your Majesty the anxious wishes we entertain, that your Majesty will, under the guidance and favour of Divine Providence, long continue to reign over and direct the councils of this great empire, and that the loyalty and devotion of all classes of your Majesty's subjects may be cordially rendered to your Majesty's sacred Person, by the wisdom, justice, and integrity which we are confident will be exercised by your Majesty, in maintaining the reformed religion established by law, and in promoting the welfare, glory, and happiness of a free and faithful people. Permit us further to add our ardent prayers, that the blessings of health, happiness, and long life may attend your Majesty's beloved Consort, our gracious Queen.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the President, Vice Presidents, and Members of the Highland Society of London, incorporated by Act of Parliament, in General Court assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Highland Society of London, intreat permission to approach your Royal Person with the expression of our deep and heartfelt sympathy in the sorrow of your Majesty, and unfeignedly to condole with your Majesty on the death of your Royal Brother, His late Majesty, of glorious memory, whose virtues will long live in the recollection of a grateful and affectionate people, and who was graciously pleased to bestow His Royal sanction and favour on the Highland Society by condescending to accept the title of its Chief.

We beseech your Majesty to accept our sincere and cordial congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms, and beg to assure your Majesty of our ardent attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of our determination to devote our most unremitting and zealous exertions to support the dignity and honour of your Majesty's Crown.

The objects of the Highland Society we humbly conceive are well known to your Majesty, His Royal Highness the Duke of St. Andrew's, having very recently honoured the Society by accepting the office of its President. The interest which your Majesty was then pleased to take in the proceedings of the Society, and the kindness and condescension which induced your Majesty to preside at the anniversary meeting, on the 21st of March last year, in celebration of the glorious victory at Alexandria, will be cherished with feelings of pride and gratitude by every member of the Society; they are, therefore, encouraged to hope, that your Majesty may now be graciously pleased to permit your Royal Name to be inserted in their records as Chief of the Highland Society.

Your Majesty is aware, that, amongst other objects of importance, the Highland Society endeavour to encourage in that part of your Majesty's Dominions, with which they are most immediately connected, that high spirit of loyalty and ardent zeal for the service of their King, which has always distinguished the true Highlander, to preserve the ancient garb and language, to cultivate the poetry and music of the Highlands, and thereby to cherish those feelings of self respect, honest pride, and characteristic enthusiasm which have been found to promote good order and good conduct, an adherence to the laws in peace, a persevering fortitude and valour in war, and to excite a spirit of industry and enterprise, accompanied by probity and controlled by prudence; by extending useful knowledge and the principles of religion and morality, the Highland Society seek to advance the welfare, the comfort, and the happiness of their country.

With such views the Highland Society indulge a sanguine hope, that they may not be deemed unworthy the proud distinction of again identifying their Sovereign with their Chief.

We fervently pray that it may please the Almighty Disposer of all events to soothe the sorrows with which your Royal House has been afflicted, and that he may long preserve the life and health of our gracious Monarch and his illustrious Consort, and grant them a happy and a prosperous reign over a free, united and loyal people.

Given at London, under the Seal of the Society, by order of the General Court, the 16th day of July 1830.

[Presented by Earl Cowdor.]

To His Most Excellent Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Magistrates and Masters of the Four Incorporations of Leith.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Magistrates and Masters of the Four Incorporations of the Town of Leith, humbly approach your Royal Person, to offer our sincere expressions of condolence on the demise of your Majesty's Royal Brother, our late most gracious Sovereign, whose memory will ever be endeared to his subjects, under whose Regency, during the life of your venerable Father, the British Flag triumphed in victories splendid, not only for the proofs they afforded of national valour and power, but in the unparalleled importance of their consequences, and during whose reign this country enjoyed a general peace of a duration unexampled in the annals of Europe.

We humbly beg to present our cordial congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms, and we are confident that your power will ever be exercised for the protection of the commerce, the rights and the liberties of your subjects.

We humbly offer to your Majesty, and to your Royal Consort, Queen Adelaide, the assurance of our affectionate attachment; and we earnestly pray that your Majesty and your Royal Consort, under the blessings of Almighty God, may reign during many years of peace and prosperity in the hearts of a free, a loyal, and a happy people.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Honourable and Loyal Society of Ancient Britons.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Society of Ancient Britons, originally instituted at the auspicious period of the first accession of the House of Hanover to the British Throne, and founded in commemoration of the birth-day of the first Princess of that illustrious House, it is our pride to acknowledge, with sentiments of gratitude and attachment, that from the cradle of our late gracious Monarch, we have experienced his unabated patronage and liberal protection.

For sixty-five years did His Majesty extend to us not only the encouragement of his munificent personal contributions, but the still more valuable boon of his unvarying public countenance, under which the Welsh Charity School, from the education of only twelve boys, in 1765, has increased to the entire maintenance, clothing, and support of not less than one hundred boys and fifty girls, in the course of last year.

For benefits so generously conferred, we are desirous of offering this last but zealous tribute of our gratitude and acknowledgement to the memory of our late Royal Patron, and at the same time we crave permission to congratulate your Majesty upon your accession to that Crown, which your Majesty's British Ancestors have worn from the earliest period to which the most remote tradition can extend, and to express our anxious hopes that we may still experience the same patronage with which your Majesty has already honoured us by presiding at our annual festival, and that your Majesty will be convinced, that the sentiments of loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, though they pervade every class of the subjects of these realms, are no where more warmly cherished than in the breast of the Society of Ancient Britons.

Signed at the request, in the name, and on the behalf of the honourable and loyal Society of Ancient Britons,

Watkin Williams Wynn, President.

[Presented by Sir W. Williams Wynn, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Delegates from the Royal Burghs of Scotland, in General Convention assembled, beg leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere condolence on the demise of your Majesty's illustrious Brother, and on the loss which your Majesty and the Empire have sustained by this afflicting event.

We, at the same time, tender to your Majesty our congratulations on your Majesty's auspicious accession to the Throne of these Realms, and an assurance of our inviolable attachment and allegiance to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and beg to express our entire confidence in your Majesty's steady maintenance of our civil and religious liberties.

That the Sceptre of these Realms may long continue to be swayed by your Majesty, is the anxious wish and earnest prayer of this General Convention.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the Royal Burghs of Scotland, in Convention assembled, and the Seal of Convention appended hereto, this 14th day of July 1830.

Wm. Blackwood, Preses of Convention, and Acting Chief Magistrate of Edinburgh.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Incorporation of Cordiners of the City of Edinburgh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Cordiners of the City of Edinburgh, beg leave humbly to present to your Majesty the expression of our sincere condolence, on the loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained, in the demise of our late beloved Sovereign, your Royal Brother. Cherishing the most ardent attachment and respect for the persons of your Majesty's Royal Family, under whose benign Government, your people have hitherto enjoyed so many blessings, we look forward on the accession of your Majesty, with the confident anticipation of a long, a glorious, and a happy reign, under which your subjects may enjoy the same pre-eminent rank among Nations, and beneficent administration of the laws and government, which have distinguished the kingdom in the reigns of your Majesty's Predecessors. While we thus hail with congratulation the era which has introduced to the Throne a Member of the Royal Family, possessing, in so eminent a degree, the merited affection of his subjects; it is with peculiar satisfaction, that we contemplate the lustre which the conspicuous virtues of your Majesty's August and Royal Consort, will not fail to reflect upon the Throne, and upon the Nation. That your Majesties may long reign in happiness over a free and prosperous people, is the earnest prayer of your devoted subjects.

Signed in the name of, and by authority of the Incorporation of Cordiners of the City of Edinburgh, the 9th day of July 1830.

John Moir, Deacon.

[Presented by the Lord Provost of Edinburgh.]

To His Most Excellent Majesty KING WILLIAM the FOURTH.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, most humbly present our sentiments of condolence to your Majesty on the loss of your beloved Brother, and our late revered Sovereign under whose auspices a series of splendid victories attained a glorious and lasting peace to these dominions, and rescued this Country and Europe, from the grasp of unprincipled ambition; the arts and sciences were encouraged and flourished; and the laws of the empire have been improved.

At the same time we offer our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, with fervent wishes for length of days and uninterrupted prosperity. We trust that the sword with which you have obtained renown in defence of your country, will long remain at rest; and while your Majesty cultivates the arts of peace, the liberty of your subjects will be preserved from aggression, their lives and property secured by a firm and mild administration of justice, and the protestant religion protected from injury, and cherished with affectionate regard.

Blest as you are with a most amiable and exemplary Consort, and in the enjoyment of domestic happiness, your faithful subjects anticipate with satisfaction the benefits which will result to society from her Majesty's bright example. We are confident that the Royal Court of England will shine forth the envy and admiration of the world, and will display the ornaments of honour, of purity and unsullied dignity, which embellish and exalt the character of an enlightened and Christian people.

[Presented by Paulet Mildmay, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Deputy, Master, Wardens, Assistants, and Elder Brethren of the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strand.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Body Corporate of the Seamen of England, beg leave to approach your Majesty with assurances of the sorrow with which we are impressed at the loss which your Majesty, in common with the Nation at large, has sustained, by the death of our late most excellent and revered Sovereign, your Majesty's illustrious and beloved Brother; but, while we deplore that lamented event, with sentiments of unfeigned grief, we are truly sensible of, and humbly grateful to Almighty God for the great blessing bestowed upon all your Majesty's subjects, in the preservation of your Majesty to ascend the Throne of your Ancestors: and we beg leave, with great humility, to assure your Majesty of the ardour with which we participate in the warm and sincere feelings of loyalty and devotion, by which all classes of your Majesty's subjects are inspired, on your Majesty's accession to the Crown.

Established, as the Corporation of Trinity House was, by Royal Charter in a former age, for the express object of promoting the increase and good government of navigation; and extended and confirmed as its privileges have been, for that especial purpose, at various subsequent periods, by your Majesty's Royal Predecessors, we cannot but be deeply sensible of the vast advantage which the marine of this great naval country, and nautical science in general, have long derived from your Majesty's early and continued practical acquaintance with maritime affairs, and from the warm interest which your Majesty has at all times been graciously pleased to manifest towards the marine of the empire, its prosperity, and its glory.

The distinguished honour which your Majesty has graciously condescended to confer upon this Corporation by accepting the office of its Master, and the personal attention which your Majesty has been pleased to bestow upon its affairs, demand the respectful expression of our warmest and most grateful acknowledgements: and we humbly beg to tender to your Majesty the strongest assurances, that our best services and hearty endeavours will be at all times rendered for the preservation of the Royal Navy, and the advantage of navigation in general.

Animated by feelings of genuine loyalty, we shall embrace all occasions of testifying our ardent zeal for your Majesty's service; of endeavouring within our sphere, to promote the prosperity of the kingdom, and of evincing the sentiments of affectionate duty and devoted attachment, by which we are actuated towards your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Given under our common Seal, this 13th day of July 1830.

[Presented by Captain Woolmore, the Deputy Master.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, deeply affected by the sorrowful event which has deprived our country of its most revered and gracious Monarch, and justly sensible of the exemplary manner in which he laboured to fulfil the great and arduous duties of the Royal Office, beg leave to express our feelings of condolence and sympathy on this afflicting occasion, and to present to the Throne this tribute of unaffected grief to the memory of our late beloved King:

We also humbly and dutifully avail ourselves of this opportunity of offering our most cordial congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, under a full conviction, that our excellent Constitution, as by law established, which comprises every thing dear and valuable to us, and to our country, will by the wisdom, the justice, and the energy of your councils, be preserved in its utmost integrity, under your Majesty's auspicious reign.

We entertain a firm confidence that your Majesty's watchful care will be incessantly directed to the condition of your people, and it will be our constant prayer to the great Ruler of Princes, that all your Majesty's efforts for the promotion of peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety, may be successful; and that your subjects, animated by gratitude for your Majesty's faithful and benevolent discharge of your Royal Functions, may make a due return, by constant obedience to the laws, and steady attachment and loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We beseech your Majesty to accept this manifestation of our duty and allegiance.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and principal Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough and Town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, most humbly beg to address your Majesty, and to express how deeply and sincerely we feel the great and painful affliction which your Majesty and the Royal Family must experience, by the death of our late most excellent and ever to be lamented Sovereign, your Majesty's truly affectionate and beloved Brother.

That whilst we mourn, in common with all your Majesty's dutiful and faithful subjects, the severe loss which has befallen us, we have the consolatory reflection, that His late Majesty has left behind him a memorial of excellence imprinted on every British heart, for the blessings we enjoyed under His Majesty's glorious and happy reign.

This town stands a splendid monument of the value of your Royal Father's favor and protection. At the same time, we humbly entreat your Majesty, to believe that our allegiance to your Majesty is not less firm, and that our affection to your Royal Person is not less ardent. And we sincerely hope and trust that your Majesty's firm and unalterable adherence to our glorious Constitution, will perpetuate and secure those advantages which we have hitherto enjoyed under the illustrious House of Brunswick.

We beseech the Almighty Disposer of all human events, to make this great work to prosper in your Majesty's hands and to grant that your Majesty may long reign a happy King over a loyal, obedient, and grateful people.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, venture to approach your Majesty, to declare our unfeigned homage, devotion, and attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, Crown, and Dignity.

While we deplore, in common with all your Majesty's subjects, the event which has recently deprived this great empire of a Sovereign, who, as Regent, and as King, wielded the Sceptre of these Realms during a crisis of public affairs unexampled in the history of nations, and under whose auspicious reign this country has attained the highest degree of glory and renown. We console ourselves with the reflection, that, by the accession of William the Fourth, he is succeeded by a Constitutional King, who, animated with every British feeling which distinguished his august Father, and Brother, has also the experience of a life passed in active service for the benefit of his country.

In offering our ardent prayers for the health and welfare of your Majesty, we deem it no less our duty to exult in the distinguished character of Queen Adelaide, your Majesty's Royal Consort, and in the anticipation of that benign and beneficial influence, which her bright example will afford to every class of your Majesty's subjects.

We pray that the lives of your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, may, under Divine Providence, be long preserved; and that the illustrious House of Brunswick may continue for ages to bestow on this free country, the blessings of a mild and paternal Government, and of a Constitution which is acknowledged to be the envy and admiration of surrounding nations.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the President, Vice-Presidents, Director, Fellows and Members, of the Eclectic Society of London, approach your Royal presence with unfeigned sentiments of condolence for the bereavement with which it has pleased Providence to afflict your Majesty and the Nation, in the loss of your Royal Brother, his late most sacred Majesty, of blessed memory.

We desire humbly, but fervently, to congratulate your Majesty on your happy accession to the Throne of these Realms; and we rejoice greatly that a Prince of the Royal House of Brunswick still wields the Sceptre of the United Kingdom, under whose illustrious dynasty the arts and sciences have flourished; commerce has been more widely extended, and the general prosperity and glory of the nation attained an eminence unequalled in the history of Great Britain.

We pray ardently that your Majesty, in conjunction with your Royal Consort, our gracious Queen, whose eminent virtues and bright example cannot but be highly beneficial to the nation, may be blessed with a long life and a glorious and happy reign.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Common Council Men, of the Town and Port of Dover, in the county of Kent, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the most sincere expressions of condolence on the severe and afflicting loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained by the demise of your late Royal Brother, our most excellent Sovereign.

Most Gracious Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, in General Court assembled, humbly beg leave to approach your sacred Person, and to offer our sincere condolence on the demise of our late most excellent Sovereign.

While we tender this assurance of our unfeigned sympathy at the loss which your Majesty has sustained by the death of your Majesty's illustrious Brother, we proffer our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms.

The East India Company cannot fail to associate with the title which your Majesty has been graciously pleased to assume on your succession to the Crown the remembrance that it was at the hands of your Majesty's Royal Predecessor, King William the third, they received their present charter, under which, by the fostering protection of your Majesty's Royal House, many of the blessings enjoyed by your Majesty's subjects in these realms have been extended to the inhabitants of those vast and interesting regions which have been placed under our Government in the East.

Permit us to assure you, gracious Sire, that the East India Company, actuated by every feeling of loyalty and affection to your Royal Person and Family, will continue to impress upon the minds of all connected with them the most zealous attachment to the Constitution under which we live, and the truest sentiments of allegiance and fidelity to your Majesty.

In thus humbly offering our congratulations, allow us, Sire, to accompany them with the expression of the loyalty and unfeigned respect which we bear towards the august Partner of your Throne, Her gracious Majesty Queen Adelaide.

We pray that it may please the Almighty long to continue your Majesty the beloved Sovereign of a free and happy people.

Given under the Seal of our Corporation, this 16th day of July 1830.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Keeper, Deputy Keepers, Commissioners, and the other Members of the Society of Writers to your Majesty's Signet in Scotland, humbly approach the Throne, to convey to your Majesty the expression of our sincere condolence on the lamented death of our late revered Sovereign, under whose government, during the life of your Majesty's venerable Father, victories were achieved, which in national prowess, and in the importance of their consequences, are not surpassed in history; and under whose auspicious reign the British Empire enjoyed, by the favour of Divine Providence, the blessings of continued peace.

We congratulate ourselves and the country on the accession to the Throne of another Prince of the illustrious House of Brunswick, and we are confident that your Majesty's reign will be marked by constant exertions to promote the true happiness and the best interests of your people.

We humbly offer to your Majesty, and to your Royal Consort, Queen Adelaide, the dutiful assurance of our affectionate attachment; and we earnestly pray, that your Majesty and your Royal Consort, under the blessing of Almighty God, may reign, during many years of peace and prosperity, in the hearts of a free and a loyal people.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Members of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, most humbly solicit permission to express to your Majesty our unfeigned condolence on the death of our late most gracious Sovereign, whose paternal attention to the welfare of his people, will be remembered to the latest generation with gratitude and affection.

At the same time, we offer the tribute of sincere congratulation on your Majesty's happy accession to the Throne of this Realm, an event, which, from your Majesty's steady adherence to the principles of your illustrious House, we cannot but regard as highly auspicious to those interests which it is the especial object of this Society to promote.

The designs of the Society, we have the happiness to know, are well understood by your Majesty. Your Majesty recently condescended to testify your favourable opinion of the Society by graciously presiding at one of its public meetings, and by expressing, in strong terms, your approbation of its proceedings. We have now the satisfaction of stating, that the labours of the Society have, ever since the period of that meeting, been continued on a scale of progressive extension; and in particular, that it has carried into effect a most benevolent plan, specially recommended to its attention by your Majesty.

In thus extending the operations of the Society, on the ground work of its original principles, we humbly presume to hope, that we have proportionably strengthened the claims to encouragement, which your Majesty has already been pleased to recognize; and we unite in ardent and affectionate prayers to the Father of Mercies, that your Majesty, with your illustrious Consort, may long continue to reign over a loyal and virtuous people, in the abundance of righteousness and peace.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your City of Edinburgh, beg leave to approach the Throne, on the occasion of your Majesty's accession, with every sentiment of respect and attachment.

In common with all our fellow subjects, we must sympathise with your Majesty on the loss which has been sustained in the decease of our late illustrious Sovereign. The reign thus terminated will be ever memorable in our annals, for the glorious conclusion of a long and arduous war; for munificent patronage of the arts; for a multitude of humane and religious institutions liberally supported; for an administration of justice, pure above suspicion; and, in general, for the just and wise Government of this great Empire.

But the kindness of Providence has furnished these United Kingdoms with a Successor, from whose history and character there is every reason to anticipate similar blessings. It is well known to all your subjects, that your Majesty's youth was trained under the eyes of the same revered Parent; that your early manhood was spent in the naval service of the country with exemplary zeal and gallantry; that, in every subsequent scene of life, your Majesty has nobly fulfilled whatever duties have been committed to your care by the people over whom you are now called to preside; and that you are blessed with a Consort whose Court will furnish a salutary example to every order of society. That your Majesty's reign may be long is our sincere hope and prayer; that it will be popular, your Majesty's well earned reputation for manly and patriotic qualities affords the best pledge; and we are sure that if, like our late lamented Sovereign, your Majesty shall ever think fit to visit this part of your dominions, your reception will be worthy of the loyal devotion of an ancient nation, and of the virtues which are known to distinguish your Majesty's personal character.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, and the Seal of the City affixed hereto, at Edinburgh, this 7th day of July 1830.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Southampton, beg leave to approach your Royal Person, to express our deep regret at the severe loss this kingdom has sustained in the death of your Royal Brother, our late most gracious and much lamented Sovereign.

It affords us, Sire, no small consolation when we consider that your Majesty was born in this country, and educated in those principles which seated your illustrious Family on the Throne, and to which you have ever shewn yourself attached, we therefore, in humbly tendering our sincere congratulations on your Majesty's accession, feel the fullest confidence that your Majesty will ever make the happiness and prosperity of these realms over which, by the dispensation of Providence you are now called on to preside, the constant object of your paternal care and solicitude.

Most gracious Sire, allow us, the Corporation, Clergy, and Inhabitants of this loyal and ancient Town, who are honoured in having your Majesty's name enrolled amongst our Burgesses, to assure your Majesty that none of your Majesty's subjects are more zealous for the honour and prosperity of their King and Country than ourselves.

We sincerely pray that the Almighty may afford your Majesty his assistance and protection in discharging the arduous duties of your high station, and in promoting whatever may tend to his honour and glory, and to the benefit of your faithful subjects.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Magistrates, Clergy, Gentry, and Inhabitants of Brighthelmston, humbly lay at the foot of the Throne the expression of our condolence upon the loss which your Majesty and the Country have sustained in the death of our late revered Sovereign, King George the fourth.

To the wisdom and energy of His late Majesty's Councils we may, under the blessing of Divine Providence, ascribe the glorious termination of a long and eventful war, the establishment of a permanent peace within these realms, and the maintenance of the exalted position which this country has been enabled to take in the policy of nations.

While in contemplating these features of the late reign, we feel, in common with the rest of our fellow-subjects, the extent of our public loss, we, the Inhabitants of Brighthelmston, desire to approach your Majesty with the earliest avowal of our sentiments, under a deep impression of affectionate gratitude for the many very important benefits which we derived from the long residence of his late Majesty amongst us.

In now proceeding to offer our unfeigned congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne, we turn with satisfaction to your Majesty's gracious declaration, respecting the example of your Majesty's "revered Father, and lamented and beloved Brother;" a declaration which enables us to mingle the language of condolence with our most fervent prayers to Almighty God that your Majesty may long be spared, in honour and happiness, to administer the government entrusted to your charge.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the West India Planters and Merchants resident in London, beg leave to approach your Majesty with every feeling of loyalty and devotion on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms.

Whilst we sincerely condole with your Majesty on the loss which this country has sustained by the death of a Monarch, whose reign was marked by the glory of his arms, and by the protection which he invariably afforded to all classes of his subjects, we unfeignedly rejoice that a Prince has succeeded to the Crown, by whom our liberties and laws will be cherished. We fervently hope that your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous; and that, by unanimity at home, and by confidence abroad, the splendour and renown which this nation has enjoyed under the House of Brunswick, will be perpetuated to distant ages.

Among the various classes of your Majesty's subjects, who will be anxious on this occasion to express to their Sovereign their unshaken and zealous allegiance, none will approach your Majesty's Throne with feelings of more ardent loyalty and attachment than your Majesty's faithful colonists, who look back with grateful recollection to that early period of your Majesty's devotion to the public service, during which your Majesty's active protection was given to the British West India Colonies—those important appendages to the empire—to the welfare and prosperity of which your Majesty has been graciously pleased to extend repeated proofs of regard.

Signed on behalf of the general body of West India Planters and Merchants.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Barnstaple, beg permission most respectfully to approach your Majesty, with sentiments of faithful attachment to your Person and Government, and feelings of sincere condolence in the mournful dispensation which has recently visited this Nation, and more nearly afflicted your royal and illustrious House.

While, however, we participate deeply in the general sorrow on the demise of your Royal Brother, our late most gracious and beloved Sovereign, and are anxious to pay our heartfelt tribute to departed worth, and to the memory of those splendid qualities which distinguished the period of his glorious and eventful reign, we derive consolation from the prospect before us, and hail with lively gratification your Majesty's accession to the Imperial Throne. We acknowledge in it a pledge, that the civil and religious blessings so long enjoyed by us, under the House of Brunswick, will, by an indulgent Providence, be continued to this highly-favoured land; and, by the assurances already given by your Majesty, we feel convinced that the great and primary object of your care will equally be, to maintain the dignity of the Crown, to secure the constitutional rights, and to confirm and improve the happiness of all your subjects.

That, under the guidance and protection of Him "by whom Kings reign," you may long continue in health and happiness to adorn the exalted and arduous station to which His providence has raised you, conferring upon us the blessings and benefits of a mild, paternal, and enlightened Government, and reaping your best reward in the affectionate gratitude of a free and united people, is among the most fervent prayers and the warmest wishes of our hearts.

Signed at the request and on behalf of the meeting.

A CHAPTER of the Most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned this day, the following Knights Companions, in their mantles and collars, assembled in the Entrée-room, viz.

Their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Cumberland, Sussex, and Gloucester, His Royal Highness the Prince of Saxe Coburg, the Earl of Westmorland, the Marquess Camden, the Duke of Rutland, the Earl of Hardwicke, the Duke of Beaufort, the Earl of Lonsdale, the Duke of Wellington, the Earl Bathurst, the Duke of Buckingham, the Marquess of Hertford, the Duke of Dorset, the Duke of Leeds, the Duke of Devonshire, and the Duke of Richmond, attended by the under-named Officers of the Order, in their mantles, chains, and badges, viz. the Lord Bishop of Winchester, Prelate of the Order; the Honourable and Reverend the Dean of Windsor, Register of the Order; Sir George Nayler, Knight, Garter Principal King of Arms; and Sir Thomas Tyrwhitt, Knight, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.

At six o'clock, the Knights Companions were called over by Garter, and, with the Officers of the Order, proceeded into the presence of the Sovereign, in the Throne-room.

The Sovereign being seated on the Throne, and the Knights Companions having taken their respective places, the Prelate of the Order, by His Majesty's command, read a new Statute, declaring His Serene Highness Bernard Reigning Duke of Saxe-Meiningen, Brother of Her most Excellent Majesty the Queen, a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

The Prelate then signified to the Chapter the Sovereign's royal will and pleasure, that a lineal descendant of His Majesty King George the Second should, in pursuance of the Statute in that behalf made, be elected into the said Most Noble Order.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Prelate, were by his Lordship presented to the Sovereign, who was pleased to command him to declare, and he accordingly declared, that His Majesty William, by the Grace of God, King of Wurtemberg, had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

The King of Wurtemberg was thereupon conducted from the private apartment of the Sovereign in the Chapter-room, between their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Cumberland and Sussex, the two Senior Knights Companions present, preceded by Garter (bearing the ensigns of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion) and by Black Rod.

On entering the Chapter-room, His Majesty was received by the Sovereign and Knights Companions standing, and placed in a chair of state on the right hand of the Sovereign.

The Sovereign was then graciously pleased to announce to the King of Wurtemberg that His Majesty had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Garter on his knee presenting the Garter to the Sovereign, His Majesty, assisted by their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Cumberland and Sussex, buckled it on the left leg of the King of Wurtemberg, the Prelate pronouncing the usual admonition.

Garter next presented, in like manner, the ribband with the George, and the Sovereign, assisted as before, put the same over the shoulder of the King of Wurtemberg, the Prelate pronouncing the admonition.

The Sovereign thereupon gave the accolade to the King of Wurtemberg, and His Majesty also received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions present.

The chapter being ended, the Knights Companions were again called over by Garter, and with the Officers of the Order, retired from the presence of the Sovereign with the usual reverences.

The Sovereign and His Majesty the King of Wurtemberg were then conducted to the private apartment of the Sovereign.

Her Majesty the Queen, their Royal Highnesses the Princesses, Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent, Her Royal Highness the Princess Victoria, Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Cumberland, His Royal Highness Prince George of Cumberland, His Royal Highness Prince Frederick of Prussia, together with the Foreign Ministers, the Great Officers of State, the Officers of the Royal Household, and many personages of distinction, were present at this august ceremony.

In the evening a dinner of state was given by the Sovereign, at which the abovenamed royal, noble, and distinguished persons were present, with the Officers of the Order. During the banquet, Garter King of Arms, by command of the Sovereign, announced that His Majesty drank to the health of His illustrious visitor, His Majesty the King of Wurtemberg, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

The Sovereign was then pleased to drink to the health of Her Majesty the Queen of Wurtemberg; shortly after which their Majesties arose from table and proceeded to the drawing-room, where they were received by a party of nobility and gentry, specially invited on this occasion.

At the Court at St. James's, July 26, 1830.

THE following is a copy of an Order of His Majesty in Council, approving of a district being assigned, under the provisions of the 21st sec. 58th Geo. III, c. 45, to the new chapel of St. Peter's, Pimlico, in the parish of St. George's, Hand-over-square:

At the Court at St. James's, the 28th of June 1830, present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," it is amongst other things enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his or their consent to make such divisions, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his or their hand and seal, and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe lands, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if thereupon His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such divisions to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;” and whereas by the said Act it is further enacted, “that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete separate and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendance of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein; the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such divisions to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:” and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,” and by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled “An Act to amend the Acts for building and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,” further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect: and whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His Majesty in Council, stating that, in the year 1821, when the last census was taken, the parish of St. George, Hanover-square, in the county of Middlesex, and diocese of London, contained a population of 46384 persons, which has since considerably increased; that the parish church of the said parish affords accommodation for 1200 persons only; that the said Commissioners have caused three new chapels to be erected in the said parish, which afford accommodation to 4847 persons, including 2251 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; that the said chapels have been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein; that the said Commissioners further represent to His Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient that the said parish should be divided into two ecclesiastical districts, under the 21st section of the said Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third; and that one of the said districts should be assigned to the new built chapel called St. Peter's Church, Pimlico, in the said parish, for the purpose of affording accommodation for attending divine service to the persons residing in the said district, and for enabling the spiritual person serving such chapel to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the district attached to such chapel, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendance of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the moral habits of the persons residing therein; and that such district should be named the District of St. Peter, Pimlico, with the boundaries as follows: the boundary to commence at Hyde-park-corner, from the angle of the Green-park-wall, drawing a line directly across the road to the wall of Hyde-park, and to continue along the park-wall to Westbourn-brook, at Knightsbridge; then proceeding along the said brook to the place where it empties itself into the Thames; then along eastward by the Thames side to the place where the King's Scholars' Pond Sewer empties itself into the Thames; then continuing along the King's Scholars' Pond Sewer to the wall of St. James's-park, in James-street; then following the said wall to Buckingham-gate; and from thence along the line which formerly separated the original Buckingham-house front iron railing from St. James's-park; and continuing along where the wall of the former King's kitchen stood to the corner of the place where the old green-house stood, by Constitution-hill; then to the two places where boundary stones are fixed, into the King's garden; thence to the mark in the garden-wall nearly facing Chester-street; and from thence along the garden-wall to where the boundary commenced at Hyde-park-corner; which district is shewn in the plan hereunto annexed, and therein coloured yellow: that the consent of the Lord Bishop of London has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act of the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third; and humbly praying, that His Majesty would be graciously pleased to take the premises into His Royal consideration, and to make such order therein as to His Majesty shall seem meet:—His Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

Contingent Reversionary Interest in the sum of £840, New Three and Half per Cent. Stock.

TO be sold by auction, by Drayton and Ventom, at Garraway's Coffee-House, Change-Alley, on Wednesday the 4th August 1830, (by order of the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against William Keer, of Southend, in the County of Essex, Linen-Draper;

The contingent reversionary interest of the Bankrupt William Keer, aged twenty-eight years, in and to one third part of £840, New three and half per Cent. stock, now standing in the names of respectable Trustees in the Bank of England, provided he survives a lady, aged sixty-eight.

Printed particulars may be had of Mr. Jones, Solicitor, Sise-Lane; of Drayton and Ventom, Auctioneers and Estate Agents, Angel-Court, Throgmorton-Street; and at Garraway's.

A very capital Freehold Country Residence, (contiguous to the City of Bath), with Coach-House and Stabling, Lawn, Garden, and Conservatories, and about 8A. of Pasture Land, in a ring fence, free of great tithes, and the land-tax redeemed.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Stafford, (by order of the Commissioners of Bankrupt), at the White Hart Inn, Bath, on Friday the 6th day of August 1830, at One for Two o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely;

The well known and justly admired compact small estate, designated Hampton-Hill House, seated on a gentle eminence of easy access, possessing retirement without seclusion, approached through the most refined vicinage of the elegant City of Bath to a fine pure air, and embracing a panoramic view of landscape scenery which for extent, diversity, and the exuberant adornments of nature, bids a bold defiance to description; it must therefore be seen.

The elevated situation commanded a superstructure of the most substantial character, which was effected in the first instance at a cost of £9,000; and a subsequent expenditure of £3,000, guided by a tasteful mind, has added to the generally convenient arrangements of the interior all the embellishments of modern fittings; as also the beautiful auxiliaries of a terrace pavement, with a lawn and garden, shaded walks, and highly prolific conservatories.

The land, divided into five fields, is united to the dwelling by the intervention only of the Hampton road, whence it is approached. From this source the stone for the erection of the house was produced, of which it is presumed to be abundant, as also eminently qualified, by favour of the scite, for the erection of cottage villas. It has been effectually drained for pasture, and bears ample testimony of an unsparing application of the farmer's best helpmate, manure. The parochial rates are low, and the luxuriance of the soil is increased by the valuable circumstance of enjoying the whole of its produce by an exoneration of the great tithes, and a redemption of the land tax.

A purchaser will also have the probable option of two adjoining fields, of seven acres, on moderate terms.

The tenure is freehold, and in the occupation of Sir William Dick, Bart. whose term will expire at Lady-day 1832, at the yearly rent of 250 guineas.

May be viewed, by especial favour of the tenant, five days preceding the sale, between the hours of two and four o'clock, with tickets only, which, with printed particulars, may be had on application at the Offices of Mr. T. M. Cruttwell, Mr. Langley, and Mr. George, Solicitors, and of Mr. Stafford, Bath, where a plan of the estate may be seen.
