

fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if thereupon His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such divisions to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;” and whereas by the said Act it is further enacted, “that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete separate and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendance of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein; the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such divisions to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:” and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,” and by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled “An Act to amend the Acts for building and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,” further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect: and whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His Majesty in Council, stating that, in the year 1821, when the last census was taken, the parish of St. George, Hanover-square, in the county of Middlesex, and diocese of London, contained a population of 46384 persons, which has since considerably increased; that the parish church of the said parish affords accommodation for 1200 persons only; that the said Commissioners have caused three new chapels to be erected in the said parish, which afford accommodation to 4847 persons, including 2251 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; that the said chapels have been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein; that the said Commissioners further represent to His Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient that the said parish should be divided into two ecclesiastical districts, under the 21st section of the said Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third; and that one of the said districts should be assigned to the new built chapel called St. Peter's Church, Pimlico, in the said parish, for the purpose of affording accommodation for attending divine service to the persons residing in the said district, and for enabling the spiritual person serving such chapel to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the district attached to such chapel, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendance of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the moral habits of the persons residing therein; and that such district should be named the District of St. Peter, Pimlico, with the boundaries as follows: the boundary to commence at Hyde-park-corner, from the angle of the Green-park-wall, drawing a line directly across the road to the wall of Hyde-park, and to continue along the park-wall to Westbourn-brook, at Knightsbridge; then proceeding along the said brook to the place where it empties itself into the Thames; then along eastward by the Thames side to the place where the King's Scholars' Pond Sewer empties itself into the Thames; then continuing along the King's Scholars' Pond Sewer to the wall of St. James's-park, in James-street; then following the said wall to Buckingham-gate; and from thence along the line which formerly separated the original Buckingham-house front iron railing from St. James's-park; and continuing along where the wall of the former King's kitchen stood to the corner of the place where the old green-house stood, by Constitution-hill; then to the two places where boundary stones are fixed, into the King's garden; thence to the mark in the garden-wall nearly facing Chester-street; and from thence along the garden-wall to where the boundary commenced at Hyde-park-corner; which district is shewn in the plan hereunto annexed, and therein coloured yellow: that the consent of the Lord Bishop of London has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act of the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third; and humbly praying, that His Majesty would be graciously pleased to take the premises into His Royal consideration, and to make such order therein as to His Majesty shall seem meet:—His Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act.

Jas. Buller.

CONTRACT FOR LIQUORED LEATHER.

Navy-Office, July 20, 1830.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 4th of August next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such per-