

mand, that no presentation shall hereafter take place at the Levee, but in conformity with the above regulations.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

St. James's-Palace, July 28, 1830.

THIS day the following Addresses were presented to His Majesty on the Throne, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, which His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Common Councillors of the Corporation of Gravesend and Milton, in the County of Kent, in Court Burghmote assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Common Councillors of the Corporation of Gravesend and Milton, in the County of Kent, humbly approach and entreat your Majesty to accept our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of this Kingdom.

We also humbly offer our unfeigned condolence on the loss which your Majesty and the Royal Family, with the whole people, have sustained by the lamented decease of your Royal Brother, our late most gracious Sovereign.

We pray your Majesty to receive this humble assurance of our loyalty to your Royal Person and Family, and to believe that not any portion of your Majesty's subjects are more faithful to the illustrious House of Brunswick, or would be more ready to offer their lives in defence of it, than the Inhabitants of Gravesend.

We pray, with no less sincerity than duty, that your Majesty, and your royal and beloved Consort, may long reign over a devoted and happy people, that England, and her glorious Constitution, may continue to flourish, and to sustain the high character which they have justly acquired among surrounding nations.

Given under our Corporate Seal, this 23d of July 1830.

Matthews, Town Clerk.

[Presented by the Earl of Darnley, High Steward.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, most humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty to offer our tribute of condolence on the loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained, by the death of your illustrious Brother, our late revered Sovereign, whose mild and gentle rule will be long remembered with affection and gratitude by the present generation, and whose wise and prosperous reign will be honoured by posterity.

Such an awful dispensation of Providence would have been more severely felt, if we had not the consolation of knowing that, in your Majesty, as his Successor, the nation is blessed with a Monarch every way formed to add to its happiness and glory, and, therefore, with the sincerest veneration and respect we beg to offer to your Majesty our unfeigned congratulation on your accession to the Crown of these Realms.

We entreat your Majesty to accept this dutiful expression of our inviolable attachment to your sacred Person, your Royal Consort, and illustrious House, and we fervently pray, that your Majesty may be preserved in the uninterrupted enjoyment of every public blessing and private happiness long to rule over a grateful and loyal people.

Given under our Common Seal, this 20th day of July 1830.

[Presented by Lord Yarborough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commissioners, Parishioners, and Inhabitants of the Town of Devonport, most humbly approach your Royal presence, to express our deep concern for the severe loss which your Majesty and these Kingdoms have sustained, in the death of your Royal Brother, our late most gracious Sovereign, to condole with your Majesty this affecting event; and, with hearts full of sincere duty and affectionate zeal, to congratulate your Majesty on your happy accession to the Government of a free, loyal, and united people.

We, the Inhabitants of this Town in particular, who have been distinguished by an especial mark of favour, can never be unmindful of our duty and obligations to the Royal Benefactor, who caused the name of Devonport to live on the same page of history with George the Fourth, his name will, on all occasions, raise in our breasts the most lively impressions: and it now prompts us to be among the first, on this occasion, to testify the warmest sense of gratitude towards the present Royal Family.

Being truly sensible of the peculiar blessings we have experienced under the unparalleled and glorious reign of our late King, and having witnessed the protection which all classes have enjoyed in the free exercise of their religious duties, we could not but dread the awful hour when Almighty God should think fit to deprive us of our beloved Monarch—that momentous hour is passed;—and with it the dread. Happily for the world! thrice happily for this kingdom! we behold a Prince ascend the Throne, whose benevolence of disposition is proverbial, whose liberal sentiments are well known and appreciated, and whose zeal for the welfare of England has been uniform. We have the indisputable evidence before us, that when your Majesty held the important situation of Lord High Admiral, time was not regarded,—toil and fatigue were no consideration,—patience was inexhaustible whenever, for the good of the country, information was to be acquired, grievances to be redressed, or claims to be listened to. It is, therefore, with the most sincere love and veneration