

county of Kent, was feloniously and maliciously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by Mr. Love, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Trinity-House, London, August 12, 1830.

WHEREAS representations have been addressed to the Corporation of Trinity-House, on behalf of the owners of vessels employed in the limestone trade in the Bristol Channel, on the subject of the duty of one penny per ton of the register tonnage of such vessels, payable for the light on the Island of Caldy, for each time of passing the same, and soliciting that the said duty may be reduced, and modified by the establishment of an annual commutation in lieu thereof; and the said representations having undergone consideration, the said Corporation, having had regard to the especial circumstances attaching to vessels engaged in the limestone trade in the Bristol Channel as aforesaid, have resolved to comply with the wish of the owners of those vessels, and have, by virtue of the authority vested in them by the 4th section of the Act of Parliament 3d Geo. IV, cap. CXI, submitted certain propositions thereupon for the assent and confirmation of His Majesty in Council; and His Majesty having been graciously pleased by an Order in Council, bearing date at the Court at St. James's, the 3d July 1830, to signify His Majesty's royal assent to and confirmation thereof;

Notice is hereby given, that, under the authority of the said Order of His Majesty in Council, the following sums, by way of commutation for the duty to the light on the Island of Caldy, are to be paid annually by all ships or other vessels entering into, or going out of, any of the ports or places situate between Worm's Head and St. Gowan's Head, in the Bristol Channel, with cargoes of limestone only, viz.

First.—For every limestone vessel which shall carry it's ballast with it's cargoe, being of the description commonly called ballast vessels, twenty shillings per annum.

Second.—For every limestone vessel exceeding the burthen of thirty tons, and discharging it's ballast every time of loading, fifteen shillings per annum.

Third.—For every limestone vessel not exceeding the burthen of thirty tons, and discharging it's ballast every time of loading, ten shillings per annum.

Fourth.—For every limestone vessel not paying either of the foregoing annual commutation sums, one shilling per voyage, if laden with limestone.

All limestone vessels, whether they shall or shall not have paid either of the before specified annual commutation sums, to be charged with the full rate of duty of one penny per ton for the Caldy Light, when navigating to or from any port or place between the Worm's Head and St. Gowan's Head, and not carrying cargoes of limestone, unless such vessels shall be in ballast only.

By command of the Corporation,

J. Herbert, Secretary.
