

because they afford the best grounded hope, that we shall continue to enjoy those inestimable blessings which we have experienced during the reigns of these illustrious Princes.

We unite with the rest of your Majesty's subjects in fervent prayers to the Supreme Disposer of Events, that your Majesty's reign may be long, prosperous, and happy.

We entreat your Majesty to accept our assurance of unfeigned attachment to your Majesty's amiable and illustrious Consort, Queen Adelaide, and to believe that it is our earnest prayer that your Majesty and Queen may long reign over a free, loyal, and happy people.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, approach your Majesty's Throne, with assurance of our sincere condolence on the death of His late Majesty, your Royal Brother.

We are duly sensible of the blessings this country has long enjoyed under the constitutional sway of the House of Brunswick, and we have sought and found consolation in the prospect of a continuance of those blessings under your Majesty's paternal Government.

We contemplate with feelings of joy and satisfaction your Majesty's personal qualities, and the inestimable virtues of your Royal Consort, which must of necessity produce consequences most beneficial to your Majesty's subjects. We join to our congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms, the sincere expression of our loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Person, and our devotion to the Laws and Constitution of our Country.

We pray that your Majesty's reign may be long, and that success may attend your Majesty's efforts to protect and promote the liberties, prosperity, and happiness of your people.

By order and on behalf of the meeting,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of New Galloway, in our Town Hall assembled, beg leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere sympathy and condolence on the death of your Royal Brother, our late most gracious and most illustrious King.

Justly sensible of all the blessings which we enjoyed during the reign of our late beloved and much lamented Sovereign, we feel it our duty to pay this tribute of sincere and unaffected respect to the memory of a Monarch, whose amiable qualities were so eminently conspicuous.

Ever faithful to your illustrious House, we beg leave to congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, and to assure your Majesty of our unalterable attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

And we pray that, under the protection of Heaven, your Majesty may long and happily reign over a free, loyal, and religious people.

Signed in our name, by our appointment, and in our presence, at New Galloway, the 7th day of August in the year 1830, Kenmure, Provost.

To His Most Excellent Majesty KING WILLIAM the FOURTH.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carmarthen, assembled at the Town Hall, in the Town of Llandilo, in the said County, on this 10th day of August 1830, convened by the High Sheriff, pursuant to written requisition.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Carmarthen, beg leave to approach your Majesty to express our unfeigned grief and condolence on the death of our late lamented Sovereign, who was endeared to his subjects by every tie that could unite him to a faithful people, and whose reign was one of such unexampled glory and prosperity; we trust your Majesty will permit us, at the same time, to express our sincere confidence, that, by your accession to the Throne of these Realms, the loss that we have sustained will be fully compensated by the ability, the active energy, and the zealous love of your country, which has at all times distinguished your Majesty's character; and we humbly pray that you may long continue to guide these realms in peace and happiness.

By resolution of the meeting,

R. Goring Thomas, Sheriff, on behalf of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carmarthen.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Doncaster, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to offer our heartfelt condolence on the death of your Majesty's Royal Brother, our late most gracious Sovereign, whose princely qualities and virtues had so justly endeared him to all his subjects.

We would also humbly present our sincere congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms, earnestly praying that your Majesty's reign may be long and glorious, and that, in return for the maintenance of our laws, the protection of our liberties, and the support of those principles which placed the Sceptre of the British Empire in the keeping of your illustrious Family,
