Windsor-Castle, August 21, 1830.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to John Barton, Esq. were by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

- No. 1. From the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bath, by Earl Howe.
- No. 2. From the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Doncaster, by Earl Howe.
- No. 3. From the Mayor, &c. &c. of the Borough of St. Alban, by the Earl of Verulam.
- No. 4. From the Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Governors of the Scottish Hospital of the Foundation of King Charles the Second, by Robert Auld, Esq.

No. 1.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's most loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bath, beg to offer our sincere congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the important and exalted station of Queen Consort of these Realms.

From the recollection of your most gracious Majesty's visit to this ancient city, and your amiable condescension on that occasion, we feel peculiarly called on to address your Majesty, and we heartily join in the satisfaction entertained by the country at large, in the contemplation of your Majesty's high and estimable qualities, so decidedly conducive to the promotion of morality and virtue, and to the happiness of the United Kingdom.

Given under our Common Seal, this 23d day of July, in the first year of His Majesty's reign.

No. 2.

To the QUEEN's Most Gracious Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's attached and faithful servants, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Doncaster, in Common Hall assembled, respectfully approach your Majesty with our heartfelt congratulations on your accession to the Throne of the British Empire, thus adding to the splendour of the Diadem, worn by a popular and powerful Monarch, the mild charms, and radiance of female excellence and virtue.

May the unceasing confidence and affection of your Royal Husband and Sovereign,—the sweets of a nation's love,—and health and happiness, without cessation or interruption, be your reward for the benefits and blessings which must accrue from your Majesty's presence amongst us, and the example and exercise of those qualities and kind feelings which endear and adorn the female character, and dignify even a Queen.

Given under our Common Seal, the 30th day July 1830.

No. 3.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, High Steward, Freemen, and other Inhabitants, of the Ancient Borough of St. Alban, in Common Hall assembled, desire to offer to your Majesty our mournful, but affectionate condolence at that calamitous event which has deprived the British Nation of a most gracious Sovereign, and your Majesty's Consort of an affectionate Brother.

We presume humbly to request, that your Majesty will deign to accept our dutiful and cordial congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms. Those distinguished and exalted virtues, which embellished your Majesty's private life, afford favourable and auspicious anticipations of a happy reign, amidst the warm attachment of a grateful people.

July 28, 1830.

No. 4.

Unto the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Governors of the Scottish Hospital of the Foundation of King Charles the Second, reincorporated by King George the Third, of ever blessed memory.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Governors of the Scottish Hospital, in General Court assembled, beg to tender the expression of our sincere and heartfelt congratulation on your accession to the title of Queen Consort of these Realms.

The claims of your Majesty to the affectionate devotion of every class of His Majesty's subjects, do not rest merely on the exalted rank to which Providence in its goodness has seen fit to call you. The domestic virtues which have ever distinguished your Majesty, the unceasing benevolence which has
