St. James Palace, July 25, 1830.

THE following Address from the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, was presented to His Majesty, at the Levee, on the 21st July last, by His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester. His Majesty was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

No. 1.

To His Most Excellent Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled, beg permission to address your Majesty with the deepest sentiments of condolence for the loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained, in the death of your Majesty's beloved Brother, and our late lamented Sovereign.

It must, however, be a source of consolation to the loyal hearts of your subjects, that the Sceptre of these Realms has passed into the hands of one, whose accession to the Throne has commenced under such auspicious circumstances, who, having from his earliest days mixed with his countrymen in the service of the state, has learnt their character, has appreciated and obtained their love, and who, when he becomes their King, is graciously pleased to seize the first opportunity of expressing his earnest hope, that his faithful subjects will unite with him in promoting that spirit of domestic concord and peace which constitutes the surest basis of our national strength and happiness.

With such anticipations as these sentiments call forth, we cannot refrain from declaring our conviction, that the reign of your Majesty will be prosperous.

That it may be so—and that health, happiness and length of days may be granted both to your Majesty and to our amiable and gracious Queen Adelaide, will be the constant prayers of us, your Majesty's humble and affectionate subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Tolsey, in the said City, the 11th day of August in the year of our Lord 1830.

Henry J. Wilton, Town Clerk.

Whitehall, August 27, 1830.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Robert Peel, Bart. one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Provost and Fellows of the Royal College of Eton, beg permission humbly to express to your Majesty our unfeigned condolence upon the death of our late most gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's revered and lamented Brother.

While however, in common with all classes of your Majesty's subjects, we deplore the loss thus sustained by your Majesty, and by your illustrious House, we beg, at the same time, to offer our respectful congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne of this United Kingdom.

Placed as we are, at the head of a Royal College, founded more especially for the promotion of sacred learning, we hail with peculiar joy, and with the truest gratitude, your Majesty's gracious declarations of attachment to the reformed religion, as it is by law established; and your determination to uphold our ecclesiastical institutions.

With profound veneration for your Majesty's Person, we earnestly pray that it will please the Almighty to mark with his choicest mercies, a reign so auspiciously commenced, and to bless it to a distant period with uninterrupted glory, prosperity, and peace.

We fervently pray that a Merciful Providence may protect and preserve your Majesty and our gracious Queen, that the bright example of domestic virtue and happiness which the Throne affords, may extend its beneficial influence over all ranks of your Majesty's subjects; and that your Majesty may long continue to reign in peace and prosperity over a moral, religious, and loyal people.
