

esty to reign, in peace and prosperity, over a free, a loyal, and a happy people.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the meeting, by the Most Noble the Marquess of Graham, our Chairman.
County Hall, Dumbarton, 17th August 1830.

[Transmitted by the Duke of Montrose.]

No. 6.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of the Peace, and Heritors of the County of Sutherland, beg to approach your Majesty to tender our condolence on that event which deprived your Majesty of a beloved Brother, and the people of this Empire of a Sovereign endeared to them by every tie. The splendour of his character and the successful exercise of His Royal functions, are, with his virtues, embalmed in the minds of his, and your Majesty's subjects.

We now cordially congratulate your Majesty on your Majesty ascending the Throne of your Royal Ancestors. We feel confident, from past observation, and the sentiments which have emanated from your Majesty on your accession, that the Sceptre is now in the hands of a true British Prince, whose main object will be to uphold that magnificent edifice, which has been perfected by your Majesty's august Family, and to transmit to the inhabitants of these realms the rights and liberties which we and our forefathers have so long enjoyed, under the mild, constitutional, and paternal sway of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

We also tender to Her excellent Majesty the Queen, your Royal Consort, the strongest expression of our most dutiful attachment to her, and of our delight to see the Court of this Empire graced with such virtues as must give a just tone to the morals and feelings of the country.

That your Majesty, and the Queen, may long enjoy every happiness, which so elevated a situation can attain, is the most anxious wish of your Majesty's subjects:

Signed in the presence, and by the appointment of the meeting, at Dornoch, on the 16th of August 1830, Hugh Innes, Preses.

[Transmitted by the Marquess of Stafford.]

No. 7.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Dornoch, most respectfully approach your Majesty with the expression of our deep and sincere condolence on the death of His late Majesty, whose memory is endeared to us by our recollection of the great virtues of his noble character.

We also tender our warmest congratulation on your Majesty's accession to the Throne, an event which we hail with pleasure, from the conviction that your Majesty, in the exercise of your Royal prerogatives, will uphold that Constitution which is, and must ever continue, the admiration of enlightened nations.

We farther beg to tender our most dutiful and loyal attachment to Her Majesty, Queen Adelaide, whose character and virtues give the best splendour to a Crown, from the exercise of those eminent virtues which adorn her character.

Though far removed from the seat of government, we can yield to no part of the empire in the strongest attachment, and loyalty to your Majesty and your august Family.

Signed in the presence, and by the appointment of the Council, at Dornoch, on the 16th day of August 1830, Agnus Fraser, Resident Chief Magistrate.

[Transmitted by the Marquess of Stafford.]

No. 8.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Guild or Brotherhood of Masters and Pilots, Seamen of the Trinity-House of Kingston-upon-Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Guild or Brotherhood of Masters and Pilots, Seamen of the Trinity-House of Kingston-upon-Hull, humbly beg leave to tender to your Majesty the expression of our unfeigned sympathy and condolence on the death of your august Brother, our late most gracious Sovereign, and of our congratulation on the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of these Realms.

We beg leave humbly to assure your Majesty of our inviolable attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to express our well-founded hope that your Majesty's reign will be distinguished by the same firm regard to the just prerogatives of the Crown, and the same paternal care of the liberties of your people, which reflected so much lustre on that of our late beloved Sovereign.

That it may please Almighty God long to spare your Majesty to sway the Sceptre of this great and powerful Empire, enthroned in the affections of a free and loyal people, is the fervent prayer of your Majesty's faithful and dutiful subjects of this Guild or Brotherhood.

Given under our Common Seal, this 21st day of August, in the year of our Lord 1830.

William Bunney, Warden.

No. 9.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Aldermen of the City of Norwich.

WITH humble respect, we, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Aldermen of the City of Norwich, approach your Royal presence, to offer our condolence on the decease of our late most excellent and beloved Sovereign, and to congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

Never can we adequately express the thankfulness we feel for the great and manifold blessings conferred, under Divine Providence, upon this Nation during the peaceful and glorious reign of your Majesty's deeply lamented Brother.

We refer also, with feelings of the highest admiration, to those eventful times during which our late revered Monarch wielded the British Sceptre as