To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, the Master, Wardens, and the rest of the Members of Lodge 384, of the Ancient and Honourable Society of Free and Accepted Masons, in our Lodge-room duly assembled, beg most dutifully to approach your Majesty with every affection of loyalty and humility.

We, in common with the rest of your Majesty's subjects, think it incumbent on us to offer our humble but affectionate tribute of condolence to your most gracious Majesty, in consequence of the demise of our lately revered Monarch, your Majesty's Brother.

We cannot, however, refrain from participating most fully, faithfully, and cordially, in the feelings every where manifested by all ranks of your Majesty's subjects, in having seated on the British Throne a King universally beloved and esteemed as the father of his people.

May your Majesty, with your amiable and beloved Consort, our most inestimable Queen Adelaide, long enjoy all the blessings and glories of this world; and, when it shall please Divine Providence to remove your Majesties from this transitory scene, we trust and hope that it shall be to wear an eternal crown in the Grand Lodge above.

So fervently pray your Majesty's most loving and faithful servants and subjects, on behalf of Lodge 384, and all its members,

Robert Luke Page, Doctor of Medicine, &c.
&c., Master of Lodge 384 of the Ancient and Honourable Society of Free and Accepted Masons.

To His Most Gracious Majesty WILLIAM the fourth, KING of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and Dependencies thereon, &c. &c. &c.

The dutiful Address of the Inhabitants of the Parishes of Botley, Bishops-Stoke, and Villages adjacent, in the County of Southampton,

Humbly submitteth,

THAT we, the Inhabitants of Botley, Bishops-Stoke, and Villages adjacent, most dutifully approach your most gracious Majesty, offering their sincere condolence on the death of our most illustrious Sovereign George the Fourth, of blessed memory, and fully participating in the grief experienced by your Majesty in the loss of such a Brother, though, at the same time, that it hath pleased Almighty God so to ordain it, we cannot but appreciate the wisdom and goodness of Providence, in bestowing on the nation a Sovereign whose benevolence and kindness are so transcendently conspicuous towards all classes of his subjects, which call forth the expressions of devotion that we feel towards your most gracious person; trusting that your Majesty will graciously permit us to offer our congratulations upon your accession to the Throne of these Realms, and though such devotion emanates from the hearts of these Inhabitants in the humbler sphere of agricultural life, we feel persuaded the benevolence of your Majesty will not the less value their devoted offerings; with the prayer that your Majesty may enjoy long life, in health, and prosperity, for the blessing and welfare of the nation at large; and, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

To His Most Gracious Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Falmouth.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of Falmouth, in the County of Cornwall; beg most respectfully to approach your Majesty's Throne with our unfeigned and heartfelt condolence on the afflicting loss your Majesty, the Members of the Royal Family, and the Nation, have recently sustained, in the decease of our late Sovereign King George the Fourth.

We beg, at the same time, to offer to your Majesty our warmest and most dutiful congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, as the true and sincere homage of your Majesty's faithful and devoted subjects.

It is with feelings of pride that we bear in remembrance the honour which was conferred on the inhabitants of your loyal town and port of Falmouth, by your Majesty's visit when filling the dignified office of Lord High Admiral of this Kingdom, and of the opportunity which we were then permitted to avail ourselves in addressing your Majesty.

The prayers which we then offered up for a continuance of your Majesty's health we now reiterate with joyful feelings, in the fervent hope that your Majesty, and your illustrious Consort, the Queen, may enjoy a long and happy reign over a loyal, a patriotic, and devoted people.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Town, the 23d day of July 1830.

Francis Pender, Town Clerk.
