Whitehall, October 12, 1830.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Robert Peel, Bart. one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Bishop, Dean, Prebendaries, and Clergy of the City and adjacent parts of the Diocese of Bristol, desire to offer to your Majesty our mingled sentiments of sorrow and congratulation on those events which have so intimately affected the interests, and so deeply engaged the feelings of this country and its wide spread dependencies.

Having participated in sympathy with your Majesty's fraternal grief, we contemplate on the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of these Kingdoms, a subject of general gratulation and joy, we behold in a Sovereign brought up in reverence for our religious interests, and in a service by which our maritime and commercial distinctions are sustained, a ground of confident assurance on which we may securely rest, and the pledges of attachment to the laws and established institutions of our country.

These sentiments are still more strongly impressed upon our minds, when we contemplate the accession of your Majesty's gracious Consort, already so endeared to the affections of your people, by her domestic virtues.

Feeling in the personal qualities of your Majesty, and in your Majesty's gracious declarations, every motive for attachment and loyalty, and every security for a continuance of the happiness we enjoy, we intreat the Almighty to render them instrumental to the encouragement of the established religion, and the advancement of the best interests of every class of the community.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Archdeaconry of Dorset, in the Diocese of Bristol, desire to offer to your Majesty our mingled sentiments of sorrow and congratulation on those events which have so intimately affected the interests, and so deeply engaged the feelings of this country and its wide spread dependencies.

Having participated in sympathy with your Majesty's fraternal grief, we contemplate on the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of these Kingdoms, a subject of general gratulation and joy, we behold in a Sovereign brought up in reverence for our religious interests, and in a service by which our maritime and commercial distinctions are sustained, a ground of confident assurance on which we may securely rest, and the pledges of attachment to the laws and established institutions of our country.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Norwich, humbly beg leave on the earliest opportunity afforded by the constitution of our body, to approach your Majesty with the expression of our deepest concern for the loss which your Majesty, the Royal Family, and the Nation have sustained by the demise of our late much beloved Sovereign.

May it be permitted to us to add our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's happy accession to the Throne of these Realms, and whilst we express the warmest gratitude for your Majesty's gracious determination to uphold and maintain the united Church Establishment of England and Ireland, we beg to assure your Majesty that it will ever be the object of our zealous endeavours to instil the principles of religion and loyalty amongst such of your Majesty's subjects as may be entrusted to our care.

We desire to add our earnest prayer that your Majesty, and your Royal and Illustrious Consort may long live to promote the welfare and enjoy the affections of a loyal and religious people.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of Ely, and the Clergy of the Isle of Ely.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of Ely, and Clergy of the Isle of Ely, beg to offer our sincere condolence on the demise of our late most gracious Sovereign, the great object of whose reign was to promote the happiness of his subjects, a Monarch under whose mild government, and that of your Majesty's Protestant Ancestors, the general prosperity of the country, its internal strength, and external weight have rapidly increased. And whilst the freedom of the people has been confirmed, and the laws faithfully and equitably administered, the honour of the kingdom has been maintained, its dominions extended, and its character in arts and in arms advanced to the first rank among the nations of the world. That these will be upheld under your Majesty's rule, that the laws and constitution will be protected, and the principles of pure religion cherished, we have a well grounded confidence, and we most cordially congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of these Realms,—beseeching the Almighty Disposer of events long to preserve your valuable life for the welfare and happiness of a loyal people.

Brighton-Palace, October 5, 1830.

THE following Address from the Female Members of the Religious Society of Friends, commonly called Quakers, residing in Dublin and its vicinity, has been transmitted to Earl Howe, Her Majesty's Chamberlain, by Mrs. M. John Mott and Mrs. M. Wright, and presented by his Lordship to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To ADELAIDE, QUEEN CONSORT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please the Queen,

WE, thy dutiful subjects, the Female Members of the religious Society of Friends, commonly called Quakers, residing in Dublin and its vicinity, request permission to offer our respectful congratulations on thy accession to the Throne of these Realms, and to claim thy generous sympathy on behalf of a much injured class of our fellow subjects,—the children of Africa, held in bondage in the Colonies of the British Empire.

We feel deeply interested in the removal of the foul stain of slavery, believing it to be a violation of the plainest principles of justice, in direct opposition to the command, "all things whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye even so to them," and that as such it must be highly displeasing in the Divine sight.

May we entreat that the influence of the Queen on her Royal Consort, our honoured Sovereign, be put forth in favour of the total extinction of negro slavery,—that the sound of the lash, impelling human beings to labour, may be no longer heard in his dominions,—the connubial tie be no longer torn assunder, or lightly esteemed,—and that henceforth the sable mother may press a free-born infant to her bosom; but above all, we wish that this long neglected people may be brought to a knowledge of the truth at it is in Jesus Christ our Lord, and that they may be made partakers of the privileges bountifully bestowed on us by the universal Parent, who "hath made of one blood all nations of men."

We humbly trust that the Divine blessing would attend the benevolent efforts of our Queen to promote the well-being of this degraded portion of her subjects; and a reign thus signalized in its commencement by acts of mercy and justice, would shed a salutary influence on the people under its sway, and dispose surrounding nations to acknowledge the excellency of governing on true Christian principles.

Desiring that it may please the Lord to bestow his choicest blessings on our King and Queen, and that he may guide them by his counsel in administering the affairs of their mighty empire, and finally grant them the reward of the faithful of all generations, we subscribe ourselves.
