WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about seven o'clock in the evening of Saturday, the 20th day of November instant, Robert Harrison and James Sladden, Farmers, of the parish of Hoath, near Canterbury, in the county of Kent, were wilfully and maliciously shot at by some evil-disposed person unknown, while performing the duty of horse patrol in that parish;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually shot at the said Robert Harrison and James Sladden) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury. MELBOURNE.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the morning of Monday the 29th day of November last, a rick of hay belonging to, and in the premises of the Very Reverend Dean Wood, Rector of the parish of Freshwater, in the Isle of Wight, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said hay) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. Such reward to be paid by the Parish Officers of Freshwater.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, early on the morning of Saturday the 27th day of November last, some evil-disposed person or persons did feloniously and maliciously put a case containing combustible materials into the letter-box of the Post Office at Derby, by the explosion of which, considerable damage was occasioned;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually put the said case into the said letter-box) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury. MELBOURNE.
