

Whitehall, December 17, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Thursday the 2d, or early on the morning of Friday the 3d, day of December instant, some evil-disposed person or persons unknown entered the premises of Mr. John Jackson, on the Ten Mile-bank, in the parish of Southery, in the county of Norfolk, and maliciously and feloniously stabbed and otherwise injured three foals (two of which have since died), the property of the said John Jackson;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually stabbed the said foals) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Parish Officers of Southery to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Tuesday the 14th day of December instant, the premises of J. T. Daubuz, Esq. at Layton, in the county of Essex, were maliciously and feloniously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, whereby one stack of wheat and a stack of clover were entirely consumed, and two stacks of oats much injured;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS is hereby offered by J. T. Daubuz, Esq. of Finsbury-circus, London, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Custom-House, London, December 17, 1830.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs," it is (amongst other things) enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, after any goods have been entered at the Custom-House, and before the same shall be discharged by the officers and delivered into the custody of the importer, or his agent, to mark or stamp such goods in such manner and form as the said Commissioners may deem fit and proper for the security of the Revenue, and by such officer as they shall direct and appoint for that purpose:

We the undersigned, Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, do hereby give notice, that we have deemed it expedient, and do hereby direct, that all foreign paper hangings imported into the United Kingdom shall, after the entry thereof at the Custom-House, and before the same shall be discharged by the Officers of Customs, be marked and stamped under the provisions of the said Act; and we, the said Commissioners, have caused a stamp to be provided for that purpose.

(Signed) HGE. LEGGE.
S. G. LUSHINGTON.

Greenwich Market.

THE Commissioners of Greenwich-Hospital do hereby give notice, that, in order to give greater accommodation to the public, they have built a new market-place upon a portion of their freehold property, lying between Church-street and King-street, Greenwich, with proper and convenient approaches to the same from Nelson-street, the road near the Infirmary, and the site of a new street proposed to be laid out by the Commissioners of Greenwich-Hospital, parallel with, and to the northward of, Nelson-street, to which will be added another approach to the said new market from Church-street.

And the said new market-place will be opened, and used as a market, at five o'clock in the morning of Saturday the 26th day of March next, and on every subsequent Wednesday and Saturday, from five o'clock in the morning until ten o'clock at night.

That on and from the said 26th day of March, the old market will be discontinued, and removed to the said new market-place.

By order of the Commissioners,
Wm. H. Hooper, Secretary.
