AT the Court at Brighton, the 27th day of December 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the eleventh year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to suspend, until the end of the next session of Parliament, the making of lists and the ballots and enrolments of the militia of the United Kingdom," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that any proceedings shall be had at any time before the expiration of such period as aforesaid, either for the giving of notices and making returns and preparing lists, and also for the proceeding to ballot and enrol men for the filling up vacancies in the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part thereof, as His Majesty shall deem expedient; and upon the issuing of any such Order, all such proceedings shall be had for carrying into execution all the provisions of the Acts in force in England, Scotland, and Ireland, respectively, relating to the giving notices for, and return of, lists, and for the balloting and enrolling of men to supply any vacancies in the militia, and holding general and sub-division meetings for such purpose, at such time respectively as shall be expressed in any such Order in Council, or by any directions given in pursuance thereof to the Lord Lieutenants, or Deputy-Lieutenants acting for Lord Lieutenants, of the several counties, shires, ridings, cities, and places, in Great Britain, or to the Governors and Deputy-Governors of counties and places in Ireland, or to the Warden and Special Deputy-Wardens of the Stannaries, and all the provisions of the several Acts in force in England, Scotland, and Ireland, respectively, relating to the militia and corps of miners of Cornwall and Devon, shall, upon any such order and direction given in pursuance thereof, become and be in full force, and be carried into execution at the period specified in such order or direction as aforesaid, with all such penalties and forfeitures for any neglect thereof, as fully as if such periods had been fixed in the Acts relating to such

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Whitehall, January 7, 1831.

THE following Address having been transmitted by Lieutenant-Colonel Jones to the Right Honourable William Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, was by his Lordship presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the undersigned Inhabitants of the Cinque Ports and Towns of Hastings, Romney, Winchelsea, and Rye, beg leave to approach your Majesty with expressions of our genuine sympathy in your Majesty's affliction in the loss you have sustained by the demise of His late Majesty, your Royal Brother.

It is, however, with equal sincerity that we hail your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, and no less so that we offer on this happy occasion our humble but heartfelt congratulations.

We are duly sensible of the beneficial effects resulting to the people of the British Kingdom from the mild sway of the illustrious Princes of your Royal House; we well remember the glory they have achieved whilst upholding the power, the prosperity, and the renown of the Empire.

It is with unfeigned satisfaction that we have witnessed the first auspicious acts of your Majesty's reign as affording us a happy omen of your Majesty's paternal care for the happiness and interests of your people, and this satisfaction is still further increased by the consideration of your Majesty's experience in and knowledge of the maritime affairs of this country, inasmuch as that branch of the public business has been from time immemorial, and is still at this present time, of the deepest importance to the towns and ports in which we reside; and we venture most humbly to assure your Majesty, that, although labouring under local grievances, we yield to no part of your people in a faithful, loyal, and fervent attachment to your Majesty and Government.
