TO be sold by auction, by J. Harper, on Friday the 11th day of March 1831, at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Norfolk Hotel, Norwich, in four lots;

A freehold estate, in a very eligible situation for trade, in King-Street, in the said City of Norwich, upon which a considerable tanning business was a few years since carried on, and also a small freehold estate at Beighton, in the County of Norfolk.

Lot 1. A small cottage, with a coal bin and stable adjoining, situate in the Green-Man-Lane, King-Street, Norwich; the cottage is untenanted, and the coal bin and stable is now in the occupation of James Betts.

There is an excellent staithe at a distance of not more than 40 yards from this lot, and a good carriage way communicating thereto, which the purchaser will have the right of using, upon the usual terms.

Lot 2. All that granary, stable, warehouses, and cart shed adjoining the last lot, and extending in a direct line towards the river.

This lot is in the occupation of Mr. George Morris, and is calculated either for the purposes of trade as coal bins, warehouses, &c. or for habitation, being easily convertible into dwellings.—The purchaser of this lot will be entitled to a similar right with lot 1, and to the right of taking water from the pump standing on lot 3, and using a passage at the east end of the buildings of the width of 8 feet, and of the height of 10 feet, for the use of the purchaser of lot 3.

Lot 3. Two substantial tenements, or dwelling-houses in a yard adjoining lots 1 and 2, with the extensive yard and garden thereto belonging, one of which dwelling-houses, now untenanted, contains a cellar, kitchen, small parlour, chamber, and attic, with a small yard and wash-house attached, and the other, which with the yard and garden are now in the occupation of Mr. Morris, contains an entrance-hall, cellar, kitchen, parlour, and four sleeping-rooms, with wash-house attached; there are pipes conveying river water to each of the wash-houses, and a pump standing at the lower end of the yard.

The purchaser of this lot will have a right of using the passage, to be left at the east end of lot 2, for the purposes of communication with the river, rendering it extremely desirable with a view to a considerable trade of almost any kind, for which it is so well calculated.

Lot 4. A cottage or tenement and 1A. 2R. 0P. of land, situate at Beighton, in Norfolk.

This lot is freehold, subject to a small land-tax, and is in the occupation of Thomas Ellingham.
