

Street, in the Parish of Saint James, Westminster, in the County of Middlesex, Army-Agents and Bankers, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on the Wednesday the 6th day of April next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees henceforth paying the annual premiums as they become due on certain policies of insurance effected by and on the life of the said Bankrupt, Archibald Campbell, out of the separate estate of said Archibald Campbell; and also the annual premiums on a certain policy of insurance effected by the said Bankrupts, on the life of a person, to be named at the said meeting, out of the joint estate of the said Bankrupts; or to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees instead of paying such premiums, selling and disposing, either by public auction or by private contract, in such manner as the said Assignees may in their discretion deem most for the benefit of the said Bankrupts' estates of such before mentioned policies, or any or either of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees referring and submitting to arbitration, or compromise upon such terms as the said Assignees may think just, or as Counsel may advise, if such arbitration or compromise can be effected, of certain questions to be explained at the said meeting, touching and concerning certain deeds executed by the said Bankrupt, Archibald Campbell, purporting to be settlements of parts of his estate and effects upon the wife and family of the said Bankrupt, Archibald Campbell, and if such arbitration or compromise cannot be effected then as to the said Assignees filing any bill or bills in equity, or taking any other proceeding in the matter as Counsel may advise; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees reviving, or taking any other proceeding which Counsel may advise in or relating to a certain suit in equity commenced by the said Bankrupt, Archibald Campbell, against certain persons, who will be named at the said meeting, and which has become abated and defective by the Bankruptcy of the said Archibald Campbell, touching and concerning a certain estate, called the Weedon Estate, in the County of Bucks, claimed as part of the separate estate of the said Archibald Campbell, the particulars of which will be explained at the said meeting, and to determine whether the Solicitors heretofore employed in such suit by the said Archibald Campbell, should henceforth be employed by the Assignees to conduct the same; and also in defending another suit, touching the said Weedon Estate, which has been lately revived against the said Assignees; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees letting or concurring in letting the said Weedon Estate to farm, during the pendency of the present suits; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees acceding to certain articles of inspection and deed of covenants proposed for winding up the estate of certain persons collaterally, liable with the said Bankrupts upon bills, notes, or other engagements, the names of which persons and the particulars of which articles and deed will be stated at the meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees consenting to certain holders of bills of exchange accepting a composition arrangement proposed by parties also collaterally liable with the said Bankrupts on such bills, the names of which persons and the particulars of which composition arrangement will be stated at the meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees generally commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or suit, actions or suits, at law or in equity, or preferring or opposing any petition or petitions to the Lord High Chancellor, for the recovery, defence or protection of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relative thereto; and generally as to the Assignees acting in the management, collecting and getting in of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, in such manner as the said Assignees shall deem best and most beneficial for the Creditors; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Brancker, of Leeds, in the County of York, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 6th day of April next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Office of Mr. Thomas Davenport, in Commerce-Court, Lord-Street, in Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of the whole or any part of the goods, chattels, estate, furniture and other effects of the said Bankrupt, by public auction or private contract, or in such other manner, and at such price or prices, and upon such terms and conditions as the said Assignees may consider beneficial; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees being empowered to arrange with the Mortgagees of the said Bankrupt's real estate, on such terms and conditions as they shall deem most advisable; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees being parties to and concurring and joining in any conveyances of any real estates, or other property of the said Bankrupt, or of any part thereof, or in which he or his said Assignees have any interest for a nominal consideration in all or any instances in which the Assignees shall be of opinion that there is no beneficial interest; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Chundler, of Bow-Lane, Cheapside, in the City of London, Carpenter, are requested to meet on the 7th day of April next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to decide upon accepting or refusing any offer of composition then and there to be made to them by the said Thomas Chundler, or his friends.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law, relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 12th day of March 1831, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by—

HUGH WILLIAM DANSON, of the City of Bristol, Merchant, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued against Thomas Parslee Luck, formerly of No. 120, Cheapside, in the City of London, and latterly of Miles-Buildings, in the City of Bath, but now of No. 11, West-Lane, Walworth, in the County of Surrey, Laceman, Commission-Agent, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major part of them, on the 22d and 29th days of March instant, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, and on the 26th day of April next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, and
