VICE-CHANCELLOR.—Thursday the 24th day of March, in the first year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, 1831, between His Catholic Majesty Ferdinand the Seventh, King of Spain and the Indies, and Don Francisco Tacon and Don Mateo de la Serna, Plaintiffs; Don Justo José de Machado (otherwise Justo de Machado), and Juan Alvarez y Mendizabal, Defendants.

(By original and amended Bill.)

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Wheatley, of Counsel for the plaintiffs, that the original bill in this cause was filed on the 19th day of January 1826, and has been amended by Order dated the 13th day of December 1830, and that process of subpoena against the said defendant, Justo José de Machado (otherwise Justo de Machado), has, since the said 13th day of December 1830, been issued, requiring him to appear to and answer the same bill; but that the said defendant, Justo José de Machado (otherwise Justo de Machado), hath not yet appeared to the said bill; and it appearing that, upon inquiry at the said defendant's usual place of abode (as stated in the affidavit of Brooke Taylor), he is not to be found, so as to be served with such process; and it also appearing (by the affidavit of Thomas Browning), that the said defendant, Justo José de Machado (otherwise Justo de Machado), is gone out of the realm, and that he has absconded, and still absconds, to avoid being arrested upon process of Ne exeat Regno, as mentioned and referred to in the affidavit of the said Thomas Browning, and such process as might be issued against him in relation to the matters in question in this cause; and it further appearing (by the affidavit of the said Thomas Browning), that the said defendant has been in England within two years next before the issuing of the said subpoena; it is therefore ordered, that the said defendant, Justo José de Machado (otherwise Justo de Machado), do appear to the said plaintiffs' bill on or before the 20th day of April next.

T. A. R.—Entd. I. R.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein Samuel Houston and another are plaintiffs, and Ann Dyson the younger and others are defendants; the Master to whom the said cause is thereby referred, in taking an account of the debts of the testator, George Dyson (who was formerly of Botolph-Lane, in the City of London, Orange-Merchant, and late of Hackney, in the County of Middlesex, Gentleman, and died in the month of November 1826), is to inquire and state to the Court what sum or sums of money (if any) was or were due from the said testator in respect of the rent of the premises, situate in Saint John-Street, in the pleadings in the said cause mentioned, at the time of his decease, and what has since become due from his estate in respect of such rent, or on account of any dilapidations in the said premises.—Therefore any person or persons claiming any sum or sums of money to be due from the said testator for such rent or dilapidations, are to come in and make out and substantiate their claims before Henry Martin, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, bearing date the 8th day of January 1831, and made in a cause Parr v. Rushton, it was referred to the Registrar of the said Court to inquire who were the nephews and nieces of Andrew Parr, the testator in the pleadings of the said cause named, and of his wife, Sally Parr, in the said pleadings also named, living at the decease of the said Sally Parr (and which said Sally Parr died on or about the 21st day of October 1822), and if any of such nephews or nieces were since dead, who were the respective legal personal representatives of such of them as were dead.—The nephews and nieces of the said testator, Andrew Parr, and of his said wife, Sally Parr, and the legal personal representatives of such of them (if any) as are dead, are to come
