CONTRACT FOR COALS.

Navy-Office, April 23, 1831.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 4th of May next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Dock-yards, or any one or more of them, and this and the Admiralty and Marine Pay-Offices, with Scotch, Welch, and Newcastle Coals.

A distribution of the coals and a form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25, per 100 chaldrons, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

Navy-Office, April 22, 1831.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 11th of May next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner Sir Michael Seymour, Bart will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Dock-yard at Portsmouth, several lots of

Old Stores,
Consisting of old Canvas, old Hammocks, old Rope, Rope Rubbish, Shakings and Yarns from Junk, &c. &c. &c.

all lying in the said Yard

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner for notes of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here and at the Yard. G. Smith.

Office of Ordnance, April 22, 1831.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that they are ready to let for a term of years, to such persons as may be willing to rent the same,

A beautiful Marine Villa, late the residence of the Commanding Engineer, and Engineer Offices, situate in Arch Cliff Fort, Dover, commanding an uninterrupted view of the French Coast, Dover Castle, the Town, and the Channel, from the South Foreland to Dungeness.

The house contains six rooms, butler's pantry, water closet, kitchen, and scullery, on the basement floor, and seven bed-rooms and store on the upper floor; there are also three large rooms over the entrance to the Fort, which might be easily converted into sitting or bed-rooms.

The out-buildings consist of a dairy and larder, with a laundry and servants' bed-room over them; adjoining is an excellent wine cellar and coal store, stabling for six horses, harness-room, coach-house, wood store, piggery, &c. &c. with a small garden in rear of it.

The premises are well supplied with good water, and are in every way well adapted for the residence of a respectable family.

For particulars and tickets to view the premises, apply at the Royal Engineer-Office, Maison Dieu, Dover

Sealed tenders (with the words "Tender for the hire of the house at Arch Cliff Fort," written on one corner of the envelope) to be sent to the Royal Engineer-Office, Dover, addressed to the Secretary to the Board of Ordnance, on or before twelve o'clock A. M. on Saturday the 7th day of May next.

By order of the Board,

R. Byham, Secretary.
