WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the evening of Sunday the 24th day of April last, a barn, situate at Hurstperpoint, in the county of Sussex, belonging to Mr. Borrer, and containing a quantity of wheat and straw, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, whereby the same, together with a straw stack adjoining, was consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by Mr. Borrer, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.
