

The real or personal estate of the said Bankrupts, each or either of them, at Beerferris aforesaid, Sheffield, in Yorkshire, or elsewhere, either by public auction or private contract, at such time and place, or times and places, and in such manner, and upon such terms and conditions, as the said Assignee may deem most advantageous and proper, and as to such part upon which legal mortgages or mortgage have been given, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee concurring with the Mortgagees or Mortgagee in the sale thereof, or making such arrangement with the said Mortgagees or Mortgagee thereon as he shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying out of the funds arising from the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, certain costs and expences incurred in and about the affairs of the said Bankrupts, and of investigating such affairs, and also in the endeavours to effect an arrangement and compromise with the said Bankrupts' Creditors previous to the opening of the said Commission; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee retaining, relinquishing, or giving up, any leasehold interest, benefit, or advantage, which the said Bankrupts, each or either of them, were possessed of or entitled to at the time of their Bankruptcy in certain hereditaments or premises, at Beerferris aforesaid, or elsewhere, or to the agreeing with the landlord thereof for the use of the said premises, for a period not exceeding eight months; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or suit, at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, each of them; or to his compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling, or agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; or presenting, prosecuting, opposing, and defending any petitions or petition to the Lord Chancellor, for the recovery, defence, or protection of any part thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling, by public sale or private contract, the interest or share (if any) of the said John Shore in certain iron-works at Sheffield, in which he is interested, either to the Partners in the said iron-works or otherwise; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee adopting such other ways and means for all and every and each of the above purposes as he the said Assignee in his discretion may think requisite and proper, and for the advantage of the said Bankrupt's estate.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Walker, of Bugbrook, in the County of Northampton, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 6th day of July next, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Peacock Inn, in the Town of Northampton, in order to determine as to the sale of the real and other estates of the said Bankrupt now undisposed of; and to assent to or dissent from the commencement and prosecution of suits against debtors to the estate of the said Bankrupt, or otherwise to obtain payment of all such debts as remain due and unpaid, and also to consider and determine if any and what allowance shall be made to the Bankrupt, out of the rents and profits of such estates, as remain unsold; and on other special affairs concerning the said Bankruptcy; to which meeting all persons having claims on the said Bankrupt's estate are required to send an account and particulars thereof, or to me at my Office, Wood-Street, Northampton, on or before the 4th day of July next.

GEORGE COOKE, Solicitor to the Assignees.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Dewey, of the Hamlet of Barton-Saint Mary, near the City, but in the County of Gloucester, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 5th of July next, at Eleven o'clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Spread Eagle Inn, in the City of Gloucester, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding or compromising with any debtor or debtors to the said Bankrupt's estate, and taking part in discharge of the whole, or the giving time or taking security for the payment of the debts, or submitting disputes to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating to the said estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction, and partly by private contract, and in such lots, parcels, way, and manner as they shall think best, all and every, or any of the leasehold and leasehold estate, in or to which the said Bankrupt, or any person or persons in trust for him, at the time he became Bankrupt, had any estate, right, title, or interest whatsoever, subject to such conditions, and upon such terms, as the Assignees may think fit, and from time to time to buy in, and afterwards to resell the said estates, or any of them, or any part or parts thereof, at such times, and in such manner, as they shall think fit, without being answerable or accountable for any loss or expence which may be occasioned by such buying or selling; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Law, relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed: and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 11th day of June 1831, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by EDWARD DARKE, late of the Box, in the Parish of Minchinhampton, in the County of Gloucester, but now of Stroud, in the said County, Maltster, Boat-Owner, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

And on the 13th day of June 1831, by WILLIAM SMITH, of Welwyn, in the County of Hertford, Grocer, Corn-Chandler, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date on or about the 20th day of May 1831, was awarded and issued forth against Samuel Stone, of Austin-Friars, in the City of London, Broker, Dealer and Chapman; this is to give notice, that the said Commission is, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, superseded.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against Peter Johnson, late of Saint Mary-Axe, in the City of London (but now a prisoner for debt in the Debtors' Prison for London and Middlesex, in Whitecross-Street, in the City of London), Wine-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Com-
