

Privy Council, from time to time to reduce, relinquish, abolish, alter, or modify, all or any, or either of the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls, or any part or parts thereof, payable to them, and again to revive or re-establish the same, in manner as in the said Act is more particularly set forth; in pursuance of this authority, the said Corporation has submitted to His Majesty in Council, a proposition for effecting a farther reduction of the tolls payable for the Flatholm Light, in the Bristol Channel; and His Majesty having, at a Court held at St. James's, on the 27th July 1831, been pleased to signify his royal assent to, and confirmation of, the said proposition;

Notice is hereby given, that on and from the 1st day of October next, the tolls for the Flatholm Light, at the reduced rates established in like manner under the authority of an Order in Council, bearing date 10th March 1824, will cease, and the under-mentioned rates, for each time of passing the said light, will be collected in lieu thereof, viz.

British Oversea Traders—three farthings per ton.
Coasters and Irish Traders—one farthing per ton.
Coasters between the Land's End and St. David's Head—one shilling per vessel.
Foreign Vessels, privileged as British—three farthings per ton.
Foreign Vessels, not so privileged—three halfpence per ton.

By command of the Corporation,
J. Herbert, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, by the Vestrymen of the parish of Saint Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, in the ensuing session; for leave to bring in a bill or bills for altering and amending, or repealing and consolidating, the powers of a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for repealing several Acts, made in the eighth, tenth, thirteenth, and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, for regulating the nightly watch and beadles, and for paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting the parish of Saint Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, and for the better relief and maintenance of the poor thereof, and for divers other purposes therein mentioned, and for making more effectual provision for those purposes;" and of a certain other Act, passed in the forty-sixth year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act, made in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty, for watching, paving, cleansing, and lighting the the parish of Saint Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, and for the better relief and maintenance of the poor thereof;" and of a certain other Act, passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Vestrymen of the parish of Saint Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, to build a new parish church, and two or more chapels, and for other purposes relating thereto;" and of a certain other Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering and amending two several Acts, of the thirty-fifth and forty-sixth years of the reign of His present Majesty, for paving and improving the parish of Saint Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex;" and of a certain other Act, passed in the first and second years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enable the Vestrymen of the parish of Saint Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, to effectuate the building of four district churches in the said parish, and for other purposes relating thereto;" and of a certain other Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers of three several Acts, made in the thirty-fifth, forty-sixth, and fifty-third years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for regulating the nightly watch and beadles, and for paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting the parish of Saint Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, and for the better relief and maintenance of the poor thereof, and for divers other purposes therein mentioned, and for making more effectual provision for those purposes;" or of any or either of them.—Dated this 19th day of August 1831.

James Hugo Greenwell, Vestry Clerk.
