

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THREE HUNDRED and TEN POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—£100 of such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and £210 by the Treasurer of the Lavington Association for the Prosecution of Felons. MELBOURNE.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Monday the 12th day of September instant, a corn-stack and hay-rick belonging to Mr. John Sambell, of Callington, in the county of Cornwall, were feloniously and maliciously set on fire and nearly destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein; so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—£100 of such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and £50 by the inhabitants of Callington. MELBOURNE.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Monday the 12th day of September instant, a stack of barley belonging to John Nummerley, of Rees-heath, in the parish of Whitchurch, in the county of Salop, Farmer, the buildings and corn-stacks of William Darlington, of Twemlows, in the same parish, Farmer, and the buildings and corn and hay-stacks of Thomas Booth, also of Twemlows, Farmer, were feloniously and maliciously set on fire and consumed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said property) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS in each of the above cases is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the offender or offenders who caused either of the above fires, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of either of the said offences.—A reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is also offered (with the same exception) by Sir Rowland Hill, Bart. MELBOURNE.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

THE Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses hereby give notice, that a Light-house has been erected upon Dunnethad, in the county of Caithness; the light of which will be exhibited on Saturday the 1st day of October next, and will thereafter continue to be lighted every night, from the going away of day-light in the evening till the return of day-light in the morning.

The following is a Specification of the Position of the Light-House, and the Appearance of the Light, by Mr. Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners:

Dunnethad Light-house is situate on the northern extremity of the mainland of Scotland, in north latitude 58 deg. 42 min., and west longitude 3 deg. 29 min.

The light-house, by compass, bears from the north end of the island of Stroma, in Pentland Frith, W. by N. distant  $7\frac{1}{2}$  miles; from Hoy Head, leading to Hoy Sound, S. S. W. distant 13 miles; from the Stack and Skerry, S. by E.  $\frac{3}{4}$  E. distant 31 miles; and from Cape Wrath, in Sutherlandshire, E. by S.  $\frac{3}{4}$  S. distant 42 miles. In reference to these bearings, the light will be visible to the mariner in a northerly direction from S. E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  E. to W.

This light will be known to mariners as a stationary light, from oil, with reflectors; and being elevated 346 feet above the medium level of the sea, it will be seen like a star of the first magnitude, at the distance of from 7 to 8 leagues, and at intermediate distances, according to the state of the weather.

By order of the Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses, C. Cunningham, Secretary.
Edinburgh, August 18, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to continue for a further term, and to amend and enlarge the powers contained in, and to vary, increase or alter the tolls and rates granted or authorised to be collected by, an Act passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, entitled "An Act for widening and improving the street or road leading from Tower-hill to the street, called Upper East Smithfield, in the parish of Saint Botolph, without Aldgate, in the county of Middlesex," and an Act
