FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1831.

Downing-Street, September 20, 1831.

THE King has been pleased to command, that an Investiture of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath shall take place at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 28th instant, at half past one o'clock; when the Knights Grand Crosses and Knights Commanders are to attend and receive from His Majesty their respective badges of the Order.

St. James's-Palace, September 21, 1831.

THE following Addresses to the King, on the occasion of their Majesties' Coronation, have been presented to His Majesty and graciously received:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, and Livery of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, approach your Majesty's Throne to offer unto your Majesty our joyful congratulations upon your Majesty's Coronation.

We, dutifully, renew to your Majesty the declaration of our devoted loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Family; and humbly assure your Majesty of our earnest prayers, that your Majesty may long continue to reign over this realm, the beloved Monarch of a free and faithful people.

We pray your Majesty to receive our especial gratitude for the benign and patriotic spirit with which your Majesty was graciously pleased to recommend to the attention of Parliament, the important question of a reform in the representation; and our assurances of your people's increased attachment to your Majesty's Government, from the salutary measures now before the Legislature, for effecting parliamentary reform, being permitted to do so under the powerful support of your Majesty's Ministers.

Given under our common seal, at the Guildhall, Nottingham, the 15th day of September, in the year of our Lord 1831, Wm. Wilson, Mayor; Hy. Enfield, Town Clerk.

[Presented by Lord Holland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates, Councillors, Trades, and other Inhabitants of the Burgh of Maybole and its Vicinity.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Councillors, Trades, and other Inhabitants of Maybole and its Vicinity, assembled in public meeting, beg leave most humbly to approach your Majesty, to offer our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the happy event of your Majesty's Coronation, by which the compact between your Most Gracious Majesty and your loyal and affectionate people is solemnly confirmed.

Deeply sensible of the blessings which have hitherto attended your Majesty's mild and paternal reign, we look forward with confidence to a continuance of your Majesty's patriotic solicitude for the happiness and prosperity of this great empire, for the maintenance of the rights and liberties of your subjects, and the just prerogatives of your Majesty's Crown.

Permit us, Most Gracious Sire, on this happy occasion, to express our inviolable attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government; and to assure your Majesty, that while it will ever be our study to shew in our own persons, an example of loyalty to the Throne and obedience to the Laws, we shall never fail to inculcate on all over whom we may have influence, that veneration for the Laws and Constitution, which we ourselves so deeply and gratefully cherish.

That your Majesty may long sway the sceptre of these realms in prosperity and glory; and that the descendants of your illustrious House may continue, to the latest generation, to be the guardians of that sceptre, and the protectors of our laws and liberties, is the fervent and constant prayer of our hearts.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the meeting, by the Chief Magistrate of the Burgh, at Maybole, the 8th day of September 1831, William Gaudie, Chief Magistrate.

Whitehall, September 23, 1831.

THE following Addresses to the King, on the occasion of their Majesties' Coronation, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Halifax, convened by the Public Authorities.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, Inhabitants of the Town of Halifax, beg leave to approach the Throne with every sentiment of unfeigned and zealous attachment to your Royal Person and Government.

We dwell with pleasing remembrance on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these realms, rejoicing to witness, in the example of your Majesty, a Monarch identified in interest and feeling with his people.

We beg to assure your Majesty, we are not insensible to that true patriotism which has evinced itself in your generous sacrifices for the relief of public burdens, and your paternal solicitude for the redress of public abuses; patriotism, which may well endear the Monarchy to our affections, rendering loyalty not only our duty, but our pride; not a reluctant allegiance, but the spontaneous homage of a free and grateful people.

Long may your Majesty wear the diadem so lately placed on your royal head, till, having reigned through many years with honour to your Majesty and equal blessing to your subjects, you may lay down your exalted dignities only to be invested with a brighter crown of immortality and glory.

The Reverend Charles Musgrave, Chairman.

[Transmitted by the Reverend C. Musgrave.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, in Guild, this day assembled, beg leave most humbly and respectfully to approach your Majesty's Throne, to express our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the happy celebration of the august solemnity of your Majesty's Royal Coronation, and that of your Majesty's illustrious and Royal Consort, Queen Adelaide, whose eminent virtues adorn her exalted station, and justly endear her to all your Majesty's faithful people.

Deeply sensible of the many inestimable benefits which this nation has heretofore experienced under the mild and paternal sway of the illustrious House of Brunswick, we confidently anticipate under your Majesty's auspicious reign, a continuance and confirmation of the blessings of civil and religious liberty, and we, therefore, regard your Majesty's Royal Coronation as a solemn ratification before God and the nation, of the high duties to the performance of which your Majesty had become pledged, upon your accession to the Imperial Crown of these realms.

We humbly beseech Almighty God, by whom alone Kings reign, to grant your Majesty, and your Royal Consort long and happy lives,—and we fervently pray that, blessed with health, crowned with length of days, and beholding your people in the full enjoyment of all the blessings of peace and prosperity, your Majesty may long and gloriously reign over a free, loyal, and grateful nation.

Given under our common seal, this 16th day of September 1831, John Bertram Orde, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Mayor.]

To His Most Excellent Majesty, KING WILLIAM the FOURTH.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Royal Burgh of Ayr, Scotland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of your Majesty's most ancient Royal Burgh of Ayr, Scotland, in Council assembled, beg leave most humbly to offer our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the present occasion of the Coronation of your Majesty.

From the mild and temperate mode in which the sceptre has been swayed by your Majesty since your happy accession to the Throne, we look forward with entire confidence to your future reign, for a continuance of the same patriotic attention to the Laws and Constitution of this realm, by which the just prerogatives of the Crown, and the rights and liberties of the subject, will be equally protected and promoted.

That your Majesty's reign over a free, loyal, and happy people may be long, prosperous, and glorious, is our most earnest and ardent prayer.

Signed by the Provost, in name and by the appointment of the Council, and sealed with the Town's seal, at Ayr, the 14th of September 1831 years, Quintin Kennedy, Provost of the Royal Burgh of Ayr.

[Transmitted by the Provost.]

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 1st day of November next; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at this Office on or before Wednesday the 5th day of October next; but none will be received after eleven o'clock on that day.

Proposals must be made separately for each county and island, except for the counties comprising North and South Wales, all of which must be included in one tender; likewise the islands of Alderney, Guernsey, and Jersey, as also the several counties in North Britain; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be supplied by virtue of the same, the amount of the stamps on the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, will be refunded to him.

N. B. It is particularly desired that persons wishing to tender will not make use of any forms but those recently printed, which may be had upon application at this Office, and to the Barrack-Masters in the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Man.

Notice to the Creditors of Alexander Buie, Vintner or Inn-keeper and Timber-Merchant, and also Farmer, residing in Fochabers.

September 16, 1831.

ALEXANDER YOUNG, Brewer, in Elgin, hereby intimates, that he has been chosen and confirmed Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Alexander Buie; and that the Sheriff of Elgin has fixed Saturday the 1st and Tuesday the 18th days of October next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon of each day, within the Sheriff-Clerk's-Office, Elgin, for the public examination of the Bankrupt and others connected with his affairs.

The Trustee also intimates, that two general meetings of the Creditors of the said Alexander Buie will be held within his (the said Alexander Buie's) Inn, in Fochabers,—the one on Wednesday the 19th October, and the other on Wednesday the 2d November next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon of each day, for the purpose of choosing Commissioners and instructing the Trustee in the management of the estate.

And the Trustee hereby requires the Creditors to produce in his hands their claims and vouchers or grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereto, at or previous to the said first meeting; certifying, that all those who neglect to do so, on or before the 13th day of June 1832, being ten months from the date of the first deliverance on the petition for sequestration, shall have no share in the first distribution of the Bankrupt's estate,—all in terms of the Statute.
