Downing-Street, September 20, 1831.

THE King has been pleased to command, that an Investiture of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath shall take place at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 28th instant, at half past one o'clock; when the Knights Grand Crosses and Knights Commanders are to attend and receive from His Majesty their respective badges of the Order.

St. James's-Palace, September 21, 1831.

THE following Addresses to the King, on the occasion of their Majesties' Coronation, have been presented to His Majesty and graciously received:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, and Livery of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, approach your Majesty's Throne to offer unto your Majesty our joyful congratulations upon your Majesty's Coronation.

We, dutifully, renew to your Majesty the declaration of our devoted loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Family; and humbly assure your Majesty of our earnest prayers, that your Majesty may long continue to reign over this realm, the beloved Monarch of a free and faithful people.

We pray your Majesty to receive our especial gratitude for the benign and patriotic spirit with which your Majesty was graciously pleased to recommend to the attention of Parliament, the important question of a reform in the representation; and our assurances of your people's increased attachment to your Majesty's Government, from the salutary measures now before the Legislature, for effecting parliamentary reform, being permitted to do so under the powerful support of your Majesty's Ministers.

Given under our common seal, at the Guildhall, Nottingham, the 15th day of September, in the year of our Lord 1831, Wm. Wilson, Mayor; Hy. Enfield, Town Clerk.

[Presented by Lord Holland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates, Councillors, Trades, and other Inhabitants of the Burgh of Maybole and its Vicinity.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Councillors, Trades, and other Inhabitants of Maybole and its Vicinity, assembled in public meeting, beg leave most humbly to approach your Majesty, to offer our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the happy event of your Majesty's Coronation, by which the compact between your Most Gracious Majesty and your loyal and affectionate people is solemnly confirmed.

Deeply sensible of the blessings which have hitherto attended your Majesty's mild and paternal reign, we look forward with confidence to a continuance of your Majesty's patriotic solicitude for the happiness and prosperity of this great empire, for the maintenance of the rights and liberties of your subjects, and the just prerogatives of your Majesty's Crown.

Permit us, Most Gracious Sire, on this happy occasion, to express our inviolable attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government; and to assure your Majesty, that while it will ever be our study to shew in our own persons, an example of loyalty to the Throne and obedience to the Laws, we shall never fail to inculcate on all over whom we may have influence, that veneration for the Laws
