FRIDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1831.

Whitehall, December 16, 1831.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Majesty KING WILLIAM the FOURTH.

Sire,

WE, your dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the borough of Preston, in the county of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to offer this humble expression of our attachment, and our sincere congratulations upon the Coronation of your Majesty and your Royal Consort.

Your high character, your gracious declarations, your mild and paternal government, had already disposed us to the greatest confidence; we have, nevertheless, rejoiced at witnessing in that august ceremony the compact between Sovereign and People renewed, sanctioned by the sacred oath of your Majesty, and cemented by the recognition, homage, and applause of all ranks and orders of your subjects.

We return thanks to Almighty God, who has blessed your counsels to the preservation of your kingdom at peace with all the world; we pray that every desire and endeavour of your Majesty may be prospered to the honour of your Throne and the welfare of your People; and we assure your Majesty that, in affection and loyalty to your Person and Government, none shall exceed your devoted subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the borough of Preston.

Given under the common seal of the said borough, the 8th day of December, in the second year of your Majesty's reign.

James Dixon, Mayor.

Whitehall, December 16, 1831.

AN Address to His Majesty from the Freemen, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the city and county of the city of Exeter, in favour of such a Reform as may be calculated to correct abuses consistently with the stability of the State, has been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

Whitehall, December 16, 1831.

THE following Addresses and Petitions—praying for Parliamentary Reform—expressing their feeling on the rejection of the Reform Bill—declaring their confidence in the King's Ministers—and praying His Majesty to exercise his prerogative of creating Peers—having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

- From the Inhabitants of the borough of Wigan, in the county of Lancaster, in public meeting assembled.
- From the Freeholders of the county of Cook.
- From the Freeholders of the county of Southampton.
- From the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Heritors, and Justices of the Peace of the county of Inverness, in a general meeting assembled.
- From the Inhabitants of the town of Stalbridge, in the county of Dorset, and vicinity.
- From the Landed Proprietors and Freeholders of the county of Kilkenny, convened by the High Sheriff.

From the Inhabitants of the parish of Collessie, Fife-shire, Scotland.

From the Magistrates, Councillors, Guild Brethren, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the ancient burgh of Montrose, in Scotland, assembled in Common Hall.

From the Proprietors, Householders, and Inhabitants of the parish of Campsie, in Stirlingshire.

From the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the town of Launceston and neighbourhood.

From the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the barony of Shelburne, in the county of Wexford.

From the Inhabitants of Inverness and its neighbourhood.

St. James's-Palace, December 16, 1831.

THE following Address has been presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To Her Most Gracious Majesty QUEEN ADELAIDE.

Madam,

PERMIT us, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the borough of Preston, in the county of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled, to take the opportunity of His Majesty's Coronation and yours, for offering our dutiful and sincere congratulations.

Our loyalty and affection for our Sovereign would necessarily lead us to take a warm interest in the rank and honour of one so nearly connected with him; but your Majesty has personal claims upon our esteem and respect. The conduct of those in exalted station is of public importance, and we think our nation happy in possessing a Queen who promotes the virtues of her sex both by powerful authority and bright example.

May your Majesty and our beloved King be preserved many years in health and prosperity.

Given under the common seal of the said borough, the 8th day of December, in the second year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth.
James Dixon, Mayor.

GRAND WESTERN CANAL.

WHEREAS the Committee of Management of the affairs of the Company of Proprietors of the Grand Western Canal, for the time or times being, did, at several different meetings of the said committee, duly held on several different days before the 14th day of April, 1830, make several different calls from the several proprietors of the navigation and undertaking authorised to be made and carried on by the said Company of Proprietors, for several different sums of money for and in respect of every share in the said navigation and undertaking, the same being at the several times found wanting and necessary by the said committee, in order to defray the expenses of and to carry on the said navigation and undertaking, and did appoint the same to be paid into the hands of Henry Skinner, Esq. Treasurer to the said Company of Proprietors, in Cullompton, in the county of Devon, on or before the several days next after such calls were made, as aforesaid; and long since expired, before the said 14th day of April; and whereas the committee of management of the affairs of the said company did, on the said 14th day of April, at a meeting of the said committee, duly held on that day, make a call from the several proprietors of the said navigation and undertaking for the sum of five pounds for and in respect of every share in the said navigation and undertaking; and whereas the committee of management of the affairs of the said company did, on the 8th day of December 1830, at a meeting of the said committee duly held on that day, make a call from the several proprietors of the said navigation and undertaking for the sum of five pounds for and in respect of every share in the said navigation and undertaking, the same two several calls for five pounds, and five pounds, being found wanting and necessary by the committee for the time being, making the said calls as aforesaid, in order to defray the expenses of and to carry on the said navigation and undertaking, and did appoint the first mentioned call for five pounds to be paid on or before the 10th day of June then following, and did appoint the last mentioned call for five pounds to be paid on or before the 10th day of February then following, into the hands of Sir John William Lubbock, Bart. Lubbock, Forster, Clarke, and Co. bankers, London, the Treasurers of the said Company of Proprietors; and the said committees did severally cause such notices of all the said calls to be given as is directed by the Act of Parliament in that case made and provided; and whereas the several persons mentioned in the schedule or list of shares hereunder written, marked with the letter A, were respectively before the said 14th day of April 1830, and the same several persons and also the several persons mentioned in the schedule or list of shares in the said Grand Western Canal, marked with the letter B, hereunder written, were respectively on the said 14th day of April 1830, and also on the said 8th day of December 1830, and thenceforth respectively until the respective forfeitures hereinafter mentioned, proprietors of the several and respective shares in the said canal set against their respective names in the said schedules or lists, and distinguished by the numbers also set against their several and respective names in the same schedules or lists, and have respectively neglected to pay their respective proportionable parts or any part of the money so called for as aforesaid, for and in respect of their respective shares in the said navigation and undertaking, for the space of three calendar months after the several times appointed for payment thereof as aforesaid, whereby they severally and respectively absolutely forfeited their several and respective shares, parts, and interests in the said undertaking, and all profit and advantage thereof, and all money theretofore advanced by them respectively on account thereof, to and for the use and benefit of the other proprietors of the said undertaking.

Now notice is hereby given, to the said several persons mentioned in the said schedules or lists respectively marked with the letters A, B, hereunder written, their respective executors, administrators, and assigns, of the said respective forfeitures, and that unless they or their respective executors, administrators, or assigns, shall respectively, on or before the 31st day of December instant, pay into the hands of Sir John William Lubbock, Bart. Lubbock, Forster, Clarke, and Co. bankers, London, the Treasurers of the said Company, their respective proportionable parts of the several sums of money so called for as aforesaid, for and in respect of their said respective shares, the said committee will at their general meeting, intended to be held on the 25th day of January next, at the office of the said company, No. 4, Tokenhouse-yard, in the city of London, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, declare the said shares respectively to be forfeited, and that advantage will be taken of the said forfeitures respectively, by and on behalf of the other proprietors of the said undertaking.—Dated this 3d day of December, in the year of our Lord 1831.

By order of the said Committee,
Fred. Leigh, Principal Clerk to the said Company of Proprietors.

ANNE JOHNSTON ROBERTS (formerly Anne Johnston Burrowes), deceased:

IF the Next of Kin or other Relations of Anne Johnston Roberts (formerly Anne Johnston Burrowes; late of Aldermanbury, London, who died on the 28th day of March 1824, a Widow, will apply to Mr. James William Freshfield, jun. at No. 5, New Bank-Buildings, London, they will hear of something to their advantage.

To be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of James v. Smith, before Sir Giffin Wilson, Knt. one of the Masters of the said Court, in the Public Sale-Room of the Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Thursday the 19th day of January 1832, between the hours of One and Two (in one lot);

A freehold estate, called Pipers, situate in Church-Gate-Street, in the Town of Harlow, in the County of Essex, consisting of a large dwelling-house, with coach-house, brew-house, dairy, and other suitable outbuildings, a garden (partly walled), orchard, melon-ground, and two parcels of meadow-land adjoining, the whole containing together about 6A. 1R. 36P. and under a lease, granted to Lieutenant-Colonel Munn, deceased, for a term of twenty-one years, which will expire at Midsummer 1833, at a clear yearly rental of £65, subject (as to a part of the meadow-land) to a rent-charge of 3s. 4d. per annum.

Particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings; of Messrs. Clutton and Fearon, Solicitors, No. 48, High-Street, Southwark, and No. 1, Crown-Office-Row, Temple; of Messrs. Hutchinson and Holdsworth, Solicitors, Lincoln's-Inn; of Mr. Fielder, Solicitor, Duke-Street, Grosvenor-Square; of Messrs. Finnis and Son, Solicitors, No. 21, Hart-Street, Bloomsbury-Square; and the principal Inns in Chelmsford, Ongar, Romford, and the neighbouring Towns.

WHEREAS, by an Order, made by the Right Honourable the Vice-Chancellor of Great Britain, in the matter of John Hind, a Bankrupt, it was ordered, among other things, that it should be referred to the Master of the Court of Chancery in rotation, to inquire how much of the Exchequer bills and cash therein mentioned belongs to the estate of the said John Hind, the Bankrupt, and that the said Master should cause advertisements to be published, for all persons, other than the Creditors of the said Bankrupt, having any claim or claim upon the said Exchequer bills and cash, to come in before him and make out his or their claim or claims in respect thereof; and whereas the said Exchequer bills and cash have in part arisen from and been produced by the sale of a certain messuage or tenement and warehouse, situate in a back lane or street on the east side of the Town of Gibraltar, formerly the property of Yelverton Dennis, of Gibraltar aforesaid, Merchant, long since deceased, and a messuage or dwelling house, yards and premises, situate on the east side of the Main-Street, in Gibraltar aforesaid, formerly the property of Alexander Robertson, of Gibraltar aforesaid, Merchant, also long since deceased; and whereas Ann, the widow of the said Yelverton Dennis, and who became the wife, and was afterwards the widow, of the said Alexander Robertson, did, by indentures of lease and release, dated the 10th and 11th days of December, 1770, in consideration of an annuity granted to her, convey the said messuages and other hereditaments respectively unto Edward Dallin and the said John Hind, the Bankrupt (then carrying on the trade or business of Merchants in copartnership, at Gibraltar aforesaid), their heirs and assigns; now therefore all and every persons or person, other than the Creditors or a Creditor of the said Bankrupt, having or claiming any right or interest in, to, or upon the said Exchequer bills and cash, or any part thereof, as being the produce of the sale of the said messuages and premises, or upon the said Assignees of the said John Hind in respect thereof, by, from, or under the said Yelverton Dennis, Alexander Robertson, and Edward Dallin respectively, or either of them, or by, from, or under any other person or persons whomsoever, are and is hereby required to come in and make out their, his, or her claim or claims, before Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 15th day of March 1832, or in default thereof they, he, or she will peremptorily be excluded the benefit of the said Order.
