St. James's-Palace, December 23, 1831.

THE following Addresses—praying for Parliamentary Reform—expressing their feeling on the rejection of the Reform Bill—declaring their confidence in the King's Ministers—and praying His Majesty to exercise his prerogative of creating Peers—have been presented to His Majesty and graciously received:

From the Inhabitants of New Mills, in the parish of Glossop, and its neighbourhood, in the county of Derby.

From the Inhabitants of the town of Worthing, in public meeting assembled.

From the Magistrates, Bankers, Gentlemen, Tradesmen, and other Inhabitants of Devises, or its immediate vicinity, in the county of Wilts.

From the Magistrates, Clergy, Gentry, and Inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood of Chesterfield, in the county of Derby, in public meeting assembled.

From the Freeholders of the county of Hereford, assembled at a meeting convened by the High Sheriff.

St. James's-Palace, December 23, 1831.

THE following Address has been presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and affectionate subjects, the Convener, Master of Hospital, Seven Deacons, and whole other Members of the Seven Incorporated Trades of the city of Aberdeen, beg leave most humbly and respectfully to approach your Majesty to tender to your Majesty our sincere and joyful congratulations on the august and auspicious solemnity of placing the Royal Diadem upon the head of your Majesty, as Consort of our beloved Sovereign.

We feel justly proud in having a Queen upon the Throne of this great empire, in whom every virtue is combined which can adorn your Majesty's exalted station, add lustre to the British Crown, or endear your Majesty to your affectionate people.

Permit us, Madam, upon this happy occasion to
