J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in two causes of Bates v. Mickle, and Bates v. Mickle, with the approbation of James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room, Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, in the month of May 1832, of which due notice will be given, in one lot;

Two undivided fourth parts of a valuable farm, called Rashfield, in the Parish of Chieveley, in the County of Berks, within about five miles distant from the two capital Market Towns of Newbury and Hsley, containing about 113 acres of good arable land, in a high state of cultivation (the greater part tythe free), with farm house and outbuildings, now in the occupation of Mr. Robert Hughes, under lease, at the yearly rent of £165 for the entirety.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Jackman v. Stanley, with the approbation of John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the time and place shortly to be appointed;

Certain real estates, late of William Stanley, Esq. the testator in the pleadings of the said cause named, consisting of divers messuages, tenements, or dwelling-houses, lands, premises, and appurtenances, situate at Maryland-Point, Stratford, in the County of Essex.

Printed particulars whereof may shortly be had (gratis) at the said Master's Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Sweet and Carr, Solicitors, Basinghall-Street; and Mr. Barry, Solicitor, Old Jewry, in the City of London.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Westley versus Good, it was ordered that it should be referred to the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court whether any and what first and second cousins of David Lewis, deceased, late of Cornhill, in the City of London, Nursery and Seedsman (the testator in the pleadings named), on his mother's side, were living at the decease of Robert Westley the younger, who was the survivor of John Lewis and Nathaniel Child, respectively named in the will of the said testator; and in case any of them have since died, who is or are the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying; therefore all persons claiming to be such first and second cousins, who were living at the decease of the said Robert Westley the younger, or the personal representatives of any of them who have since died, are forthwith to come in and prove their kindred and make out their claims before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

The said David Lewis, the testator, died in or about the year 1800, and the said Robert Westley the younger died on or about the 20th day of January 1830.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Gunter v. Gunter, it is referred to John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court who was intended by the words "the child of her nephew, James Gunter," mentioned in the will of Anne Negri (the testatrix in the pleadings mentioned), bearing date the 13th day of July 1794, and whether such child be living or dead; and in case the said Master should find the said child to be dead, then he was to enquire when such child died, and whether such child attained the age of twenty-five years; it is stated that the said James Gunter was the son of James Gunter, by Elizabeth his wife (formerly Elizabeth Knox, Spinster), that the aforesaid James Gunter, the father (who is now deceased), formerly enlisted and became a corporal in the 11th regiment of Foot, in the service of His late Majesty King George the Third; the said James Gunter, the son, was born about the year 1790, in or about the year 1804 he was apprenticed to Messrs. Robert and George Patten (both now deceased), who resided in Upper Rathbone-Place, in the Parish of Saint Mary le-Bone, in the County of Middlesex, and who there carried on the business of Cabinet and Chair-Makers, and, in or about the year 1805, the said James Gunter, the son, clandestinely left his above-named masters; and has never since been heard of; therefore the said James Gunter, the son, if living, is forthwith to come in and prove such his identity, or any person or persons claiming to be interested in the aforesaid enquiries, is or are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and establish such his, her, or their respective claims, before the said Master, Mr. Dowdeswell, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof he, she, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Barker against Collett, the Children, if living, or the personal representatives of such of them as may be dead, of Sarah Barker, formerly of Lee, in the County of Kent (who died on the 10th day of May 1808), late the wife of William Barker, of Greenwich, in the same County, and also of Sophia Dobson, formerly of New Bond-Street, in the County of Middlesex (who died on the 17th day of July 1787), late the wife of Charles Dobson, of Tokenhouse-Yard, London, Woollen-Factor, the nieces of Joseph Collett, the
